THE WAR NEWS.

FROM THE POTOMAC .- The army of Gen. Hooker has not crossed the Rappahannock, as stated last week ; the report having arisen from the fact that a flag of trucs was sent over to bury our dead. The army is still on this side, in their old camp, in good condition, and ready to march at any moment that their brave coffimander gives the order to advance.

The transport Cosmopolitan arrived at N. Y on Wednesday morning from Hilton Head, with 350 sick and wounded soldiers. The sick were taken from the general hospitals at Hilton Head Beaufort, S. C., and other points, and are from Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, New-York, and Connecticut regiments. They were taken to the general hospital at David's Island. A portion of Gen. Hunter's troops occupy Folly Island, near Charlesfon, where they have become permanently established. Palmetto leaves have been found to be a good substitute for canvas for shelter. Our pickets ry lines. The President has changed the senand the enemy's on Morris Island converse freely across the narrow creek which seperates them, and minature vessels, freighted with tobacco, have been often sent to our side. with requests for reciprocal cargoes of coffee, the total want of which the Rebels say is a cause of great discomfort to them.

A Cairo dispatch says that Adjutant-Gen-Thomas has organized ten regiments of negroes, and expects to organize ten more. Our troops all the way from Memphis to Young's Point are moving to re-enforce Gen. Grant. Gen. Grant will endeavor to cut the railroad between Vicksburg ane Jackson, and a battle is expected in the vicinity of the Black River bridge. The Jackson Appeal says Gen. Bowen's loss at Bayou Pierre was about 1,000.

Gov. Morton has asked the Secretary of Wat to order the confinement of 800 of the Rebel prisoners now in our hands, that they may be held as hostages for the exchange and return of the 400 Alabamians belonging to Col. Streight's 51st Indiana Regiment, who were not paroled with the other troops recently cap-

ARREST AND TRIAL OF VALLANDIGHAM. On our first page we publish the charge upon which Vallandigham was arrested, together with the specifications and the prisoners reply thereto. The heating took place, beginning of last week, in Cincinnati. The report of the proceedings is quite volumnious, and the evidence fully sustained the several points contained in the specification. We shall only make a brief quotation from the testimony of Capt, John A. Means. In answer to the question, "Did you hear the acused address that meeting ?" he answered :

* . He [Vallandigham] said, in regard fall election, that no more volunteers could be had; that the administration had to resort to the French conscription act ; that he would not counsel resistance to the military or civil law, for that was not needed ; that a people were unworthy to be freemen who would submit to such encroachments on-their liberties. Q. What encroachments did he refer to?

A. He was speaking of the conscription act. was attempting to erect a despotism ; that in less than one month Lincoln had plunged the country into this cruel, bloody and unnecessary war

Q. Can you recall anything he said in relation to General order No. 38?

A. He said that General order No. 38 was a usurpation of power; that he despised it, spit upon it ; trampled it under his feet ; that he, for one, would not regard it. He styled the Administration officers, and officers of the army, as minions of the administration. He said he did not ask General Ambrose Barnside whether he might speak there or not; that he was a freeman, and spoke when and where he pleased

The trial lasted two days and it is stated that a majority of the Court sentenced him to hard labor at the Tortugas, (off the coast of Flosida ;) but that the minority were in favor of sending him South beyond our militatence from that pronounced by the majority to that proposed by the minority. In this commutation of the sentence the President has given one more evidence of his wisdom and kindness. Mr. Vallandigham has shown ever since the war began that his heart was with the rebels, so he has sent him after it, with orders to stay there until the war is over. He has done all he could, in Congress and out of Congress, to paralyze the arm of the Government in its war with its traitorous enemies, and to that extent he had given them aid and comfort ; now they will have the opportunity to reward him for his labors. By this admirable disposition of this dangerous person the President has at once put it out of his power to be either a pest or a martyr.

THE ORIGINAL COPPERHEAD.

The tollowing extract from Benedict Arnold's "Proclamation to the citizens and soldiers of the United States," issued Oct. 20. 1780, is very much like many of the Copperhead speeches and editorials of the present ay. He talked of the tyranny of the govern ment; so do they. He was for surrendering and compromising the quarrel; they are for doing the same thing. But Arnold's treason was nobler than theirs ; for he was for yielding to a great and powerful nation, which had some claims upon the fealty of the people; but these dastards wish to lie down at the feet of traitors who can of right claim nothing but halters. Black as Arnold's record is, it begins to appear less dark when brought into contrast with theirs. Here is what he said-

MEETING OF THE 123D REG. PENN'A VOL. Their Opinion of Gen. Hooker.

From the Harrisburg Telegraph of May 14th. Immeniately after the appearance of the Patriot and Union, on Tuesday, containing the foul attack on Gen. Hooker, and after it had reached Camp Curtin, an immense excitement was at once created, and it was only by the prompt orders of the officers that the men were restrained from marching to the city and visiting vengeance on the traducers of their brave leader, Gen. Hooker. This morning, after that sheet had again appeared, in which it en to the rebuke of the administration at the last | deavored to crawl out of its base assaults, the indignation of the brave fellows was turned to scorn, and they resolved at once to call a meeting, in which to express their contempt for those guilty, first, of falsehood and afterwards of cowardice to escape the resentiment which their libels on the most exalted valor have excited in the hearts of the brave men who have He said that he believed the Administration just returned to this city from the bloody fields of Virginia.

> Corporal Harper, Co. G, of 123d, called the meeting to order, by nominating Lieut. Bartley as chairman.

Private Alexander Dempster, of Co. G, was appointed Secretary. He laid before the meeting the article in Saturday's and Tuesday's Patriot and Union. In the edition of Saturday Gen. Hooker is charged with being "a braggart, a boaster and no General ;" while in that of Tuesday last he is placed in the light of "a drunkard in whom the army has no confidence."

After which the following preamble and resolutions were read to the regiment and enthusiastically adopted :

WHEREAS, On yesterday there appeared in the columns of the "Copperhead Organ," the Patriot and Union, an assertion purporting, "to have been received from reliable sources, that Hooker on the Sunday of the battle was beastly drunk," &c ; And whereas, We, the members of the 123d Penna Vol., having been in a position to behold the conduct of our commander on that day, which will'be chronicled in the calander of our country's history of the present war as a great and noble one, and one characteristic of great events, and which will be proudly remembered by every soldier of the army and every true American, and therefore competent witnesses in the matter, whose united testimony will certainly be favorably received for its veracity ; And whereas, We desire to express the truth for the unformation of all true men, as well as traitors. we do adopt the following resolutions, hoping they may have their desired effect of setting forth the matter in its true light;

First. That the assertion of the Patriot and Union is an unqualified falsehood, and a reproach thrown at the fair fame of our beloved General, acquired on many a hard fought field, and not to be passed over in silence by those who have Orders are issued to stop the exportation of horses, mules and cattle. All caught in transit will be seized, appraised, and taken for Government use. Commanders of Departments are also directed to be vigilant in preventing the exportation of arms and way material.

Advices from Gen. Grant to the 8th inst have been received in Washington. He expresses -satisfaction with the appearance of affairs in his vicinity, and states that Port Hudson is undoubtedly evacuated except by a small garrison and their heavy artillery.

A letter from Newbern says that a large majority of the nine-months soldiers have expressed a determination to reenlist for the war, after a months furlough, provided they can return to this Department, and fight under their old chief, Gen. Foster.

It is said that the Rebel Cavalry in front of Rosencrans' Army are constantly changing Britain and America in a true light, and ceposition, and that Wheeler and Morgan are at Liberty and Alexandria, with 5,000 Cavalry the attainment of peace. liberty and safely, the -all which is supposed to indicate an attack first objects in taking the field. on Nashville.

Gen. T. F. Meagher has resigned his commission. His letter ascribes his action to the retusal of the Government to allow the Irish Brigade to have a furlough for the purpose of recruiting their thinned ranks.

Rebel papers say that the siege of Suffolk, which has kept up only some three or four weeks, enabled Gen. Longstreet to gather up, beside large quantities of coru, over 1,500,000 pounds of bacon.

All our wounded left on the other side of the Rappahannock have been brought over. While in Rebei hands they were treated as well as they had reason to expect.

Orders have been issued from the War Department directing all officers and men included in the recent exchanges to repair at once to their several commands.

Private Julius Wilcke, of the 10th Michigan infantry, was shot at Nashville, for desertion.

JEFF. DAVIS DESPONDING .- The President on Thursday evening, received from the headquarters of the army of the Potomac an original letter of Jefferon Davis, addressed to one of his Colonels, in which he sbeaks despond- the proceedings seemed colder. One brother ingly of affairs in the Southwest and on the Rappahannock. The letter was found in a rebel camp at Fredericksburg, and is dated says that had he not been a man of wealth May 2.

A FOREIGN LOAN .- A Washigton dispatch to the N. Y. Times says: It is understood that Secretary Chase recieved by the last steamer official advices from Robert J. Walker to the effect that he would probably negotiate, Richmond Enquirer, doubtless expressed its within the ensueing week, a loan of one hundred millions on satisfactory terms, interest telligence that Jackson was wounded, that payable in London.

What is America but a land of orphans and beggars-but what need of arguments to such as feel infinitely more misery than tongue can express ? I give my promise of most affectionate welcome to all who are disposed to join me in measures necessary to close the scene of our affliction, which must be increased until we are content with the liberality of the country who still offers us protection and perpetual exemption from all taxes but such as we shall think fit to impose upon ourselves. BENEDICT ARNOLD.

JOHN MINOR BOTTS' SLAVES .- A Washington dispatch says: A few days ago a number of slaves belonging to John Minor Botts came within our lines at Union Mills. Mr. Botts requested the commander of the post to return them to him, as he was a loyal person. The commander immediately telegraphed to Gen. Heintzelman to know what course to pursue. Col. Lathrob, of the General's staff, replied that they were free the moment they entered our lines; and could not be remanded into slavery.

THE Quakers held their anual meeting in Philadelphia last week. There were not as many in attendance as usual, and the spirit of was reprimanded by the meeting for having piano in his house, and a correspondent and liberality, would probably have been expelled. the power to contradict such treasonable emsnations from the contaminated fountain of treason.

Second. That the propagators of any such falsehoods are trailors, "ten fold more the sons of treason" than those who have constituted the rebel ranks, more cowardly and more detestable, and should be treated with more condign contempt; and punishment, in accordance with their infamy, should be meted out by all loyal citizens, and they are liars and the truth is not in them.

Third. That as soldiers and country loving citizens, who have tought under Gen. Hooker and formed a unit in the so-called retreat, prompted by the conviction awakened by experience and observation we are led to express our unbounded confidence in the generalship of our gallant commander to the country and to resent all attempts to tarnish the character of our leaders and thereby injure the interests of our country.

Fourth. That if such nauseous strain of trea son be emanated by any editor, more tangible means will be used for their suppression ; for ac will not allow our noble brethren in the field, who are suffering all the privations incident to the soldier's life, to be fired upon in the rear by a set of Davis' sycophants and detestable cowards at home, who have not the courage of a Virginia tadpole.

Fifth, That we appeal to the true loyal citizens of the capital of the glorious old Keystone, not to allow the publication of any such treasonable documents; and that al though we have left the field we are still soldiers, able and willing to fight traitors if they do show the menacing front of copperheads. Resolved, That these proceedings be published in the EVENING TELEGRAPH and in the loyal newspaper s of Pittsburg.

The spirit which pervaded the meeting is described as being one of the most intense hatred for everything and everybody not unconditionally devoted to the cause of the country. The men were full of resentful feeling towards the editors of the Patriol and Union, and only wanted a signal to teach those bold traducers of their gallant leader, Joe Hooker, a lesson at once terrible and awful.

CABINET EMPORIUM B. K. SHOPE, CABINET MAKER, Would respectfully announce to the public that he has fitted up a shop on Cherry street, near the Episcopal church, and near Kratzer's store, where he intends to carry on the Cabinet-making busi-ness in its different branches. Having served a regular apprenticeship to the business, and work-ed as a Journeyman over six years, besides carry ing on a shop for three years, he flatters himself that he can render satisfaction to those who may favor him with their custom. Having located in the Borough of Clearfield, he solicits a share of patronage, and it shall ever be his object to make to order, neat and substantial furniture-such as French Bedsteads | He will always be
