"GREAT REDUCTION."-By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that J. P. Kratzer has received another supply of Spring and Summer goods, which he is offering at greatly reduced prices.

"FRESH Goods."-Under this caption the reader will find, by referring to our column of "New Advertisements," that C. W. & H. W. Smith, are just opening a superior lot of goods, which can be bought at a "liberal discount" from former prices.

THE SHOW .- The grounds selected for the circus,on Monday June 8th, are on the other side of the river. Arrangements have, however been made to pass all persons on foot over the bridge free, going to and returning from the show. Persons will please remember this.

THE WEATHER .- The Spring sesson, so far, has been rather backward on account of the dry state of the weather. Within a few days, however, we have had some refreshing showers, and all vegetation is advancing rapidly. The fall grain, we are told, generally, looks very promising; and should the remainder of the season be propitious, an abundant harvest will be the reward of our farmers.

THE CONTINENTAL MONTHLY FOR JUNE -This number of the Continental contains seveal able and insrtuctive papers, as indeed might be looked for from the distinguished names we find on the staff of its regular contributors. The Continental on the whole takes the living issues of the times, rather than things in general.

GLORY IN THEIR SHAME .- We have been in formed, that a wedding took place recently, in this county, in which every person present, -groom, bride, and all-wore an old rusty te getting very bold, when men and women will thus openly acknowledge themselves traiters to their country. These deluded perwas seem now to glory in their shame, but the day is close at hand when they, like the Tories of the Revolution, will try to avoid the just contempt of all loyal men by removing into the dominions of the enemies of our country. So mote it be !

AN OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT .-- On last Satur. day, May 20th, Thomas Beers, of Boggs township, heat an old man named Butler in a most cetrageous manner. It appears that a settleheat had just been concluded between the two; at the close of which some harsh words were indulged in, wherenpon Beers knocked Butler down. Butler made no resistance whatever, but remarked that Beers would have to (a) for that. Beers replied, if that was the case be would give him something worthwhile to sue about, and then fell to and beat Butler most unmercifully-inflicting injuries to such in extent that Butler was in rather a critical condition for several days; but, at last uccounts, he was improving. A man named Barkholder being near at the time, hastened in interfere to prevent the assault upon Butler, but was too late; when Beers' turned up on and beat Burkholder also, inflicting some terere injuries. Some of Mr. Butler's neighburs brought the matter before the proper an-Morities, on Saturday night, when a warrant was issued and Beers arrested on Sunday morning and lodged in the county jail. A lessing was had before Justice Porter, on Manday, and Beers was admitted to bail for his appearance at the next term of our Courts.

LIEUT. C. H. Powens .- Lieut. Powers was killed on May 3d, at 8 a, in whilst at the head of his company, near Chanceflorville. His body was left on the field, unburied; the company being forced to fall back before its removal. The rebels, however, buried all our dead within their lines; but as none of the graves are marked, his resting place cannot be identified. Peace to his remains.

A REMEDY FOR SMALL POX .- The German Reformed Messenger has recieved a letter from a friend in China, which says a great discovery is reported to have been recently made by a surgeon of the English Army in China, in the way of an effectual cure for small-pox. The mode of Mr. E. Cooper of this borough, fell off a of treatment is as follows : When the precegep at the house on Sunday morning last, and ding fever is at its hight, and just before the eruption appears, the chest is rubbed with croton oil and tartaric ointment. This causes the whole of the eruption to appaear on that part of the body, to the relief of the rest. It also secures a full and complete eruption, and thus prevents the disease from attacking the internal organs. This is said to be now the established mode of treatment in the English Army in China, by general orders, and is regarded as a perfect success.

SOUTHERN REFUGEES .- On last Thursday evening, May 28th, ten persons, male and female, arrived in our town, who managed to escape from the rapacity of the rebel government. Six of them made their way down Pearl River to Fort Pike, near New Orleans, in two skiffs--travelling after night and hiding in the woods during the daytime. Two of them are young men who are married; the one couple having a child about two years old. These men had been conscripts, but managed to escape from the tyranny of the rebel authorities, in the manner above stated. The sixth one of this party, is a delicate boy of about fifteen years, who was also a conscript, but deserted at the first opportunity. They look haggard and careworn, and are entirely destitute; and are, at least, worthy the favor able consideration of the public. They represent the sufferings in rebeldom as almost beyoud conception, saying that there are hundreds of women and children starving-their natural protectors having been conscripted, and the farm stock and necessaries of life seized for the use of the rebel army. The high rank among its cotemporaries, discussing other four are a Mr. Stebbins, his wife, and two children. Mr. S. was formerly a resident devoting itself to merely literary matters, or of this county, but moved to Louisiana some years since, where he married. He, too, was a conscript in the rebel army, and having obtained a furlough to visit his family embraced the opportunity to make his way to New Orleans. Through the kindness of strangers at copper, as a badge of their sympathy with the New Orleans, New York, Harrisburg, and Southern Rebels. Truly, copperheadism must other points, they all reached this place. Mr. Stebbins and family proceeded west, to his friends, whilst the others remained here. The immediate wants of the latter were supplied by some of the liberally disposed citizens of our borough-wno also interested themselves in obtaining employment for the party. We hope that these persons may fully appreciate the blessings of a free Government, and the kindness bestowed upon them by a sympathising community-that they may conduct themselves in such a manner as to give no cause of regret to those who took an interest in their behalf; and that they may become industrious and useful citizens of our county.
