CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 15, 1863.

HURT .- John Troutman of this borough. was severely hurt in a fall, on July 4th. He was ascending a ladder to make some repairs to his house, when a rung broke and he fell and struck his side on the rung beneath, and tractured several of his ribs. He is about again however.

SERIOUSLY INJURED .- On Wednesday July 8th, George Thorn of this place was very seriously injured, whilst at work at the house of Wm. Irvin, Esq, in Curwensville. Mr. Thorn and six others were on a scaffold, when it broke down and precipitated the whole party to the ground. When the scaffolding gave way, one of the men threw a batchet that he had in his hand, which struck Mr. Thorn on the head about two inches back of the right ear, cutting a deep gash, about five inches in length, diagonally towards the chin, and within one-fourth of an inch of the jugular vein. The wound is a serious one, but not dangerous. The other six persons were all more or less injured in the fall.

MAJOR HARTSHORN .- It will be gratifying to the many friends of this young officer to know that, though distinguished for his gallantry in the recent battle at Gettysburg, he has again escaped unharmed. At the battle et Antietam, after the fall of Col. McNiel, praise is due them for their daring gallantry. Bartshorn, then Adjutant of the regiment, was placed in command and won the especial commendation of Gen. Meade, then command ing the Pennsylvania Reserves, for his gallantry and coolness. In the terrible battle of July 2d. in which the wold Bucktails" were notly engaged, Col. Taylor fell pierced through the heart, and Licut. Col. Miles was borne from the field, again Maj. Hartshorn succeeded to the command of the gallant old regiment, and again he is complimented on the field for his bravery and skill, by Gen. Crawford, Commanding the division. Major Hartshorn combines the impetuosity of the young soldier with the coolness of the veteran, and is a fitting officer to command a regiment that has the proud record of the 1st Penn's Rifles; A FIGHT NEAR SHARPSEURG ON FRIDAY. who, in defence of their State, have again fought, and have again lost in killed and wounded half their number-none missing Lee Retreating Toward Hancock, Md and none taken prisoners. May the young Maj. and his regiment ever show the same record. CATTARAUGUS.

From the best sources it is believed that Lee has yet in his command not less than 50,-000 men. Taking the natural strategic position in possesion of the enemy, and the additional advantage of his being entrenched, General Meade has no trivial task before him. He is preparing for the conflict with all possible speed, coupled with great discretion. His engineers are industriously employed in surveying the ground, and selecting the best position, while our cavalry are employed in feeling the enemy's lines. Capt Belcher of Maine, who was taken prisoner at Gettysburg, has made his escape. He says the rebels admit a loss of 20,000 in killed and wounded. The battle on the Upper Potomac is not likely to be much longer postponed. General Meade has massed his troops upon an unusually short line, and is in a position to fight if Lee chooses or is forced to remain on this side of the Potomac. Our troops are all in fine spirits.

102 Field Pieces, 30 Siege Guns, and 50,000 Stand of Small Arms, and 57 Stand of Colors Fall into our hands as Trophies.

5,600 Men in the Hospitals, etc.

VICKSBURG, July 4 .- Vicksburg surrendered this morning, after a seige of fory-seven days, terminating in negotiations lasting twenty-four hours. General Grant and Pemberton had an interview yesterday afternoon, and the last note of Penderton, accepting the p roffered terms of Gen. Grant, did not reach here till 9 o'clock to-day. General M Pherson received the for mal surrender.

The terms allow the officers and men to be paroted here, the former to retain their side arms and horses and personal property. They are to be escorted beyond our lines and furnished with three days provisions. General Logan's division marched into the city at 11 o'olock, and at noon Lieutenant Colonel Strong hoisted the stars and stripes over the Court

After the building was burned the crowd increased to the number of 3,000, armed with clubs, pitchforks and revolvers and every available style of weapon.

The mob then proceeded to the Eighth Congressional District with the intention of destroying the building occupied by the Provost Marshal.

Up to this hour the rioters are still in large force in that district. It is said that the Government has sent up five thousand troops to quell the disturbance.

A REBEL ATTACK ON HELENA.

Another Victory on the 4th of July.

One Thousand Prisoner Captured.

CARIO, July 7 .- About 15,000 rebels, under Holmes, Price, and Marmaduke, made an attack on Helena on the morning of the 4th of July. They advanced in three columns, but the roughness of the ground was such as to prevent the rebels from bringing up artillery. They attempted to carry the works by assault. The centre column charged in the direction of Fort Curtis, and took three lines of rifle-pits. The flank attack was not so successful, which subjected the centre to an enfilading fire which swept them down in great numbers. They were soon surrounded, and one whole brigade, or what was left of it, numbering 940, fell into our hands, 740 of whom arrived here this morning. Among them are Col. Lewis, of the 7th Missouri, Col. Johnson and Col. Bell.

Gen, Prentiss was aware of the contemplated attack, and was prepared. He had about 4,000 men, and was assisted by the gunboat Tyler. The battle commenced at 4 o'clock. A. M. and continued till 10 A. M. We captured 1,000 prisonets, 1,200 stand of arms, and two colors. The enemy's loss was very severe; not less than 2,500 in killed wounded and prisoners. Our total loss will not exceed 250. Gen. Prentiss is confident that he can repel any assault that the rebels may attempt.

fight took place at the old Autietam battle ground.

A fight commenced near Sharpsburg yester day (Friday) at daybeak, and continued till 6 o'clock in the evening, when Longstreet's division was thrown into confusion, and our army drove them back, pursuing them for several miles.

The engagment was brought on by Kilpat rick, who, finding the rebels on Thursday too strong, waited for reinforcements of infantry. The battle was fought by only a portion of our arniv

The rebels fought steadily at first, but wildly at last, as if their ammuition had expended. Our cavalry and artillery destroyed the pontoon bridge, to the consternation of the rebels. as they were about crossing.

ened. July 11 .--- Yesterday the army began to take to near Funckstown. Lee is strongly entrenched, and has a strong natural position. July 12 .- To-day our right wing pressed torward on the Boonsboro and Hagerstown pike, and finalty entered and occupied Hagerstown, which we hold to-night. The enemy's force, which consisted principally of cavalry and two regiments of infantry, made no determined resistance. The enemy fell back towards Williamsport, and reconnoissances report that they are throwing up entrenchments within two miles of Hagerstown. The positions they now occupy are said to be of great strategic strength.

A despatch from Greencastle states that the Rebels had afterwards re-occupied Hagerstown.

A negro who came into our lines states that rebels were building flatboats at Williamsport, with which they expect to effect a crossing. July 18 .- A gentleman who left Waynesboto yesterday at noon, farnishes the following interresting intelligence.

It is understood that the rebels, in falling to the line of Conococheague river from Antietam, encountered the forces of Gen. Mulligan, and after several skirmishes in the vicinity of Clear Spring, retired to the eastward. This accounts no doubt for the occupation of Hagerstown by General Ewel.

Hagerstown is now held by our forces. The position of the rebel army is now reduced to a space of six miles by nine, in which to mancevre. They have no naturally strong positions left to them, and it is believed by persons in official position that they cannot possibly escape capture or annihilation. The report that a large number of rebels had crossed the Potomac with a wagon train, is believed to be entirely false, as there is dent Kennedy and some fliteen of the police nothing to cross the river with excepting the rope ferry

A report is current at Washington that the rebel Gen. Stuart was captured on last Friday guns taken away and were shockingly beaten

Among the prisoners are Lientenant Gen. Pemberton, Major Generals S. Stevenson, Smith Forney and Bowen; fourteen brigadier generals, and 130 colone's. There are 5,600 men in the hospitals, half of whom are woun ded. Only 150 of the garrison are reported fit tor duty.

The stock of provisions was almost exhausted and for four days numbers had been esting mule flash, Of ammunition for the heavy guns they had a fair supply, but for the field guns and musketry they were short. Eight caps to a man were allowed. They had an ex cess of sugar, molasses, and rice, and these were all the supplies they had, except a little unground corr.

The capitulation was caused by destitution and prostration, hastened perhaps by the excrossing the Potomac, and were anxious about pectation that our forces would storm the place to day.

It is admitted by all that the rebels made a gallant defence, and the terms were understood to be concessions of General Grant positions, driving back the enemy's cavalry to their bravery, as well as a measure of great public economy.

> Vicksburg is much damaged by shells, and hardly a house has escaped. Our soldiers treated their late enemy with great friendship. both sides feeling great relief from the hardships and sufferings of the siege.
