THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL. CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 22, 1868.

Goper FOR AUGUST .- This excellent work is before us, and contains its usual variety of illustrations and matter. Godey, certainly, extant.

WR. L. ANTES .- It is with much satisfaction that we announce the fact, that our triend Wm. L. Antes who was reported killed, was still alive and in the hospital at Gettysburg on the 9th. His wounds were severe, but he was doing well at the time stated above, and some hopes were entertained that he would recover.

THE CONTINENTAL MONTHLY .- This work continues to maintain its position among the popular periodicals of the times. It is devoted to Literature and National policy--the latter being the most interesting feature of the magazine. It deserves a wide circulation. Price $5 a year. Address, John F. Trow, No. 50 Greene Street N. Y.

To CORRESPONDENTS .- .- .- Union," yours is to hand. As we published the principal facts to massacre, that some brother copperhead relawhich you refer several weeks since, yours will not appear.

"X" yours is a day after "the fair," and hence we decline its publication.

"A Friend," yours needs revising; and therefore we defer its appearance.

We hope our friends will court brevity in their communications, as we are generally much crowded. Be sure also to write plain. s it is very difficult betimes to discipher the hieroglyphics that come to hand.

ALEX. H. STEVENS .- On the first page of to day's Journal will be found an extract from a speech, delivered by Alex. H. Stevens in 1860. before the Convention which was called to dethe Union. It is a remarkable document, and shoald be read by every man in the land. Mr. nearly to a prophecy. We hope that our friends will read this speech carefully, and preserve the copy, as a matter of reference ; and should you at any time hear a "poace"? Democrat declaim loudly upon the causes of our present unhappy troubles, just ask him to read the speech of Alexander H. Stevens, who is now Vice President of the Rebel Contederacy; and we opine, that you will hear nothing more in reference to the causes of the War.

tis to you we ever look lot help in the hour of distress. Lufies of Philipsharg, 1 on glad to know that your hearts beat responsive to a will that is ever ready to assist in the giorious cause. Long may you live to enjoy the blessings of life, liberty and happiness. I noticed a sching" in the "Republic in of the 15th inst., purporting to emanate from a ocitizen" of this place. I have no doubt that deserves great praise for his indefatigable ef it came from Philipsburg, for it is in toto with forts to produce the best Lady's magazine the copperhead platform, as adopted by the order in this community. That is the doctrine preached ever since the first squad of men left our place for the war; and it is now used to contradict the assertion, I made in my last, about discouraging men from enlisting. The poor dupe had not foresight to see that he was telling publicly on his nest. That is their language, and had he tried, he could not have written it more plain. The truth of the matter is, that his tongue has got in such a habit of abusing everything but Jeff Davis and the south, that he can say nothing else. Time after time have they asserted the low, grovelling, cowardly, treacherous, traitorous and ignorant, indecent words used in the said letter. They, the poor cowardly dupes, can stand in their doors and tell their wives and children that the men who go to war, are robbers of hen roosts and consumers of Jersey lightning ; but when asked by young America, "Pa, why don't you go and get some chickens'? They reply "Oh ! Pa can buy them ; he has lots of greenbacks." The wife blushes at her husbahd's cowardice ; but he gets around it by relating some horrible deed, or bovine ted to him, or he read it in the "World," Patriot & Union" or "Age." The male, and female copperheads, of our town are the most inconsistent set of snakes ever read of in Gibon. They snarl, bite, and hiss, at everything said against them. Until my last letter appeared in your columns, I had no idea that the den was so numerous. Many that I never dreamed of, put the shoe on,-it appeared to fit admirably. There are lady copperheads in our town, who are of the most violent. I heard of a young lady who found great fault with the Rev. Creighton, during last winter, for his devotion to the Union. The Rev. was a whole union man, and delivered some impressive and eloquent prayers for the preservation of the Union. This young lady "dyed in the auburn hair" a copperhead, remarked to a friend as they were coming home from church, one Sunday evening just termine whether Georgia should secede from after the Fredericksburg battle of December 13th, 1862, that she +did wish, Mr. Creighton would quit praying for the union; she often thought she would not go to hear him any Stevens depicted the results and consequen- more." Now, this young lady moves among ces of Secession so clearly that it amounts the elife, but evidently is possessed of no small amount of ignorance. I have seen copper head men, and have heard of copperhead we men, who have wished our soldiers neight all be killed, that they would throw open their houses to the rebels and treat them with all the hospitality at their command ; but a unrou soldier, they would see him starve-see him with his tongue hanging out at its full length, before they would give him a drink of water. And yet, they are this moment subsisting on "green backs," paid their husbands for services in the army. Men who call our soldiers robbers, thieves, drunkards, and negro lovers; men who say that our paper moncy is worthless ; every man that goes to war is a black abolitionist, and then quote that the ERIE, July 15th, 1868. ted out to them by the copperheads as an abolition concern. Several of the officers called upon him and asked to see his files. After examining them, the Lieutenant in command said, "I see, sir, this is a Republican paper ; you advocate a vigorous prosecution of the war, and are in favor of sustaining your Government in everything. . I like to see a man one thing or the other." Taking several copies of the paper, they left without molesting anything in the office, to the great indignation of the copperheads of that place.

The telegraph reports that Thad Stephens' iron mills at Gettysburg have been burned to the ground, Mr. S. loosing at least $100,000, nearly all his fortune. I don't remember having seen you before,

The following is the resolution and amendment, and the vote, granting the use of the Hall of the Penn'a State Senate to Gov. Andy Johnson, Gov. Wright, Gen. M'Clellan, and other friends of the Union :

Resolved, That Gov. Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, and Ex-Gov. Joseph A. Wright, of Indiana, be and they are hereby tendered the use of the hall of the Senate this atternoon. for the purpose of addressing their tellow citizens of Pennsylvania.

"That when General George B, M'Clellan or any other friend of the Union, desires the use of this Hall for the purpose of defending the cause of the Union and denouncing the rebellion, it will be cheerfully tendered.

Copperheads-Origin of the Term-What it Me ns "Soon after the outbreak of the rebellion, the Springfield (O.) Republic, published a communication in which the writer noticed the allesnake as the emblan of the South Carolina obels, and stated that the rattlesnake was a more magnanimous repute than the copper- desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the head snake, as the former gives notice before he strikes, while the latter, besides being more insiduous, strikes you without giving you any warning; and applied the term copperheads to all the traitors and sympathizers with the rebels in the free States. Other papers soon adopted the term, and it has become very general, but some people do not see the point; and in Indiana I see some use the term copperbottoms, but I cannot see the point of copperbotoms. Copperheads is a very apropriate name for our free State rebels at heart."

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chicily an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when uffering from great and long continued debility. the use of three bottles of these Bitters, at th eginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodly and mental vigor which I had not felt for six onths before, and had almost despaired of re gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend or directing me to the use of them. Philad'a., June, 23, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWS.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL."

PHILIP-BURG, July 18, 1863.

DEAR JOURNAL :- Since my last letter t on, there has been stirring times in our good Id State. A clash of arms occurred on our soil for the first time since the days of '76, and Gettyshurg is now made classic along with Valley Forge, Braddock's Field, Paoli and Wyoming. But none of the latter were so treat as the battle-field of Gettysburg. It was a hard tought, but gloriously victorious battle for the brave soldiers who are fighting for the restoration of the best government beneath the Creator's eye. And I am proud to say. that the brave and gallant boys of Philipsburg did their whole duty as the bloody record plainly shows. The wounded of Company D. old Penn'a Volunteers, are Wm. Dolph, left atm off above the elbow ; Peter Weber, hand; John E. White, hand and stomach, since dead ; Company H. 148th Penn'a Volunteers, Jas. Beals, arm off above the elbow. John E. White, died of his wounds on the 9th instant, and leaves a wife and four small children te mourn his death. He was as brave a soldier as ever shouldered a musket. His broth of Jackson was killed at the battle of Anlistam, and was the only brother. John defermined that he would take Jackson's place in the ranks of Company D, 53d Penn'a Volunteers, and it possible, use the musket that his brother did. He left all and repaired to the tented field, was at the battle of Chancellotsville but came out sound. At Gettysburg he was wounded and died as above stated. Philipsburg has as brave a reputation in the paign-always in the front. Our town can boast of its soldiers and its adies. There is no town in the State can do what our ladies accomplised last Saturday. On Friday the news came that clothing was ed, and men appointed to collect money and Insterial, and the ladies to assemble at the Town Hall the next afternoon. Saturday afletnoon came, and with it came the patriotic "omen and girls, bundles, sewing machines, and everything necessary for doing something. from some cause the meeting was moved to Mrs. Ganoe's, and such a "gay and happy" The lidics seemed like so many angels. The ewing machines were buzzing as if the good old days of Spinning-Jennies had suddenly came from the spirit land, revised, regenerated

Who is he that would make such an assertion suitable for him ? No! The Devil would not a pin's head. Nay more, he would not let Island, and compel him to subsist on the bones of departed horses, who were more faithful to their master than he is to his country.

THE COPPERHEADS have been wofully blue for several days past, at the success of the U nion troops in the South west, but the riclories of the New York Democracy give tone for the commu tation money ($300) and that and temper'to their present feeling, and at most any hour of the day, we can hear the copperheads congratulating themselves on the splendid uprising of the people of New York. #### OBITUARY.

Died, on June 24th, 1863, on board the U. S. Gunboat Alabama, on her passage from St. Thomas to Havanna, Cuba, West Indies, JACOB HAINS, marine, of Philipsburg, Centre county, Pa. The deceased was one whose heart beat responsive to the supremacy of the Stars and Stripes. He loved his country and his flag army of the Potomac, as any other town in with all the ardor and enthusiasin that any the State. They have been in all the battles man did, that ever pulled a halyard beneath since the commencement of McClellan's cam- its folds. He enlisted as a landsman on board the Columbus, Capt. Wyman, Pacific squadron, commanded by Commodore Biddle, May 15th, 1846, for 3 years. He was on board that vessel for three years and nine months, was honorably discharged at Norfolk, Va , and wasted for the wounded. A meeting was cal-led, and men appointed to collect money and often resolved to join the navy after this war broke out, but always gave way to the entreaties of his wife and family, to stay at home. But when the depredations of the .. 290, " alias Alabama, reached bis ear, he locked up his shop, leaving his wife and children, to fight the battles for that flag which had ever waved over him in triumph. He was as true Amerthrong, as met is that room, we never saw. Ican tar as ever hore that name, that is honored by all the navies of the world. The writer of this brief tribute to his memory was so situsted that he had every means of knowing his triendship. He was generous and kind, and improved. guage, "has been saved by the Bitters : PAILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862. Messrs. Jones & Evans.-Well, gentlemen.your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the imnediate command of Capt, R B. Ayres. Through the expo sure attendant upon my duties. I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility. heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this ity on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could thing, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. I could not even keep a glass of water on my I could not even accept a gains of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circum-stances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccess-fully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to sne a clerayman and Chean for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and Theirp to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinborn. of Sixth elow Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now Cheap nothing for eighteen months : for. gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian. from the vicinity of Front To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken place of vague fears to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
