CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 29, 1863.

THANKSGIVING .-- The President has set apart, by proclamation, Thursday the 6th day of August, as a day of national thanksgiving, praise and prayer, and to render the homage due to Divine majesty for the wonderful things He has done for us as a nation.

Boiling Porarogs .- This is a formula : Let the water boil before putting the potatoes in. When done, pour off the water and scatter three or four tablespoonfuls of sait; cover the pot with a coarse cloth, and return it to the fire for a short time. Watery potatoes are made mealy by this process. How simple is this process, yet how few understand it!

The manner in which the two deserters escaped from our county jail, on Sunday morning last, furnishes another illustration as to how the Copperheads use their influence in favor of law and order, and how they aid in suppressing the Rebellion. Wunder if it is "Constitutional" to dig holes thro' a jail wall and silow deserters from the army to escape from the custody of the Marshal?

COPPERHEAD STORIES. - Some individuals of the Copperhead stamp have been industriously circulating a story, recently, that two men from Clearfield county, who descried from the Army and had been apprehended, were shot after being returned. Had such an occurrence taken place it would undoubtedly have been noticed in the city papers, which have correspondents in every camp As it stands, we discredit the story, and until better informed. for the purpose of damaging the Government. and encouraging descriers to resist the Marshal in the discharge of his duty.

COMPANY K, 1st PENN'A RIGLES. - Below we give a list of the casualties in company K. 1st Penn'a Rifles, (Bucktails,) sustained in the recent battle at Getty sburg :

Lieut. J. E. Kratzer, right arm, fleshwound. Sergt. Wm. G. Addleman, face, serious. Private, John W. Hazlett, in leg, slight. Private, Levi Ennis, in hip, serious.

From the above it will be seen that Captain livin's old company has again been in an engagement, and we have no doubt done its duty nobly. Lient. Kratzer was in command of the company during the late battle at Getty's burg. He is a brave and gallant officer, and, we predict, greater honors are in store for him.

BROKE JAIL .- On Sunday morning July 26th, Richard Conklin and Milton Reed, two deserters from the army, who had been couffned in the jail by the Deputy Provost Marshal for safe keeping, succeeded in making their escape, in the following manner. The jailor, we understand had been in the habit of unlocking the door leading into the yard, every morning, for the purpose of allowing the prisoners an airing. On Sunday morning at 5 o'clock; he unlocked the door as usual. A short time after, when he carried in their breakfast, he found them absent, and on going into the yard discovered that a large hole had been made into the yard wall during the night, by some outside parties, and the prisoners had disappeared.

THE KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE. Captain J. S. Hobart, of the Hendrick Regiment, who has been engaged in the movement to drive out the invaders, writes a letter, dated Lawrenceburg, Indiana, July 17th. to the Cincinnati Commercial, from which we copy the following :

"Morgan has received the guidance an ac live assistance of K. G. C. wherever he has sone. In Dearborn county I commanded the advance or vanguard of Hobson's army. The citizens all took my command to be a part of the rebel army, and the K. G. C. in Dover and Lugan, and various other places, gave me the initialistion of the K. G. C., the grand crowning there were just forty-seven Lincolnites, and that they wished I would kill them and burn prey. They told me that I could rely on the following gentlemen of Harrison as my friends, and that they would tell me where I could find the treasures of the Abolitionists; John Convention at Columbus; Dr. Goodheart, Maand J. Cloud, and Warren Tibbs. I give you their names, for I think they ought to be pubished. The young K. G. C., who first told me their names, is named Smith. I mounted in on a horse, and made him take his gun and go to the front rank. His sisters gave him a most affectionate farewell. They wept hitterly, thinking him conscripted for three I'ars. The K. G. C's generally both in Ohio success, he has good guides."

General at present for good reasons unemployed, says that if he were recalled to his the ranks every soldier whose term has expi red, and enlist two bundred and fifty thousand more within the year without a draft." Then why does not the said General niter war, and restore peace to his country?

adelphia. No attempt at resistance has been chade, and as soon as any one "draws a prize" he is congratulated by his friends, to which thert time, or something of that sort.

THE REBELLION.

THE CAPTURE OF GEN MORGAN.

The military career of Morgan, the notorious guerrilla chief, has at length been brought to a sudden close, and since he is now a prisoner in our hands we shall hear no more of him as a rebel leader. He has been a very troublesome customer to as, and his capture will be hailed with great satisfaction by every loyal his staff and the balance of his command. One of these is an official dispatch, from Gen. Brooks, commanding this department. Morgan was captured at three o'clock, on Sunday afternoon, at Scroggs' church, seven miles southwest of New Lisbon, Columbia country, Ohio. His force had been reduced by previous captures to three hundred and

Gen. Brooks, on learning that Morgan was heading eastwaadly, with the evident intention of escaping across the Ohio river at some point between Wellsville and Wheeling, dispatched a large number of troops to points along the river, including three regiments of infantry and a battery of artillery from this place. The General also went down himself, to direct the movements in person. He had troops stationed at Wellsville, Steubenville, and Wheeling, and the steamer Cottage was patroling the river with a battery of six 12 pounders under Capt, Tyler.

From what we can learn, Morgan encamped on Saturday night at or near the town of Richmond, in Jefferson county, Ohio, about six miles north of the Ohio river at Stenbenwill treat it as a Copperhead canard gotten up wille. It is reported that on Sunday morning he pushed on towards the river, but meeting a spirited opposition there, took the road leading towards New Lisbon. At nine o'clock Sunday morning, when about half way between Steubenville and New Lisbon, at the town of Saulsbury, where the road crosses Yellow Creek, Morgan encountered the forces of Col. Shack leford and Col. Gallagher, and s sharp fight ensued, in which twenty of the raiders were killed and two hundred and seventy-five taken prisoners. The balance of the rebels escaped across Yellow Creek, and continued their flight towards New Lisbon. About midway, between Saulsbury and New Morgan found himself at bay, being completely surrounded by our troops. Gen. Brooks per box. had disputched a force from Welsville, on the New Lisbon pike, to head him off, while Shackleford followed closely in his rear. Militia were also sent down from New Lisbon and vicinity, thus cutting off all hope of escape, and compelling a surrender.

Gen. Brooks, and the officers aiding him, ave managed this affair with great skill, and the promptness and energy which they displayed reflect upon them the highest credit. Col. Gailagher, who had charge of a regiment of six months Pounsylvania militia, and who participated in the capture, was formerly in command of the 11th Reserves and is a competant and skillful officer. Col. Bemus, also in command of a Pennsylvania militia regiment, aided in the pursuit and capture. Five companies of cavalry, which had been ordered orward from this place by Gen. Brooks, had embarked on the cars of the Cleveland Railroad, on Sunday atternoon, but the order was countermanded before they got away.

The roiling stock of the Cleveland road was at the disposal of Gen. Brooks, and every possible effort was made to prevent the escape of the marauders and secure their casture. Morgan was taken in Gen. Brooks' Department, but he will be sent to Cincinnati. - Pitts-

THE ATTACK ON CHARLESTON. The attack on Charleston was still progressing at latest dates. On the 16th, the Rebels are undestood to have made desperate and vigorous sorties, attempting to take Gen. Giltheir were just feely some I benefit and batteries by storm. They were Druggists, at 13 and 25 cents per bottle. partially successful, but by a grand counter movement the Rebels were effectually repulstheir houses. They also offered to show me ed. On the 18th, a night attack was made on the nig. fat Lincolnites on which we could Fort Wagner by our men, in which the storming parties were finally repulsed, in consequence of the supporting brigade failing to arrive at the appointed time. Our men held one half of the fort for a full hour, when the Ashly, the delegate to the Vallandigham officer in command, Col. Putnam, falling dead, and nearly all his officers being wounded, the men reluctantly fell back. The loss on our side was severe. Among the killed were Colone's Shaw and Putnam-among the wounded. Generals Strong and Seymour. The 76th Penasylvania was in this attack.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Advices from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac say that during the past week and Indiana, offered to assist me in any way our troops have not been idle, but, by a close they could. This is one secret of Morgan's scrutiny of Lee's movements and rapid marches, have baffled all his efforts to enter Eastern Virginia and to take possession of the Blue A New York paper, speaking of a certain Ridge. Lee tried successively Snicker's, Ashby's, Manassas, and Chester gaps. At Ashby and Manassas gaps he was driven back ommand, "a word from him would bring to with loss, and at Chester gap our cavalty recaptured 1,100 head of the enemy's stolen cattie, and several hundred sheep. A large number of horses have also been recovered.

Later advices seem to indicate that Hill and the word, even though not recalled to his Longstreet's corps have forced their way command? Has he not patriotism enough to through Chester Gap, and are probably at Cul-Greak the word that would finish this civil pepper. Ewell's corps was, when last heard from, on its way to Strasburg.

The draft has been going on quietly in Phil- Successul Union Cavalry Expedition in North Carolina.

An expedition war recently sent to the intehe jokingly replies that he is a "first class" rior of North Carolina, which succeeded in was, and expects to be a Major General in a destroying a part to the main line of the Weldon and Wilmington Railroad, at Rocky Mount. They also burned a railroad bridge Hon. John J. Crittenden, author of the ta- 300 yards long, and destroyed 5,000 bales of Compromise, died on the 26th July, at cotton, an extensive cotton factory, and 30,-000 pounds of bacon for the rebel army.

Great Success of the Expedition into the Red River Country.

THE REBELS TAKEN BY SURPRISE. Boats, Stores and Ammunition captured

Com. Porter informs the Navy Department of the success of an expedition up the Red River. He says, Lieut. Com. Selfridge, whom he had sent up the Tensas and Little Red Rivers, succeeded in capturing two large steamers, and that the rebels burned two others. Several dispatches were recieved in Pitts. Com. Selfridge also captured 25,000 rounds burg on Sunday announcing his capture, with of ammunition 224 rounds of fixed ammunition for guns, 52 hogsheads of sugar, 10 puncheons of rum, 9 barrels of flour, and 50 barrels of salt, belonging to the rebels.

> CAVALRY SKIRMISH AT WYTHEVILLE, VA The Town Burnt and Railroad Cut.

An expedition under Col. Toland advanced to and burned Wytheville, cut the Tennessee and Virginia railroad, had a severe fight with the rebels of whom he captured 125 prisoners, two pieces of artillery and 700 stand of arms. The rebel killed was 75 and many were wounded. Our loss was 17 killed and 61 wounded and missing. Col. Toland and Capt. Delany From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of were among our killed.

THE draft in Elmira, N. Y., came off on Tuesday. Trouble had been anticipated, but the utmost good feeling prevailed during the drafting. At five o'clock the conscripts formed a procession with bands of music, mottoes, costumes, &c. Loud cheers were given for the Constitution and laws. Speeches were made, and the occasion was one of rejoicing and testivity rather than disappointment. The Empire State is loyal outside of New York, and stands by the Union to the the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impres-sion that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of re gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend or directing me to the use of them. Philad'a., June, 23, 1851. J. Newton Brown.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters.put up in quart bottles, compoun ded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 10 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused and will continne to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influ-ence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunk-

Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Betters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey. and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the mark et, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HoopLand's German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the disases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cared by Hosfiand's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one the nation's heroes, whose life. to use his own language, . has been saved by the Bitters :

PAILADELPHIA, August 23rd. 1882. Messes. Jones & Evans .- Well, gentlemen.your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the im-mediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the expo sure attendant upon my duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility. heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine." from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my tomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccess fully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as st suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinborn, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forforn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death recoded, and I am now thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have guined ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken place of vague fears to your Bitters will I owe the glorious priviege of again clasping to my bosom those who are
