To TEACHERS .- We have been request d to state that the date in the Advertisement for the holding of a Teachers Institute, is incorrect. It should read Monday 5th of October, instead of 28th September. We have made the proper correction.

A QUESTION

For those who vote for the amendment of the Constitution, giving the soldiers the right of

At the coming election, the question to amend the Constitution, so as to give all who may be absent from the State, engaged as soldiers in the armies of the National Government, the right to vote, will be submitted to the people. It is conceded in all circles, that the proposed amendment extending the right of franchise to such persons, will be carried by an almost unanimous vote. The question arises, then, as to whether any man who votes for that amendment can also vote for George W. Woodward, who is opposed to the right of suffrage being extended to the soldier. Surely to freeman can become guilty of such self-abnegation as first to vote the right of the franchise to the soldier, and then vote for a man who denies that soldier the exercise of such a right. Every man who votes for the amendnent of the Constitution, extending the franchise to the soldier, to be conscientious and sincere in his patriotism, must also vote for Andrew G. Curtin for Governor, who is emphatically the soldiers guardian and defender.

UNION COUNTY CONVENTION.

Pursuant to a published call, "the Republicans, with all who desire to act with them in sustaining a policy to crush the rebellion," assembled in the Court House on Thursday, August 27th, to select candidates for County

The Convention was called to order by the Chairman of the County Committee, and on motion, Elisna Fenton was chosen President; David Adams, Sr., Isaac Thomson, Sr., and Al x. Murray, Vice Presidents; and John G. Cain, and S. J. Row, Secretaries.

On a call of the townships, according to the usages of the party, 48 delegates answered to

The Convertion then proceeded to nominate candidates, and upon a ballot being had

Robert Mitchell of Clearfield Borough, was nominated for Treasuser.

James Glen, of Ferguson township, for Com-

John Russell of Fenn township, for Anditor. In motion, Wm. J. Hemphill, Joseph Fis s, and James Irwin, Sr., were chosen Repesentive conferees, (with power to designate substitutes,) to meet similar conferees from the other counties in this district to nominate condidates for the Legislature.

On motion, Joseph Birchfield, Abraham Spencer and William Caldwell, were appointed a committee to wait upon Captain H B. Swoope, and request him to address the Con-

In a short time the Committee returned accompanied by Capt. Swoope, who made a brief at very appropriate speech.

On motion, the Chairman of the County Committee was requested to issue an address to the people of the county, on the subject of the questions involved in the coming election. The Convention now adjourned sine die. A DISLOYAL COVERNOR .- The disadvantages of having a disloyal Governor are shown by he fact that Governor Seymour's refuss! to seeme General Dix that the military force of the State would be employed to protect the issice of New York, made it necessary to weaken the Army of the Potomac by detaching regiments to guard against anticipated riot. A loyal Governor would have said at once, Not one Federal regiment is needed in this city." General Dix states, that had Governor Seymour given him this assurance he would not have asked the Government for one man. Now, if any disaster should happen to he army, who would be to blame ? Fortunalely, the worst that can happen will be a brief suspension of the campaign.

That at a meeting held in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on the 18th of December, 1860, George W. Woodward made use of the following language: "We must arouse ourselves and assert the rights of the slaveholder, and add such guarantees to our Constituon as will protect his property from the spoilation of religious bigotry and persecution, or rise we must give up our Constitution and Uhion. Events are placing the alternative Plainly before us-Constitutional Union and berty, according to American law, or else extinction of slave property, negro freedom, dissolution of the Union, and anarchy and JUDGE WOODWARD AND FOREIGNERS. On the first page of to-days Journal we pubab some extracts from the "Debates of the Constitutional Convention' of 1837, from which it will be seen that Judge Woodward, the presat Copperhead Candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, proposed to amend our State Constitution so as to distranchise all foreign-Any person doubting the facts, is refer ted to Vol. 5, page 446, etc., of the Debates, which can be found in the library of some one of the Attorneys in this place.

A clown employed to draw timber from a ood, met with an oak trunk of so large a size, hat the tackle he made use of to place it on he carriage broke twice. VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE.—The un-V dersigned will sell his farm lying on Chest creek, in Cliest township, Clearfield county, Pa, at private sale. The tract contains 270 acres, about 160 acres of which are cleared, the timber being all cut off, and in a good state of cultiva-tion, and under good fences. The buildings consist of a large plank frame dwelling house, well furnished; a store house; two barns, the one to feet square with stalls for horses, and will hold about 40 tons of hay; and all other necessary out buildings. There are also on the premises two tenant houses, and stables on the lots; a blacksmithshop, one of the best locations in the county. The best of water is convenient to all the buildings. Two young apple orchards are also growing on the premises; and the meadow ground is good, and about 100 tons of hay can be cut in any rdinary season.

There is also an excellent rafting ground on the premises, which will rent for about one hundred dollars a year; all the timber in that section of country, known as the North Camp region, being hauled to this ground for rafting in. For terms apply to the subscriber residing on the premises, or to Wm. Irvin Esq., in Curwensville. August 5, 1863. SIMON RORABAUGH
