UNION MASS MEETING.

To be held at Clearfield, on Wednesday Evening, September 30th.

The Republicans of Clearfield county, and all who heartly sustain the National Administration in its efforts to put down rebellion. are invited to assemble in Mass Meeting at the Court House in Clearfield, on Wednesday evening of Court week, the 30th of September, A. D. 1868.

Col. John W. Forner, and Morron M'Mr-CHARL, of Philadelphia, will be present to address the people.

J. B. McENALLY. Chairman Rep. County Committee.

KILLED-a copperhead snake, by J. G. Schryver, at his father's stable, on Saturday September 12th. His anakeship was quite a curiosity in that section, as but few his of specles have ever been found in this county.

LUDWIG SNYDER .- In Victor Hugo's great work, "Les Miscrables," is described the outbreak of 1832. The author depicts, in glowing language, the commotion that prevailed on the 5th of June in the streets of Paris-the meral procession of General Lamarque-the display of military-the throng in the boulevaris-the anxious faces peering out of windows-the halt of the hearse at the Bridge of Austerlitz, and the remarks of Lafayette-the appearance of a man on horseback, dressed in black with a red flag, and the prodigious shouts which burst from the multitude. The book then goes on to say :

"Some young men, smid the cheers of the throng, harnessed themselves, and began to draw Lamurque in the hearse over the bridge of Austerlitz, and Latayette in a flacre along the Quai Morland. In the crowd which sur ounded and cheered Lafayette, was noticed and pointed out a German, named Ludwig Suyder, who afterwards died a centenarian, who had also been in the war of 1776, and who had fought at Trenton under Washington, and under Lafayette at Brandy wine."

This is evidently the same venerable Ludwig Snyder, who died in Burnside township, Clearfield county, Pa., on March 28d, 1860 at the advanced age of 113 years, 7 months and 18 days. That his name should be thus inproduced Into a work of such celebrity as . Les Miserables," must not only be flattering to his descendants in this county, but shows what a remarkably close observer the great in the fourth book (St. Denis) page 132.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE "JOURNAL"

Letter from Johnstown.

Foreign RASTSMAN'S JOHNNAL :- DEAR SIR : 1 have just returned from a camp Meeting, held by The United Brethren in Christ," near Curwensville in your county. The Camp was commenced under very inauspicious circumstances. The Blind man was standing at the wheel of destiny : many of the members expected to have an invitation to attend a few encle Sam's great calls, and felt unable to tent at the meeting, and sickness was prevout in the neighborhood. Only seven tents were crected on the grounds. We cared but tile for the tents, it was the people we wanon there, persons who would be interested in he cause of Christ in the earth, or those who right be induced to give their hearts and ves to the work. We felt disappointed at irst, the prespect was in nowise flattering but Subtath morning we saw that we had not immerted our real enemy-that he was but as ag his appearance then.

I tell to my los to preach on Sabbath morning, and I selected Paul's injunction to Timo-War a good warfare."-1 noticed the character of the christian warfare, the enemies of the cause-the manner in which the enemy attacked the church. I then remarked that it was a "good warfare" - good because of its obed-to bring man back to his allegiance to good warfare, because it had for its object the suppression of rebellion and the preservation of the Union. I never once said "negro" or any thing that could be construed into Abolition I spake for the Union, and intend to do so, in spite of Copperheads and rebels in open arms. As I passed along, among other things I remarked that the christian warfare was a good one, because it had a good leader-one who had never lost a battle. In speaking of a good general, I declared Gen. Meade to be a good one, because he routed Gen. Lee at Gettysburg ; and Gen. Grant-U. S. Grant-showed himself worthy the title of a good general at Vicksburg. I cannot see what was wrong, unless it is, that I did not praise Gen. Mc-Clellan. It was interesting to see the flank movements of the Copperheads. One went for his wife and said "come home, I wont stay to hear that Abolitionist preach any longer. Some others did not take that much time, but went to the rear immediately. There was a group of "Constitution" men, to the right and tear of the ground, who swore I was an Abolitionist and should be shot. The pistol was drawn and threats made. I can give the name of the man who drew the pistol and prove it by worthy men.

Service ended, they dispersed, swearing and threatening vengeance. Probably that group who gathered at the spring will remember the anguage they used. In the evening they assembled with the worshippers, like the Devil did on two occasions, as recorded in the 1st and 2d chapters of Job. From the account of the Devil's actions there, I am forced to the conclusion that the Devil is a gentleman when compared to one of these copperheads. It was my appointment to preach, and as they had me the object of their wrath, they commenced their demonstrations. They assem aled at the head of the ground, armed with clubs, and some of them with pistols. The leader (I should name him, but withhold his talle for the sake of his friends) commenced ealing the innocent trees, and yelled out that thought more of a nigger than a white man. hey then tried to rally and march down the alsie, but they could not preserve a line of battle. They are brave men-have brave hearts, brave tongues, but have cowardly legs. They can't help that. But with all their threats to shoot knock down, and pull down the preacher's stand, strange to say, nobody was hurt. I was told to be on my guard, but I answered that I was not afraid of any such cowardly traitors. I will not waste time and paper in telling you all their mean, dirty, cowardly ac-

These are copperhead rieters—such as the

New York mob. And some of your copperheads will try to excuse the matter, and probably say they were of all parties, I know that it was the work of copperheads. One man, a copperhead, urged the conscripts to go to the camp and do as they chose, saying the civil law cannot take hold of a drafted man. This copperhead party is a party of hypocrites. They cry "Liberty of speech!" yet they are trying to gag every Union minister in the land. Let a preacher pray for the success of our army pray for our rulers, and they raise the cry: "Political Preacher, I'll support no such man." In this way they have succeeded in stopping the mouths of many The minister must live; but for my part I dont want the price of blood and treason, and will preach and pray for the Union and the Rulers of the land! Allow me to suggest to the Union men who are outside the church, to pay liberally to the ministers who are not afraid to speak for the cause of God and humanity.

The times demand it. This copperheadism is the most complete machine the Devil has in operation. It is making more infidels, turning more men from the christian church, then any other association. Their best men will tell you that the churches are all rotton, the ministry all turned political stump speakers, and that every man who seeks the downfall of slavery is fighting against the decrees of the Almighty. They tell you Slavery is right. They won't say in so many words that Jefl. Davis is right, but they do say that the North was in the fault and our Ad ministration all wrong. Slavery right! that system which breaks every commandment in the decalogue! The entire christian church wrong! Have all the great and good been deceived, and is it reserved for the copperhead to understand and teach the will of God Then bad whiskey and obscene language, and profanity, and mobism, must be graces! Mr. Editor, I am glad to say that we gained a decisive victory in the end. We do not say with Paul "Alexander the Coppersmith did me much harm," but declare the copperheads sought to do us much harm. The church was revived and sinners converted. I trust in God that ere long this struggle will end, the Union be saved, and the course of the Administrafrom pronounced correct in the prosecution of the war. In this trying hour I want to act so that I, in the future, need not blush, when my conduct is mentioned.

Yours for God, the Church and the Union, A. J. HARTSOCK.

Letter from Pike township.

PIKE TP.. SEPTEMBER 14th, 1863.

MR Row .- I see by the last issue of the Copperhead organ, that the Editors of that puper are disposed to ridicule the Union Convention which assembled in Clearfield Town on the 27th of August last, by derisively naming some of the gentlemen present on that oc casion. By the by, the persons named, as well as ad others who participated in the proceedings of that convention, may well fee proud of the gentlemanly deportment and general good conduct of all concerned on that oc casion. Why don't the sneaking Editors of the Rebel organ publish to the world to names of their mimons, who on the day o their primary election behaved so disgraceful ly as to annoy and disgust all good citizens. author is. The paragraph quoted can be found | and who only desisted from disgracing them selves still further, and disturbing the peace and quiet of all good citizens of the town when the officers of the law threatened them with the lock up ? They considered they had a right to do just as they pleased. They styled themselves Democrats, and their leaders Government with sword and pistol, dare not enter into their midst and remonstrate with them upon their riotous and disgraceful conduct, lest their teachings should recoil apor their own beads, and their deluded followers become awakened to the deception and treachery practiced upon them by their disloyal and unprincipled leaders. And why should the masses of the so-called Democratic party of this county still adhere to the teachings of their false and corrupt leaders, and their copperhead organ, after advising and orging them to resist the laws of the Government and par icularly the conscription set, and after urg ing them to procure weapons for that purpose at a heavy expenditure of money to their deladed adherents? When that act is about to be enforced, what do we find these bold and chivalric leaders do ? They call meetings in nearly every School House in the county, for the purpose of annulling the very principles they had taught their followers but a very short time before-thereby showing to the world their inconsistency, treachery and cowardice! Who interested themselves so much as to take the names of individual members of the Union convention down for publication? Was it that cowardly, sneaking thing, who was to be seen cowering down behind the seats, God and his law. I incidentally remarked and who looked more like a hang-man, or that the war waged by our government was a thief, than like an honest, high minded man, who was attending to his own business ?

The time is fast approaching, Mr. Editor. when the star of all political humbugs wil have set in obscurity, and when the misap plied name of Democracy will fail to screen them from a just retribution at the hands of a loyal, patriotic and insulted people. A LOOKER ON.

THE RESULTS OF ONE ADMINISTRATION-

A RECORD FOR THE PEOPLE. It is one thing to boast of thrift and econ omy, and another to practice these virtues, when in power. With the Democratic leaders it has always been the custom thus to boast, but when they managed to foist themselves on the people and achieve power, their promises of economy where like their profes. sions of patrictism, all false and fruitless! In comparison with such men, the action of Gov. Curtin, during his present administration, stands out in bold relief, the evidence not only of a wise course followed by the man, but the proof of an enlarged statesmanship adhered to by the Governor.

In two years Gov. Curtin sent into the field nearly two hundred thousand men, to aid in crushing a causeless and wicked rebellion. In one year he reduced the ordinary expenses of the Government ninely-five thousand three hundred and seventeen dollars, acually saving that amount of money to the tax payers of the

In one year he increased the receipts from ordinary sources one million, thirty thousand, one hundred and seventy six dollars. This increase was effected by forcing payments from the old debtors of the State-from men who had postponed paying their honest dues to the Commonwealth for years, and who imagined they could escape, and who would have repudiated their indebteoness, had it not feen for the sleepless vigilance of Andrew G. Curtin.

Tax-pavers of Pennsylvania, the election of Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the State, will secure three years of similar economy, thrift and vigilance in the State Administration. It is for you to decide that election.

THE WAR FOR THE UNION.

What was Accomplished in one Weck.

The suppression of the rehellion is progressing with a rapidity that cannot but be appreciated by all true lovers of peace. The record of events of the past week is as follows :

Capture of Forts Wagner and Gregg, with the whole of Morris Island."

"Capture of Knoxville." "Capture of Chattanooga."

"Flight of Bragg's Army." "Capture of Cumberland Gap, with 2,000 rebel prisoners." "Capture of Fort Smith."

"Rebel Evacuation of Little Rock, the Capital of Arkansas." To these may be added that the events of the week have sealed the doom of Charleston. Surrender or destruction are the horns of the dilemma from which the valiant propagators of the rebellion must now make their choice

In an assault upon Sumter on the night of the 8th our troops were, however, repulsed, with a loss of 80 killed, wounded and prisoners. This will only retard the final result for a few days. The rebel stronghold must fall ere many days.

FROM THE POTOMAC ARMY. . Culpepper has been occupied by the Second Army corps, and on the 13th Gen. Pleasonton reached a position about three miles beyond Culpepper after considerable skirmishing with the enemy. We captured three guns and 40 prisoners.

CURTIN'S PROSPECTS .- From all parts of the State we receive the most cheering accounts of the progress of the political campaign. Meetings are being held, which, in numbers of persons present and for enthusiasm, are unprecedented. All the indications point unmistakeably to the re-election of Gov. Curtin by a very large majority; and we trust his friends in this county will do their part to bring about this desirable result.
