CLEARFIELD, PA., OCT 7, 1863.

GRAND UNION MASS MEETING AT CURWENSVILLE.

on Saturday evening, Oct. 10th, 1863.

The meeting will be addressed by HON. JAMES M. SCOVILL of New Jersey, one of the most eloquent and distinguished speakers in the Union. He has been a life-long Democrat, and is now devoting all his energies to the cause of the Union.

HON. LOUIS W. HALL, of Altoona, and other distinguished speakers will also be present. Let there be a grand outpouring of the loyal and true. Let every lover of his country meet with his countrymen, and testify his readiness to sustain the cause of Liberty and Union in this hour of extreme peril.

UNION MASS MEETING AT KYLLERTOWN.

The friends of the Union, without respect to party, will assemble in Mass Meeting at Kyllertown, on Monday evening, October 12th.

Hon. J. M. Scovill, of N. Jersey, and other distinguished speakers will be in attendance to address the meeting. Let the people turn out, and make this one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings that has been held in the county during the campaign.

DIVINE SERVICE.—The Lords' Supper will be celebrated in the Lutheran Church in this place, on Sunday next, October 11th, no interlocking of Providence. Preparatory services on Saturday the 10th, at 2 o'clock.

THE HON. JOHN P. DUBY.—This veteran Democrat, for many years an associate Judge of Clearfield county, a man of more than ordinary intelligence and influence, has come out openly for Curtin and is doing good service in the Union cause.

MEETING AT CONGRESS HILL.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at Congress Hill Schoolhouse on Thursday evening the 14th ultimo. The officers were, A. KISS, Esq., President, B. McGovern and A. Mignot, Vice Presidents, and J. Peters, Secretary. J. B. McEnally, Esq., addressed the meeting. Little Girard will do her duty on the 24 Tuesday of October.

MEETING AT PENNVILLE.

On Saturday evening, the 26th ult., there was a large and enthusiastic meeting held at Pennville. Eliza Fenton, assisted by Samuel Widener, Isaac Thompson, Sr., and other, presided. There was a large number of ladies present, who seemed to enter into the spirit of the meeting with great enthusiasm. Gen. Patton and H. B. Swoope, Esq., delivered telling and eloquent addresses. Penn township will give a good account of herself on Tuesday next.

GO EARLY TO THE POLLS.

Let every loyal man bear the place of election when the polls open. Let him remain until they close. Give one day to your country. Think of the thousands of your fellow citizens who are perilling their lives in the same glorious cause. Remember that a ballot is as effective as a bullet. Work then as you have never worked before. Your enemies will be vigilant and active. They will use every means—resort to any and every expedient to secure success. Be on your guard, be faithful, be industrious, and victory will be the result. A united, continued effort and treason will be forever vanquished in our noble old Commonwealth.

THE UNION MEETING LAST WEEK.

Want of space and time prevented us from giving a full account of the Union Meeting held on Tuesday the 26th, in our last paper. It was the largest and most enthusiastic meeting ever held in this part of the State. The procession in size, appearance, conduct, and enthusiasm was the best we ever saw. The Marshalls, to whom great credit is due, were as follows:

- Chief Marshal, COLONEL ED. A. LEVIN.
Assistant Marshalls:
G. B. Wolfe, J. P. Nelson,
Jacob Mack, D. Adams, Jr.,
G. W. M. Cully, James Galloway,
Geo. Adams, C. C. Mitchell,
Lieut. J. S. Showers, Lieut. J. C. Temple.
- In the delegations from Curwensville, and other points, that formed the procession, was a large number of ladies, bearing flags, bouquets, &c., which added greatly to the display. The great interest manifested by the ladies in behalf of the glorious old Union, and for our noble standard bearers, Curtin and Agnew, entitles them to the thanks of every true lover of his country. Long may they be remembered for the encouragement they extended to the loyal sons of Clearfield county on the occasion.

The best of order and good feeling was manifested during the entire meeting. It adjourned with nine cheers for A. G. Curtin and the Union, and three cheers for Judge Shannon.

The miasma and foul vapors generated by the hot sun will be far more deadly to our volunteers, than the enemy's bayonets. In the Indian and crimson campaigns, Holloway's Pills were used in enormous quantities. They kept the troops in perfect health. Only 25 cents per box. Soldiers supply yourselves. 247

TURN OUT TO THE MEETING AT CURWENSVILLE.

Every man should try to be at Curwensville on Saturday evening to hear the Hon. James M. Scovill, who is one of the most eloquent speakers in the country. We see that he has recently been nominated by acclamation, by the Union Convention of his District, for State Senator. He is a War Democrat who has done the cause of the Union good service.

We expect the Curwensville meeting to be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in the county. All persons north of Clearfield, and in its immediate vicinity, are requested to meet here at 2 o'clock P. M., and form in procession to proceed to the meeting. Come with your wagons, buggies, and horses. Come on foot. Come with your neighbors, families and friends. Come one, come all. Let there be a grand rally for Curtin and Union!

THE WAR NEWS.

Gen. Rosecrans is still at Chattanooga. No change has taken place in the situation of the war. Our army is in good fighting trim, compact in organization, well supplied with provisions, has plenty of ammunition, and is full of confidence. Rosecrans is receiving reinforcements. The casualties of the late battle at Chickamauga creek are given as follows: Killed 1,800; wounded 9,500; taken prisoners 2,500; total loss 13,800. The rebel loss is said to be about 20,000.

CHARLESTON.—We have no news of great events from this place. Gillmore is still engaged in perfecting his fortifications on Morris Island. The rebels keep up a fire upon him, but with no effect. Gillmore throws an occasional shell at Sumter, Johnson, and other rebel fortifications, to let the enemy know that he is still on hand. The Iron-clads pay their respects to Monitor frequently enough to prevent the rebels from making repairs and strengthening their position.

RAPPAHANNOCK.—This portion of our army seems to be lying quiet. No advance has been made beyond Chulpepper.

COPPERHEADS AND THE SOLDIERS.—At the "protracted" meeting of the Copperheads, held in the Court House on Wednesday evening, the principal speaker Mr. Northrop, said in substance:

"That the time was approaching when the people of Pennsylvania would be called upon to vote upon some amendments to the Constitution—that it was all wrong for the soldiers, who were from home and in another State, to vote—that that matter should be left with those who remained at home—and he would advise every Democrat to vote against the amendments, for what right have the soldiers to vote?"

The above sentiments of Mr. Northrop are in perfect accordance with the decision of Mr. Justice Woodward, disfranchising the soldiers, and with the principles of the party of which he is the standard bearer. They are opposed to the soldiers voting, because they know they will not vote for Woodward. They are opposed to it, because they desire to do everything to make the life of the soldier revolting, that the Government may have the greater difficulty in filling up the ranks. They will, however, be disappointed. They will discover that a majority of the citizens of Pennsylvania are loyal and true, and that they will accord to the soldiers the right to vote, by an amendment to the Constitution, and so forever put out of the power of such men as Mr. Wood ward to deprive them of the privilege.

SOLDIERS' RIGHT TO VOTE.
The following extract from a section of the Election Laws of Pennsylvania, in relation to troops, has been going the rounds of the Copperhead papers of the State:

"No body of troops in the army of the United States, or of this Commonwealth, shall be present, either armed or unarmed, during the time of such election."
The whole section can be found in the Digest of Election Laws, with which each Election Board is furnished, on pages 155 & 6, section 29, and reads as follows:

"No body of troops in the army of the United States, or of this Commonwealth, shall be present either armed or unarmed, during the time of such election; provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent any officer or soldier from exercising the right of suffrage in the election district to which he may belong if otherwise qualified according to law."

Why did they not publish the whole of the election, instead of a garbled extract? The only reason we can assign is, their desire to produce the false impression that soldiers have no right to vote, even if present on the day of election, in the district to which they respectively belong. It is a shallow device to deprive the soldiers of their right of suffrage.

WOODWARD VS. WOODWARD.
On the 26th of September, 1863, in a letter to R. E. Sharpley, Esq., of Carlisle, Judge Woodward says:

"So far from avowing belief in Secession, or favoring recognition of the Southern Confederacy, I am, and always have been, opposed to both."
In December 1860, Judge Woodward, in his speech in Independence Square, Philadelphia, said:

"We hear it said let the South go peaceably. I say let her go peaceably."
Will any intelligent man presume to deny that George W. Woodward did not believe in Secession when he made the latter declaration? Is it not fair to infer that he favored recognition of the Southern Confederacy? Then was he always opposed to both? We think not.

Honest Pennsylvanians, we ask you in all candor, what confidence can you place in a Judge of the Supreme Court, who will make such reckless assertions as the foregoing, for the purpose of aiding his election to the chief Magistracy of this glorious old Commonwealth?

COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS BEFORE THEM.

A private letter from a gentleman in Cleveland, Ohio, referring to the canvass in that State, says:

"Possess your soul in abundant peace as to the result in Ohio. She follows California and Maine. Our people are thoroughly aroused, and our speakers fully at work. Our meetings of from four thousand to twelve thousand occur every day in the week, and we have just commenced. Vallandigham will be defeated by one hundred thousand majority."
Colonel McClure, the senior editor of the Chambersburg Repository, and a member of the Union State Committee, in answer to numerous inquiries from correspondents, says:

"Many have written, asking as to the condition of the State. To all such we can answer, once for all, that all signs must prove deceptive if Governor Curtin shall not have from twenty-five thousand to fifty thousand majority in the State."
THE VOICE AND THE ECHO.
If any candid man can longer doubt the close sympathy existing between the leaders of the Woodward party in Pennsylvania and the leaders of the rebellion, that doubt ought to be resolved by the following extracts, one from Woodward's cotton speech and the other from Jeff Davis' organ. They are as closely in sympathy as cause and effect of the voice and its echo:

THE VOICE.
We must arouse ourselves and re-assert the rights of the slaveholder, and add such guarantees to our Constitution as will protect his property from the spoliation of religious bigotry and persecution, or else we must give up our Constitution and Union."—George W. Woodward.

THE ECHO.
The success of the Democratic party would be no longer doubtful should Gen. Lee once more advance on Meade. Let him drive Meade into Washington, and he will again raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm their faith, and give confidence to their waiting."—Richmond Enquirer, Sept. 7.

JUDGE LOWRIE'S DISLOYALTY.
At the Union meeting in the 3rd Ward, Allegheny city, on Monday evening of last week, the Hon. Thomas J. Digham related the following incident, on the authority of Mr. Crozier, and a number of citizens of Mount Troy:

"On the morning of the 4th of July last, two Union soldiers called at Judge Lowrie's residence, and stated that they were hungry, without money, and asked for breakfast. The Judge, appearing at the door, ordered them in, a soldier, in a peremptory manner, to leave his premises. Some altercation of words ensued, when the Judge added that he would prefer giving bread to rebels rather than Union soldiers."
Mr. B. said he made this statement at the request of the parties, who were present and ready to vouch for its truthfulness. It would seem from the above that the Supreme Judge candidates of the Copperheads are both very bad eggs.

A MEAN FRAUD.

The Copperhead organs in their desperate efforts to obtain the sanction of respectable and responsible names to prop their falling cause, are publishing a letter of Gen. Cass, endorsing their extreme peace and disreputable doctrines. It is only necessary to say that Gen. Cass, who writes the letter referred to, is not General Lewis Cass, the sterling old patriot and Democrat, of Michigan, who resigned from the Cabinet of James Buchanan at the time the O. P. F. was selling out the country to a pack of traitors and doughfaces; but General Geo. W. Cass, of Pennsylvania, a very different person. The Copperheads must be in a bad way to resort to such a miserable trick and counterfeit as this.

Gen. Cass, the Statesman and patriot, is nobly supporting the Administration in its efforts to suppress the rebellion. He is a war Democrat—not a copperhead.

ANOTHER DEMOCRAT.

Col. THOMAS C. McDOWELL, heretofore connected with the "Patriot and Union" of Harrisburg, and who was Lieutenant-Colonel of the 84th Regiment Pa. Vol., has announced his adhesion to the cause of Curtin and Agnew, and is now stumping the State for the Union candidates. In a speech at Beaver he said that:

"It was the duty of the North to show the South that they were determined to put down the rebellion, and that the loyalty of the Northern Democrats would be demonstrated in the support of Curtin."
Everywhere we hear similar declarations. The people are rising. The Democratic masses, with all their love for the organization, cannot be brought to endorse its complicity with wrong, and we see them everywhere boldly spurning their party allegiance, and giving their voice to the cause of the Union. The fee is breaking, and the tide will soon be over the land.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH ON SLAVERY.

The Copperhead organs have been publishing a letter from one Bishop Hopkins, on the Divinity of Slavery, which has called forth an indignant protest from nearly the entire body of the Episcopal Clergymen of Eastern Pennsylvania, headed by Bishop Potter. We quote from the Protest as follows:

"This attempt not only to apologize for slavery in the abstract, but to advocate it as it exists in the Cotton States, and in a State which cannot be brought to endorse its complicity with wrong, and we see them everywhere boldly spurning their party allegiance, and giving their voice to the cause of the Union. The fee is breaking, and the tide will soon be over the land."
SMART.—For the Republicans to get some person to throw bad eggs at their speakers, and blame it on the Democrats."—Clearfield Republican.

A FACT.

One of the secrets of the opposition of the Copperheads to the soldiers who fight the battles of the Union, is undoubtedly because these soldiers believe that if they support or sympathize with Woodward, they might thereby induce Lee to make another invasion into Pennsylvania. The Copperheads might as consistently ask the soldiers to sympathize with Lee as with Woodward.

We presume that the editors of the Clearfield Copperhead will endeavor to make capital out of the report of our meeting published in the Press. No doubt the editors will say it was written by a citizen of Clearfield; but for the benefit of the public we will state that Mr. Forney sent one of his corps of reporters here, and he alone is responsible for the report.
