SINGULAR ADVENTURE.

For several days past a small lad was observed wandering through the streets of Manayunk, stopping here and there wherever he could find lodging. He was noticed upon the streets at all hours of the night, and it soon became evident to the police authorities that he was a vagrant, and had no home. The attention of Officer Boyd Adams was called to the fact, and he took the lad into custody. He then told the following story: He said his name was Charles Martin, that he was twelve years of age, and formerly hailed from New York. He had volunteered his services with The loss is about $10,000. the Captain of a company, and had been at the seat of war, from where he had just returned, laying had a severe attack of the typhoid tever, and came here in order to fully regain his health. One young lady stood at the gate in front of her home, evidently not an uninterested spectater. A soldier pointed to the National flag, and asked her how she liked it. ANOTHER LETTER OF VALLANDIGHAM'S The Proofs of his Treason Accumulate.

The Ohio State Journal publishes the following letter from VALLANDIGHAM to a rebel Colonel-a copy of which was sent North by James Flinn West, Co. A. Nineteenth O. V. I., who, in a letter to his brother, thus relates how the document came into his possession :

While out on a recconnoissance yesterday, we captured the baggage and private papers of Col. D. D. Inshall, of the 8th Alabama, (rebel) regiment. The following interesting and delectable letter, written by C. L. Vallandigham, while here, was found among his papers. I send you a copy of it, so that you may know where this man stands, and be governed accordingly, as from the tenor of your last letter I was led to believe that you was inclined to favor his election as Governor of Ohio. But when you come to understand his damnable treason, I hope for the sake of the good name of our family, and the cause of our country, you will with-hold your vote from so bad a man. The original letter will be sent to headquarters for "Rossey's" inspection.

[Copy of letter captured ] DEAR COL .: - Your kind note and invitation of yesterday was this morning handed me by your brother in-law, who will hand you this in return. It would give me much pleasure to visit you and your command before leaving the Confederacy, but it is now impossible to do so, as I have made arrangements to start this A. M., with the earliest train for Wilmington. You surmise correctly, when you say that you believe me to be the friend of the South in her struggle for freedom. My feelings have been publicly expressed in my own country, in that quotation from Lord Chatham-"My Lords, you cannot conquer America." There is not a drop of Puritan blood in my veins. I hate, despise and dety the tyrannical Government which has sent me among you, for my opinions' sake, and shall never give it my support in its crusade upon your institutions. But you are mistaken when you say there are but few such in the United States, North. Thousands are there who would speak out but for the military despotism that strangles them.

Although the contest has been, and will continue to be, a bloody one, you have but to persevere, and the victory will surely be ours. You must strike home! The defeusive policy lengthens the contest. The shortest road to peace is the boldest one. You can have your own terms by gaining a battle on your enemy's soil. Accept my kind regards for your personal welfare, and sincere thanks for your kind wishes in my behalf, and hoping and praying tor the ultimate cause in which you are fighting, believe me, as ever, your triend,

READ THIS .- De Bow, in a late number of his Southern Review, says of the new order of things to grow out of the Rebellion, if it succeed :- "The real civilization of a country is in its aristocracy. The masses are moulded into soldiers and artisans by intellect, just as matter and the elements of nature are made into telegraphs and steam engines. The poor, who labor all day, are too tired at night to study books. If you make them learned, they soon forget all that is necessary in the comcrat in the future we must sacrifice a thousand paupers. Yet we would by all means make them-make them permanent too, by laws of entail and primogeniture. The right to govern resides in a very small minority; the duty to obey is inherent in the great masses of mankind. All government begins with usurpation, and is continued by force. There is nothing to which the South entertains so great a dislike as universal suffrage. Wherever foreigners settle together in large numbers there wuiversal suffrage will exist."

Let those who profess modern Democracy, and naturalized citizens who support the rebel cause, study the above picture of what the South wants, and see how they like it.

VOTING NEGROES.

Before the election, the copperheads were continually crying out that the friends of the Government were the friends of the negro, and that the object of the war against the rebellion was to place the negro on a level with white men. By the use of such subterfages, the dir tiest and meanest ever resorted to by men claiming intelligence, much mischief was done and many an unsuspecting voter was seduced from his duty. But the proceedings at the polls, where the professions of men become practical, proved that the copperheads were in reality "the nigger party." In one of the election districts in this county, the copperhead leaders actualy voted "American citizens of African descent." We give this as a fact, and if any man doubts it, we refer him to Dr. Heck, who can sustain our statment it he is disposed to support the truth. Hereafter, we want to hear no more from the copperheads on the subject of "nigger parties."-Harrisburg Telegraph.

RESULTS OF ELECTING A LOYAL GOVERNOR .-The Louisville (Ky) Journal says:

Bramlette has determined that the guerrillas shall be routed from the State, and the General Order of Adjutant General Boyle, which we publish, will bring every lukewarm Kentuckian to a vivid sense of his duty. Unless at least one company is raised in each county in the State by the 24th of this month, a draft will be immediately enforced. The Governor says the State shall be free from its murderous foes, even though every arm is requir-

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoefland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bettles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HoorLayn's German Bitters' will cure nine tenths of the dis-eases induced by exposures and privations inci-dent to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own lan-guage, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PALADELPHIA. August 23rd, 1862.

Messes. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's colebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the expo sure attendant upon my duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the This was followed by great debility. heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this ity on board the Steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccess fully, to rescue ma from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinborn, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlors hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles. I have gained ten pounds. and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken place of vague fears -to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade,
