THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV'R 11, 1863.

Two letters remain in McGarvey Post-office for Benjamin Newcome.

FOR SALE.—A good parlor wood stove for sale low. Inquire at Journal office.

SNOW.—The first snow of the season fell on Monday morning last, but the quantity was so small as merely to show on the ground. We may however, soon expect "old Winter," with his "hoary locks," to pay us a regular visit. Well, we expect the "lads and lassies" will welcome him, for with his annual re-appearance comes "fun and frolic," and the et ceteras.

GOV. CURTIN AT HOME.

Our friends, in other parts of the State, are sometimes at a loss to understand how it comes that Gov. Curtin, who is admitted to be personally popular at home, was beaten in this county 344 votes at the recent election, although he carried it in 1860 by 341. The reason is obvious, and is at once creditable both to Gov. Curtin and his friends. The townships which gave majorities for him in 1860, have 1582 soldiers under arms, while those which went against him have sent but 468, although they poll more than half the Democratic vote of the county. Our ranks are decimated at home only because they are so full in the field, and we point with pride and triumph to the record. "We should have blushed if Cato's house had stood serene and flourished in a civil war."—Bellefonte Press.

BEARS.—David Brown, Jacob Confer and other Nimrods living at Canoe Creek, killed four bears on Thursday October 29th. They (the bears) came down from the mountain probably in search of food, and crossed the turnpike a few rods from Mr. Brown's house, where they were perceived and the dogs started after them. They were soon treed, one after another, and shot. They are thought to be the same "crittars" which a day or two after the election chased George W. Reed, on his way home from this place with the returns. —Hollidaysburg Register.

BAD LUCK.—A gentleman in Hannibal, Mo., having seven hundred dollars in greenbacks, which he wished to save for winter use, secreted it in an old stove, thinking it the safest place about the premises. A few evenings ago his wife had occasion to use the stove, and therefore had it set up and a good fire built in it. Her husband's feelings can be better imgined than described, when, on returning home, he found his treasure consumed.

The report that Gen. John W. Geary was captured by the rebels at Colliersville, Al., is contradicted. It is said that a rebel officer by the name of Geary was captured at that place, and hence the report.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.

☞The Richmond City Council has appropriated $50,000 for the relief of the poor.

☞Parrot himself is on Morris Island superintending the firing of his six mile shells.

☞Hon. John M. Botts, has been again arrested by the rebels and sent to Richmond prison.

☞At a coin sale in New York last week a silver dollar of 1794 brought the absurd price of $285.

☞Joseph Detweiler, a farmer of York county, is on trial at Philadelphia for evading the income tax.

☞The Selinsgrove Times calls the Provost Marshal's soldiers "dogs." This is decidedly the latest democratic invention.

☞A Youth of sixty years has been arrested in Rhode Island for whipping his mother. He said the old lady's morals were bad.

☞Gen. Garfield, while speaking for the Union, in a strong slave-holding locality, in Maryland, was mobbed by a crowd of copperheads.

☞Over $100,000 worth of property has been condemned and confiscated by the United States Court at Nashville, being the property of rebels.

☞One man in Poughkeepsie has been very unfortunate during the past few weeks. Within that time he has been drafted, married and burned out.

☞It is said that Woodward has been engaged by Artemus Ward to travel with his show and sing the pathetic balad, "Oh! I'm a Used up man."

☞A Frenchman wishing to say of a young lady that she was as gentle as a lamb, thus expressed himself; "She be mooch tame, like the petite mouton."

☞In Newport, R. I, a poor man found $300, and upon restoring it to its owner a well-to-do farmer, the generous man gave him the extraordinary sum of five cents!

☞A confederate dollar is now worth only six cents on the gold dollar, and, at the present rate of depreciation, will not soon be much more than two cents on the dollar.

☞An English laborer and his wife poisoned themselves with Prussic acid, and left an explanatory epistle, saying: "we were too lovin' to live together in this world."

☞The Zanesville Courier says an order was sent to that city the other day for a tomb stone for William Dunbar, late of Waterford, Washington county, Ohio, aged one hundred and twelve years. He was an old Revolutionary soldier.

☞Maj. Gen. Butler has been assigned to the command of the Department of Virginia and North Carolina (Gen. Foster's.) This change is believed to indicate a disposition to prosecute the war with renewed vigor in that especial section.

☞Another of the noble family of Ellets, who have so distinguished themselves in connection with naval operations on the Mississippi, is dead. Charles R. Ellet, commanding the Mississippi Marine brigade, died suddenly on Thursday last, at Bunker Hill, Illinois.

☞The largest fire in San Francisco, for many years, occurred there a short time since. The loss was about $250,000, without much insurance. The business part of the town of Big Oak Flat, Tuolumne county, was destroyed by fire on the 20th ult. Loss about $50,000.

☞An immense amount of counterfeit fifty cent postal currency notes is being manufactured in the State of New York. These counterfeits to the amount of $40,000, were in Buffalo two weeks ago, and the officers of that city are on the alert for the venders of the trash.

☞The London court Journal says: "It has transpired that Lord Palmerston came to London and had an interview of two hours' duration with Prince Napoleon, who, before he left England, also saw Earl Russel at Woburn; so that there is no doubt that, after all, the Prince's mission was political."

☞It is officialy stated that 4,000 refugees from northern Alabama and Georgia have arrived in Nashville since last August, and been variously provided for by the Government. Most of them have been sent North. They were in a deplorably destitute condition, having been robbed of everything by the rebels.

THE ARREST OF DESERTERS.—The business of apprehending deserters from the army has become quite extensive and profitable. The Government now pays thirty dollars a head for desetters, and "detectives" are quite numerous. Every citizen is authorized to apprehend deserters, and the pay is the same as received by regularly authorized agents. Many men will do for lucre what they never would do from motives of patriotism, and in the present emergency the Government is wise in offering large rewards.

A few days before the late election, Gen. McClellan wrote a letter endorsing Woodward, alleging that the Judge and him perfectly agreed in their views! As might have been expected, McClellan has lost many warm friends through it, among others the Baltimore American, one of his most ardent supporters, but which now, for the first time thanks the President for not reinstating him in his command.

THERE is in Nova Scotia a young woman, seventeen years of age, who is seven feet two inches in height. She measures forty-three inches round the waist, thirty-three inches from her armpit to the tip of her fingers, weight two hundred and seventy-four pounds, and has a foot thirteen inches long. She is good-looking and quite social, although diffident, not being accustomed to see the public, and her name is Anna Swan.

The devotion of the East Tennesseeans to the "old flag" is graphically described by a son of Senator Harris, who accompanied General Burnside. He says, "The old flag has been hidden in mattrasses and under carpets. It now floats to the breeze from every staff in East Tennessee. Ladies wear it. Little children clap their hands and kiss it."

☞While walking through the streets of Curwensville, my attention was drawn to a vast crowd of people passing and repassing, each and all with an immense load of merchandise; and there meeting an acquaintance, I made the inquiry "What does this mean." The answer was "Have you not been at the cheap Store of J. D. Thompson," who has just come from the East with the largest stock of goods offered to the community at lower figures than any other house in the country. "My advice to you is to call and see for yourself" and then exclaim "The half was not told me."

He wanders like an uncertain shadow, never knowing what moment he may be prostrated, and therefore disinclined to give any serious attention to business. From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

Philad'a., June, 23, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the nam or Bitters put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get *One Bottle Ho
