TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

84 THIR. PENN'A VOLS. Nov. 25th, 1863. Ma. Editor.—The people of Clearfield have heretofore received the sad intelligence of the decease of Corporal Matthew O. Tate, Co. K 25th Regt, but I thought it would be proper and appropriate for a moment to give a brief history of his career while living and a member of company K.

Corporal Tate enlisted in the service of his country, for three years or during the war, on the 10th day of October 1861—being then not quite seventeen years of age. He followed his regiment through its varied and cheerless career, participating in every engagement, and with them on every march, never in a single instance failing to do his allotted duty. His life has been an exemplification of a true and faithful soldier, and although young in years, he possessed the characteristics of a veteran. He received his death-wound at the memorable battle of Chancellorsville, where his conspicuous bravery was the praise of all lips.

After a painful and lingering illness of over four months, in the hospital, and at home, he died on the 16th of November, 1863, surrounded by friends.

At a meeting of the non-commissioned officers and privates of Co. K 25th P. V. convened for the occasion, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved: That we express the most sincere sympathy for the bereaved family, and anxiously await the arrival of the mail to know the result of the game of BRAGO that Gen. Grant is playing in the vicinity of Chattanooga, Tenn. From the latest I have seen, it would appear that U. S. Grant, (significant letters, the two first, equally appalling (the last five) would win with an extraordinary run by his opponent "a little more grape".

Resolved: That his conduct while a member of the company ever was of such a character as to win their confidence and respect, and to be proud to have him as a comrade, and to be glad to have him as a neighbor.

Resolved: That during his lingering illness, the cheerful, buoyant disposition he always exhibited while suffering from painful wounds, proves him to have been animated by the same patriotic motives that ever characterized his actions while in the company, and were a deep manifestation of the love he entertained for his country.

Resolved: That his cheerful illness, the cheerful, buoyant disposition he always exhibited while suffering from painful wounds, proves him to have been animated by the same patriotic motives that ever characterized his actions while in the company, and were a deep manifestation of the love he entertained for his country.

Signed by the officers, Sgt. R. H. JAMESON, President, Corporal W. B. HEMPHILL, Sec'y.

The following named members composed the committee on resolutions—Corporals, J. H. Barger, P. McCracken, R. J. Shaffer, J. H. Ferguson, and Privates John Green, A. B. Keams, R. L. Young, O. P. Ardeman.

Yours, Co. K. THE LADIES' SOLDIERS RELIEF SOCIETY OF CURWENSVILLE, PA.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT. The undersigned, Pres't of the "Ladies' Soldiers' Relief Society" of Curwensville, Penna., presuming that a statement of the doings of the Society since its organization, would be interesting to many who have contributed to its funds, and to others engaged in similar enterprises, begs leave to make the following report of its operations through the papers of the county. Deeming it a Christian and a patriotic duty to minister to the wants of our sick, wounded and dying soldiers, who by the vicissitudes of war, and often destitute of the necessities of life, an organization was created to collect funds, clothing, food, &c., and to dispatch the same through reliable channels to the various hospitals, camps and battle-fields of the country. The following report of the Treasurer presents a correct statement of the receipts and disbursements up to the 27th of November, 1863.

Mrs. D. O. CAROLIN, Treasurer, in account with the "Ladies' Soldiers' Relief Society,"

Table with 2 columns: Date, Amount. Includes entries for November 25, 1863, contributions in materials, and various cash payments.

The articles composing the four boxes of goods, referred to in the above report, have been carefully recorded in the books of the Secretary, which can be referred to by any one desiring information of their contents. The officers of the Society have used their discretion in sending goods or money to either the Sanitary Commission, Christian Commission, or Pa. Sol. Relief Society, as seemed most appropriate at the time to meet the wants of the suffering. The recent accounts of the wretched and starving condition of the Union prisoners at Richmond, have suggested the propriety of sending relief in that direction; and accordingly a check for $600, has been drawn in favor of the Treasurer of the Christian Commission, to be applied to their benefit. It is proposed, should occasion require it, to devote some of the funds remaining in the hands of the treasurer to the relief of soldiers' families at home, that may be found wanting in Philadelphia, &c., by the absence of those in the army upon whom they have heretofore depended for support.

In submitting this report to the public, we may remark, that whilst we believe our success as a society will compare favorably, with that of any other, similarly circumstanced in the county, much remains yet to be done. And that instead of relaxing our efforts, we should even labor with increased diligence in our cause. No cause can be more inspiring and holy, than that of feeding and clothing the brave heroes in our army, who by risking all the perils of camp and battle-field are securing to us, at our homes, domestic peace and comfort. And while we are enjoying these blessings at our own firesides, should we not regard it rather a pleasure, than a burden, to contribute to the relief of our gallant, but unfortunate soldiers and their families?

In the name of the society then, I appeal to all to give us your aid. Let every one do something. Contributions in money can be reported to any member of the Committee on Finance, and will be duly credited. But if money cannot be spared, send donations of food and clothing, and they will be sacredly devoted to their intended use. It is desired that when garments or other donations are made, the names of the persons sending them, and the probable value of each, be attached, so that it can be entered on the books of the Secretary. Delicacies—such as wines, jellies, dried fruit, &c., are in demand. All donations can be sent to the residence of the undersigned, where they will be carefully stored, until they can be forwarded to the army. JANE IRVIN, President, Curwensville, Pa. Nov. 30th 1863.

MARRIED: On the 15th November, by S. P. Wilson, Esq., Mr. PETER GRANTON, Miss ALVINA MAISS, all of Bradford township.

On the 1st Inst., at the Mansion House in Clearfield, by Rev. J. H. Bratten, Mr. ALBERT P. DENING, of Morris township, to Miss JOSEPHINE V. HATHRELL of Rush township Centro County.

For once, we take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to an advertisement— that of Howe & Stevens' Family Dyes have become a household necessity, and are popular in their use that many a well dressed lady finds that many an article once rejected as out of date, is, by the aid of these Dyes, made as good as new.

While walking through the streets of Curwensville, my attention was drawn to a vast crowd of people passing and repassing, each and all with an immense load of merchandise, and these meeting an acquaintance, I made the inquiry: "What does this mean?" The answer was: "Have you not been at the cheap Store of J. D. Thompson?" who has just come from the East with the largest stock of goods offered to the community at lower prices than any other house in the county. "My advice to you is to call and see for yourself!" and then exclaim: "The half was not told me."

SHAKE AND BURN! Shake and burn! Shake and burn! The sufferer from Fever and Ague. He wanders like an uncertain shadow, never knowing what moment he may be prostrated, and the duties of clearing the host of the system and to business. This is no exaggeration to say that Fever and Ague kills more people than any twenty other diseases in America. For a sure and speedy cure of this terrible affliction, we take great pleasure in recommending HOOPER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which have already achieved a wide reputation for rapid and powerful effects in removing the system prostrated by this disease.
