CLEARFIELD, DEC. 2, 1863.

Rebel Account of a Federal Raid. A Huntsville (Ala.) correspondent of the Montgomery Mail, giving a report of a recent Federal expedition into that region says:

"Limestone and most of Madison counties were completely scoured and swept clean of horses and mules, cattle, sheep, poultry, hogs, meat, flour, &c. Two or three thousand hormal flour, &c. Two or three thous citizens, farms, plantations, &c. thoroughly stripped. The loss to this section is very heavy, and the injury far greater than we ever have experienced, for we are now less able to bear it. Before we have lost of our abnndance-this time nearly all of our working stock. We have had the year twenty-one visits from them. Stanley's big raid in July swept off largely of slaves, horses, mules,&c., and so did others. But we have patched up matters again, rigged up old wagons, new teams, &c. This time all has been swept off, and our people feel as if it is useless to try to fix up again, even with old wagons, broken down mules and horses, as all may again soon be taken by another raid. We have not enough left now to haul and plough with, and a fine riding or harness horse in the hands of a citizen is a rarity, and milk cows are worth as much and more valued than negroes."

KENTUCKY REBELS .- The Frankfort, (K.,) Commonwealth has the following forcible re-mark on Kentucky affairs: "How can the Federal anthorities expect recruiting to go on in Kentucky, when they permit the State to be ready, upon the approach of a rebel army. to prove more troublesome and dangerous than ever. The meanest rebels who figured in the invasion last year, were those who had been treated most leniently. Rebels have been permitted to return, who aided in tearing the stars and stripes from our State Capitol, and trampled the flag in the dust; and who, when here, were most violent and vindictive. Union men can't afford to leave their homes, when such men are left behind to do mischief. This indiscriminate return of rebels should be stopped.

PROOF OF MARRIAGE .- It not unfrequently happens that clergymen, in marrying a couple, omit to give a certificate of the marriage, dence is rendered especially important that Cooking stoves for sale at the cheap now, as in the case of the despectation of it. Such evinow, as, in the case of the death of a soldier, the widow must have a certificate of marriage before she can receive a pension. A New Jersey paper, in speaking of this subject, as it respects that State, says :-- Upon searching the records within the past year for marriages, nearly half of the unfortunate widows have been turned away with the remark-The clergyman performing the ceremony has negected to comply with the law." "

To DETECT COUNTERFEIT FIFTY CENT NOTES. -Many persons do not know the counterfeit fifty cent postal currency from the genuine. There are marks on the spurious that, if observed, will at once show the counterfeit. On the counterfeit the final "E," in the words "United States Postage," over the head of Washington, is dropped, and the letter "S" in the word "Treasurers," extends higher up than the other letters. Another test is that, in the spurious, the "y," in the word "Depositary," on the back of the note, does not touch the edge of the border around it. Attention to these directions will prevent persons being imposed upon.

THE PRESIDENT'S EMANCIPATION PROCLAMAto state that Thomas B. Bryan, Esq., has purchased the original manuscript of the President's Emancipation Proclamation, having paid the managers of the Northwestern fair the handsome sum of three thousand dollars for it, and having given obligations that it shall not go out of the city .- Chicago Trib.
