WHAT MANIA A POTU IS.

A pretty well dressed young man stepped into the Central Station yesterday afternoon, to enter a complaint. He appeared to be perfectly sane, but it was not long before we came to the conclusion that we stood in the presence of a man who was laboring under an attack of mania-a-potu.

"Well, sir, your complaint is just; we have already taken measures to have the railroad tracks removed from your house so that you can sleep without being disturbed," was our reply.

The man seemed to be grateful that such a course had been taken, and as he arose to depart, he said, "Sir, I wish you would remove that worm from my shoulder; only a little while ago I pulled one out of my forehead, and threw it on the pavement; just as I was about to put my foot on it, nearly a hundred ran up my leg, and I suppose this is one of them."

We removed the imaginary worm; where-upon he exclaimed, "why, there are more of them." "Wait a moment," said we; a brush we obtained and properly used. The man, evidently a gentleman, returned his thanks for our kindness, and suddenly left the office. He was a stranger. What became of him we know not, but we thought the whole scene was a first class temperance lecture.—Phila. Press.

THE SKEPTIC REPETED.—"Ah," said a skeptical collegian to an old Quaker, "I suppose you are one of those fanatics who believe the Bible?"

"I do believe the Bible," said the old man, "does thee believe it?"

"No, I can have no proof of its truth."

"Then," inquired the old man, "does thee believe in France?"

"Yes, for although I have not seen it, I have seen others who have. Besides there is plenty of corroborative proof that such a country does exist."

"Then thee will not believe anything that others have not seen?"

"No."

"Did the ever see thy own brains?"

"No."

"Ever see a man who did see them?"

"No."

"Does the believe thee has any?"

"This last question put an end to the discussion."

NOW IS THE TIME!

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

A pure and powerful Tonic, Corrective and Alterative of the most successful in the treatment of the disease of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare medicinal herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and so far as the human system can be protected by human means against malady, no preparation is so well calculated to do this as Hostetter's Bitters.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found invaluable as a preventive and restorative as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of its medicinal properties.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lassitude of Spirit, Headache, Weak Nerves, and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Bilious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produces effects which must be experienced or witnessed here before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Deeperities arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delectable and invigorating tonic. It restores the appetite, restores to the system the vigor which it has lost, and re-establishes the equilibrium of the system.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The immense increase in the sale of Hostetter's Bitters, both at home and abroad, during the past few years, proves that the world, in all its parts, is beginning to understand that "it is good," only "holds fast to that which is good."

Spurious preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up, but their character is soon discovered, and they are doing like worthless weeds away. On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it on its introduction, is now for the first time, but for all its merits, it is not so generally known as it should be.

BULKLEY'S PATENT—LUMBER DRIED BY SUPERHEATED STEAM.

The undersigned respectfully informs the people of Clearfield and adjoining counties that he has the agency of the above named and well known Lumber, county or township rights for its use.

The lumber dried by this process is stronger, finishes better, is easier on tools, and requires less time in drying than any other process known, drying 1 inch lumber perfectly in 30 hours better than twenty months under the ordinary system, using the same amount of fuel per day for a common kiln consumes. The certificate of a number of resident mechanics well known in this community is amply sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its utility. Persons desiring of purchasing rights will address JOHN L. CUTLER, Clearfield, Penna. June 24, 1862.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT. All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should be supplied with these Pills and Ointment, and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their Friends.

If you desire to be wiser than the Soldier's severing friend in the hour of need.

Weakness or Debility Induced by Over Fatigue Will be dispensed by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will acquire additional strength. Never let the Bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange, that Holloway's Pills should be recommended by Physicians and Chemists, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the Liver and Stomach, and thus remove all the acid humors from the system. This medicine will give force and vigor to the whole organic system, however deranged, while health and strength flow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this medicine.

Volunteers, Attention!—Indications of Youth. Sores and Ulcers, Blisters and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured, if the Pills are taken.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these valuable remedies.

CAUTION.—No genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY NEW YORK" are printed in a WATER-MARK in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by HOLDING THE LEAF TO THE LIGHT. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 50 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents, and $1 each.

What is here is considerable saving by taking the large size.
