

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JAN. 20, 1864.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We tender our thanks to T. J. Boyer, of the House, for several documentary favors.

We see the name of Gilmore Shirey among those who were injured by the breaking of an axle on the Pa. Railroad, 2 1/2 miles below Tyrone, on Sunday last.

We this week publish a letter of Mrs. Manning Stevenson to her brother B. Hartshorn, Esq., which will be read with interest by the many friends of that lady in this county.

ATTENTION!—We call particular attention to the letter of Capt. A. M. Smith, published under the head of "correspondence." Capt. Smith makes allusion to some matters of interest to all, and we hope that our readers will give his letter a careful perusal.

The following appointments were made by the County Commissioners, for 1864: Counsel, Wm. A. Wallace, Clerk, Wm. S. Bradley, Mercantile Appraiser, John B. Heisey, Coal Contractor, John Feeny, Wood Contractor, John McGoe, Janitor, Andrew Shugart.

DIED.—At his residence in Curwensville on Tuesday, January 12th, Thos. Ross, Esq. The deceased was a man of amiable disposition, a kind and affectionate parent, and an agreeable and accommodating neighbor—beloved by all who knew him. He was extensively known in this county as a surveyor, of no ordinary ability. His death will be regretted by his numerous friends. Peace to his remains.

THE SCALPEL.—This valuable work has made its first appearance in our sanctum. Dr. Dixon's "Scalpel" is a quarterly index for the people, whereby they may learn to live and move and enjoy health. Each page contains some important and practical lesson in depicting the abuses and follies incident to man. Its articles are highly interesting, and in thrilling interest are unsurpassed by the fictitious literature of the day. The work is worthy the public patronage. Price, 25 cents a number, or $1 a year. Business letters must be addressed to Ernestus Warner, No. 1 Vevey street (Astor House), New York.

THE DRAFT.—By reference to Circular 87, of the Assistant Provost Marshal Gen. which we publish to-day, it will be seen that men enlisted in any sub-district, will be credited to the District paying the bounty and not to the one in which they may actually reside. This is a matter which interests every man, and shows the necessity of raising local bounties. For instance Erie county of a local bounty of $233, and Clearfield does not. Under the action of Circular 87, should a Clearfield man enlist in Erie, that county receives a credit for that man because he has been paid a bounty there, leaving Clearfield to furnish his quota by draft. We have called attention to this subject on several occasions, but so far our citizens have treated these suggestions with perfect indifference. We hope they will now give the matter of raising our quota by volunteers their prompt attention.

BARB BURN.—We learn that the barn of Lieut. John M. Chase, of Woodland township, was destroyed by fire, about 12 o'clock on Thursday night, January 14th, together with 14 tons of hay, a large quantity of straw, one yoke oxen, and 18 head of sheep. The probable loss is about $600—as the barn was but an old one. The hay and straw is perhaps the most serious loss to Mr. Chase, as he has considerable stock to feed and cannot replace those articles at any price, on account of the scarcity of fodder in the county. The fire was evidently the work of an incendiary, as neither Mr. C. nor any of his family had been near the barn with a light for two or three days previous to the occurrence. We hope that the perpetrators of this inhuman act, of burning up sheep and oxen, will be detected and receive the just punishment due them, for this fiendish revenge upon the owner.

THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC.—We are under obligations to the proprietors of the Tribune Almanac, for a copy of that most valuable work for 1864. The present Almanac contains, beside the Astronomical Calculations and Calendar, a list of the Executive, Judicial and other officers of the National Government, the members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the U. S., politically classified—late important Acts of Congress, carefully condensed—army and navy and public debt—shrinkage of the rebellion—Amnesty Proclamation—the Rebel government and Congress—election returns of 1863—soldiers votes, etc. etc. In fact, this Almanac is a complete and comprehensive Political Register—containing more information, in a narrow compass, than any other work published. Price, single copies, 15 cents. Ten for $1. $5 per hundred. Address The Tribune Association, N. York.

Still They Come.

Among the late news from Newberne, North Carolina, we find the following item: "Eleven hundred persons in Newberne have taken the oath annexed to the President's Amnesty Proclamation." As a further evidence of the favorable reception of the Amnesty Proclamation, we give several extracts from the Newberne Times of Jan. 9th, which is on our table: "Every day seems to add to the strength of the Union cause in Eastern North Carolina. . . . That a deep seated Union feeling permeates the mass of the people in this State, we have no doubt. We have almost daily evidence of this fact from the large number who come within our lines, and avail themselves of the President's Amnesty Proclamation."

Such is the effect of that Proclamation of which the editors of the Copperhead organ were such a high-spirited people, such a people as the sons of the sires of Seventy-six ought to be," would not be accepted "by a man of them." They also ask the question, "Will it strengthen the hands of the Union men of the South?" to which they respond emphatically "No."

Our Copperhead neighbors may be prophets, but we would infer from the extracts given that they are very poor ones—not even being good guessers.

Com. vs. S. G. Piles—Malicious mischief. True bill.

Com. vs. S. G. Piles, R. Bard and Z. Hartshorn—Riot. Verdict guilty. To appear at next term of Quarter Sessions—sentence having been deferred.

[This prosecution grew out of an occurrence at a political meeting at Curwensville, previous to the October election; at which time Geo. A. Bloom, the prosecutor, struck William Adleman and broke open a fresh severe wound received at Gettysburg—Adleman having had his lower jaw badly shattered by a ball at that hotly contested battle. It is alleged by the prosecutor, that the defendants after the fight in Curwensville went to the house of Bloom with the intent of tarning and feathering him, for his assault upon a wounded and sick soldier—and hence the prosecution for riot. Upon the trial of this case, we are told, that the defence clearly proved by a number of persons, that the prosecutor, George A. Bloom was of bad reputation for truth, and that the testimony of himself and wife was conflicting and contradicted in material points by other evidence in the case—that it was clearly established by evidence that S. G. Piles could not possibly have been at Bloom's house, as he was at home and in bed at the hour fixed by the witnesses for the Commonwealth, as the time of the occurrence of the riot. We are also informed, that the counsel for the prosecution endeavored to excite the political prejudices and feelings of the jurors against the prisoners—the jury being divided 10 to 2 politically—and that but for this effort, at least Piles would have been acquitted, if not the others. We have deemed it but due to the defendants to make this explanation, since the cause seems to have assumed more the character of a political crusade, than the vindication of our criminal statutes.—ED. JOURNAL.]

Com. vs. E. Patton—Bastardy. True bill.

Com. vs. D. Michaels—Disturbance at election. True bill.

Com. vs. S. Frailey—Adultery. Ignoramus and prosecutor to pay costs.

Com. vs. W. W. Wilson—Malicious mischief. Ignoramus, and prosecutor to pay costs.

Opposed to Prayer!

IN THE SENATE, on Thursday, January 7th, Mr. Lowry offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Speaker be requested to invite the Clergymen of Harrisburg to open the sessions of the Senate with prayer.

On the question, Will the Senate proceed to a second reading of the resolution? The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Kinsey and Mr. Donovan, and were as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Champneys, Wilson, Con-nell, Dunlap, Fleming, Graham, Hoge, Householder, Johnson, Lowry, M' Candless, Nichols, Ridgeway, Turrell, Worthington and Penny. SPEAKERS—16.

NAYS—Messrs. Reardon, Bacher, Don-ovan, Glaz, Hopkins, Kinsey, Lamberton, Latta, M' Sherry, Montgomery, Reilly, Smith, Stark, Stein, Wallace and Clymer—16.

So the question was determined in the negative—the Union men voting yeay, and Opposition nay. Alas! poor Democracy! Whither are ye drifting?

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and mode of preparation, I feel it my duty to state, that I have used the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily, as I have used Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to Dr. Jackson for the Bitters, &c., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility.

The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend Dr. Jackson for the recovery of my health.

Philad'a, June 23, 1851. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters is not only unwholesome and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is increased and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liqueur Bitters we publish the following receipt: "Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far exceed in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liqueur Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liqueur at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you."

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of this kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters":

PAUL WELPHER, August 23rd, 1862. Messrs. Geo. W. & G. Wallgren, our Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my cure. I can truly say I have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "Schenck" where I have since which I landed on the 25th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did swallow a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working fruitlessly, thought it unnecessary to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my worldly goods as he should see fit. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinborn, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death retreated, and I am now thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have had nothing for eighteen months: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken place of vague fears of death, and I feel it my duty to state, in the degree of again clasp to my bosom those who are dear to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statements, we had despair of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

JOHN CUDDEBACK, 21 New York Battery,
