CLEARFIELD, PA., FEB. 24, 1864.

GODEY FOR MARCH .- The March number of this much admired Lady's Magazine is to hand. It is equal to any of its prede-cessors. Subscribe for it, if you wish to have an agreeable companion.

THE WEATHER - Wednesday morning, the 17th, we opine, was the coldect of the season—the mercury indicating 14° below zero at 7 o'clock. Since then the air has moderated more or less every day, until yesterday, (Tuesday,) when the roads were Water Street is assuming quite a civilized quite slushy again.

STATE JOURNAL.—The foregoing is the title of a new Weekly Paper, just started at Harrisburg, by D. H. B. Brower & Son, formerly of the "Montour American." The JouRNAL is printed on entirely new material. is ably conducted, and gives fair promise of doing good service in the cause of the Union. Success to the JOURNAL.

We have been favored with a copy of the FRANKLIN REPOSITORY, printed at Chambersburg, Pa. It is a large, triple sheet, neatly printed, ably conducted, and a firm friend of the Union, and of the National Administration. The people of the Cumberland Valley have reason to be thankful that they have such an excellent paper published in their midst.

morning the 17th, several buildings belonging to F. Howe, Esq., of Decatur township, were destroyed by fire. The fire originated in a shop, by accident, which was all a-flame entirely consumed-with all the household one table. Probable loss, $1,000.

RETURNED.-Lient. D. M'Gaughey, of Company C 5th Penn'a R. V. C., was home on short leave of absence-remaining until Tuesday morning last. The Lieutenant en-joys good health, and has the appearance of a true, brave-hearted soldier. Our best wishes accompany him to his regiment ; and may he ever be animated by pure patriotism and prove faithful to the glorious cause which he has espoused-his life be preserved-and when this war is over be permitted to return to his home and enjoy the fruits of his present toils in peace and comfort.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

Letter from Philipsburg, Pa. PHILIPSBURG, Pa., Feb. 22d, 1864. DEAR JOURNAL :- This is the birth day of the Father of his country-the great, the good and immortal Washington. A name near and dear to the heart of every true American, and one that will go down to the latest period of time without the least fading of the wreath of glory that encircles his glorious fame. Could he to-day rise out of his grave and see that Union rent in twain, ever may) that he had left flourishing with the Republic. all the vigor of youth-had grown and prospered, until it stood before the world the lone star of freedom and an example for all the nations of the earth. Alas! for the hope of Washington. Ere he had reached the surface of his tomb the thundering of cannon falls upon his ear-for a moment his spirit seems to assume the martial bearing of other days, and his eye to sparkle with all the fervidness of yore. But the next gale that sweeps along tells him that it is not hostile invaders from a foreign shore that fired the cannon he so lately heard. It is not the "red coats" that now menace the peaceful shades of Mt. Vernon. No! would to Heaven it was! But it is the sons, devenerated as they are, of those sires that fought by your side-sons, that to-day would trample in the dust that glorious emblem of the free that your own noble hands planted on the ramparts of this terrestial paradise yea, have trampled in the dust, have assailed with all the epithets and curses "loud and deep" that were or ever can be invoked by the tongue of man-sons, that to-day traw the sword and would crumble into atous that gigantic government instituted. tought for, established and presided over by thee. But thanks to the Great and Good God who guided the destiny of the youthful republic. He is at the helm to-day ; and though the good old ship may reel and quiver in the dreadful storm and her live-oak timbers tremble, yet will He land her in a safe harbor with all sails set, gliding along under a glorious breeze and the Stars and Stripes flying fore and aft and from the mizzen peak, in all their original splendor-"not a star obscured or stripe erased." Every rebel, and that other reptile, (a copperhead that is ten thousand times worse and appearance, and will soon be the business thoroughfare of this gay and smiling town. LEROI. Yours.

Charles Coplin, is now here recruiting for this gallant old regiment. The Lieutenant looks well under the "bars." They set very graceful on his broad shoulders, and from the "ang" of his talk. I think they will never be disgraced by him. The carpenters, masons and laborers are hard at work putting up the buildings, turntable, water tank, &c., of the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad. The frame of the warehouse is up and enclosed, and the turn-table and tank are fast approaching completion.

We "Correct the Error." The editors of the Copperhead organ, last week, let off nearly a column of gas on account of a "shameless forgery" which they allege they had discovered in a publication made by us the week previous. We had copied, and printed on our outside of the 10th instant, several extracts from an article among which was a conversation that occurred between Hon. G. S. Smith and Hon. J. M. Botts, of Virginia, in relation to Gen. M'-Clellan. We had omitted from the article a "summary" of Mr. Botts' letter to Mr. Smith, but retained the allusion thereto by an oversight. The mistake was so palpable, and having no connection with the other ex-FIRE.-We learn that, on Wednesday tract, we did not deem it necessary to make a correction. knowing that every intelligent, reader would do so at once, as the paragraph given stated plainly that the allusion to M' Clellan was made in a conversation between when discovered. The fire soon communi-cated to the dwelling house, and both were that our sagacious copperhead neighbors were too dull of comprehension, or too eager and kitchen furniture, except two beds and for an opportunity to "blow off. gas," to Keep constantly on hand a large and well select-"see the point." and hence their great "explosion." However, we hope they feel much better about the stomach after letting off so large a quantity of "elastic æriform fluid." and that their "gasometer" has sustained no serious damage by the occurrence.

THE Nashville Union says that "General W. G. Harding, President of the famous Military Board of the Rebel Governor of Tennessee, Isham G. Harri, has taken the eath of allegiance. General Harding is an influential citizen. He has stood high in the estimation of Southern disunionists, and done much to sustain them in their war against the Government.

The boys of Company E, have met with a sad misfortune-the death of their captain-just as they were about joining their regiment. I heard them speak of Captain arrimer in terms of the highest praise, for his undaunted bravery at the battle of Getsourg and at all other engagements that they had ever been in. His corpse passed through this place on Saturday and I presame would be interred in its final resting place, by the citizens of Clearfield, to-day. Captain Larrimer was a brave and noble He braved the bullets of the enemy and fell a martyr in the noblest cause that mortal man ever yielded up his life for, and his past career stands a proud and enduring monument to his name.
