Snow.-Some snow fell yesterday. Whether it will be of much advantage to timber haulers remains to be seen. What amount of timber is making we are not fully advised of, but, unless we have a sufficient fall of snow to make good hauling, we anticipate that even a good part of that which is made will remain in the forests. If so, we may look for but a limited supply to reach the lower markets in the spring.

----CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

Letter from Philipsburg, Pa. PHILIPSBURG, Pa., Feb. 29th, 1864. DEAR JOURNAL :- The past week has an exciting one to the citizens of our best and vicinity. The week opened with sine die. two balls, one at the "Conrad House," the other at the "Exchange Hotel." alls were strictly political, as far as I can utsiders, which house should have the bygest crowd." The landlords of each so to their honor be it said, took no part say which ball was a complete success, but resume that like all other things terrestrial these days, the no compromise-vigorous-flagellation-of-the-rebeis- and-standing-by-the Everament-party, made the point. Be that their patriotism and respect for the birthday of The Father of his Country, in a more appropriate manner. This is no time for tice' is frequently the result of "precept." We have a war, a huge civil war, a war such as the world never before beheld, abroad in our land. Young men, you that could spend a night in the ball room, tax Four systems to their utmost to bear the disa ball, lister to the shrill notes of the buthe as it echoes the command "fall in" "forward Young men! your country calls you to her succor. patriotism? Is there was valiant blood ! couring through your veins? Are you fit for nothing but to dance? Have you no higher ambition than that of attending a ball? Can it be possible! that all the young men-stout, hearty, athletic-that attended the balls in this place on the evening of ALINE HILL, both of New Washington. the 22d inst., are taking no part in the great struggle for the preservation of this glorious Union? What, in the name of Heaven, are you made of? Certainly not of the genuine American clay, or you would not be wasting your time at balls-making your greenbacks gratify your taste for the A No. 1 strychnine, necessary to keep you in order for "promenade all." No! there is some-thing wrong in the fundamental structure of such young men. If you were of the genuengravings and fashions are good, and the stories interesting. Price, $2. We require the name of your country, or for the wounded and of the writer with all communications, not sick soldiers. There is no excuse. There is no man but what can do something for his country in this her hour of tribulation. The field of operation is a large one. Do not sit idly by and let the moments pass that may deck your brow with laurels that posterity will honor. Then, when this war is over and you attend a ball on the 22d of February, you will be pointed out as a hero, and every ating sport of the "light fantastic toe."

And, young ladies, there is something for on to do, for, at these balls like all other

"There were ladies in satin and ladies in silk; Garments the color of blood, or of milk : Ladies in pink and ladies in green. Ladies in blue and tadies in sheen; Ladies in velvet and ladies in lace, and, in short, ladies that could do a great deal for our soldiers if they would take the one-hundredth part of trouble and fixing up to go to a ball and bestow it on our sick and wounded soldiers. Some month or two ago, this correspondence called the attention of the bulies of our town and vicinity to the fact of the suffering condition of our pris-oners at Richmond, and for them to lend a hand in bettering these poor and noble soldiers' destitution. Little did I think the spark of that ennobling love, that alone can They have reenlisted, and are now enjoying the moment, and my appeal in vain. Yet A ball! But, like the men, their love for their country is a secondary matter. The ladies of our town have already done a great deal for our soldiers, but there remains more to do. Our soldiers have fought buttle afsistance-to do for them what you can, and not flirt away your time at balls in this hour going institution myself; but at the proper time I have no objection to balls, and like to house and all his grain and pork and beef see those who are foud of such sport enjoy themselves. But there is a time for all THE LARRIMER MONEMENT. - By the pro- ! things; and, among the rest, there is a time for balls. That time is not here now. Let us all, each and every one-man, woman and child -do what we can to put an end to the war, preserve the Union, our country who choose may go to the balls and dance till the "crack of doom." The excitement, among the chaps liable to draft run high during the remainder of the week; and the 'brokers' from Tyrone. Altoona, Hollidaysburg, and many other towns in the 17th Congressional District made quite a raid on our rising generation; and on some of full growth. The inducements held out led the boys captive, and the "biggest local" got the boy or man. Some ten or fifteen left our town and were credit ed, for the most part, to Altoona-the local bounty being $220. Of the married men there was Theodore Stevenson, Wm. Ward, Mark Batman, H. B. Wilcox., Ellis Howe. Benj. Crain and Wm. Clark; and of the single men, all of which were between the ages of 18 and 20, was T. J. Myers, George D. Runk, Wm. Glasby, Edwin Runk, and Andrew Jackson. It will make somebody, (about every other "liable,") get up on commutation. Some of our citizens held a meeting, a few nights ago, to get out of the "draft" by raising a "local." They concluded to have the draft put off, and adjourned

From Rev. J. Newton Brown. D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impres-sion that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bettles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bod-ily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six conths before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. Philad'a., June, 23, 1861. J. NEWYON BROWN

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the nam of Bitters put up in quart bottles, compoun-ded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused and will continne to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influ-ence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Gets:
One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey. and the result will be a proparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the markot, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you. ATTENTION, SOLDIERS !

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HoofLand's eases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large propor-tion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters: PAILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862. Messes Jones & Eccus.—Well, gentlemen your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the im-mediate command of Capt. H. B. Ayres. Through the expo sure attendant upon my duties. I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer ! State of Maine, 'from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital. Mr. Frederick Steinborn, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles. I have gained ten and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken place of vague fears -to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above state-ment as we had despaired of sceing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
