On Monday night, however, the atmostphere was quite cold and a little snow fell, which caused the 'water to fall in the streams, and on Tuesday comparatively few rafts were running. If we are correctly informed, much of the timber that was made still remains in the woods, on account of the insufficiency of snow to admit of its easy conveyance to the streams. Good prices may, the 26th of February. however, yet cause a great deal of it to be hauled hence on wheels.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

Letter from Philipsburg, Pa. PHILIPSBURG, Ba., Mar. 14th, 1864. DEAR JOURNAL:—Having been the lucky fellow to draw a ten days furlough, I, last week, took a respite from that "powerful" instrument, and visited the fair Luna, who informed me that Deidrick Exline and Young Nester had drawn on her so heavily, that I was compelled to return to the footstool minus any of the lunatic nepenthe-indeed, the fair Goddess assured me that Young Nester had imbibed so freely at the close of the last quarter, that she feared he would resolve himself into a first class hunatic, and abandon himself entirely to the Copperheads, or retire to Canada Vallandigham. If any one doubts the statement of Luna, let them read that letter in the "Republican" of the 2d instant, and they will be convinced of the truth of the assertion. The great champion had retired from the field, and in doing so, true to the instincts of his patron saint Jeff Davis, he cried, "let me alone," him out again on a double quick. And oh, what contortions of countenance. A little Jamaica ginger, used as eye-wash, could she might inherit a half million of dollars not make him squirm worse. What a bold left by the decease of her three bachelor sons. stroke of strategy his virus runs out to when he says "You're a mighty man, (a) very high compliment if it does come from a snaik) Anderson Jo-if you are a cripdo you mean, Nester, to Insinuate that I, Leroi, am a cripple? Why my dear snaik I am so swift of limb, and light of foot, that now hold the champion belt of the world for making the best time recorded on the anhals of the turf. Young Nester is a hero

"A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind !" t hope he will continue to let his virus flow. The period of the year, when excitement runs high, is now here. It has been raining for the last week, every day, more or less, and the prospects of a flood are good. The "drive" is about starting—the landings are all "broke in"—men are running to and fro with handspikes on their shoulders, and the 'corks' are projecting to a fearful length from the heels of their boots-(suggestive of somebodys bar room being indented to a demonstration of the fact of "log drivers' having enjoyed the landlord's hospitality. every man that is in any way engaged in the lumber business wears a smile on his countenance; and in some cases swallows them at ten cents a smile, smacks his lips and asks how the baby is, specially on Sunday, when only the knowing ones, like Pirain is and Thisbe, can see the chink in the wall. "Oh, I could roar you as gentle as a sucking dove." To see lumbermen with such beaming faces is a sure indication that ain't going to war. the "greenbacks" or "De Sota discovering the Mississippi" is expanding their gum lands. Particularly those "iron greys" who are fast verging on three score and ten. and are yet plodding on the way of single hisery. How closely they eye the damsels of our metropolis, and who can tell with the utmost precision every marriage that has come off within the bounds of their bailiwick, for the last third of a century. It is astonishing how rapidly this "neck of woods" s developing itself. Only a few years ago, sold in the boom at Lock Haven or Williamsport, at $3 50 to 4 00 per M feet, and now they sell at $8 to $10. Only a few years ago lumbermen paid $1 25 per M feet or driving, now they "drive" for 25 cents per M feet. Wages were lower then than now, and all other things in comparison. Somebody made money then or else loose how. I am inclined to think the former, for the job of driving is eagerly sought for. Shoulder straps and Blue Kersey have bretty much disappeared from our fashioneble promenades. The boys of Co. E., 45th P. V., were the last to leave. There are some of the 110th P. V. still moving around. I hope all of our veterans enjoyed their furlough, and are satisfied that the spirit of loyalty is yet among us, and that the soldier is respected, netwithstanding some brainless men and women assert that they are the scrapings of our town, and that none but the lazy, worthless and drunken have gone to the army. God forbid, that any man, woman or child should make such assertions. Yet, I am sorry to say, there are some in this place and vicinity, who attered such words. Thank God, they are few, few indeed; but the future will tell them such a tale-such a scorning, rebuking tale, that will follow them from generation to generation down to the latest period of who abuse our soldiers. Are they who have fallen on the battle-field, or died from disease brought on by the exposures incident to a soldier's life, to be thus remembered? Are their wives and children to be pointed out as the survivers of the refuse of the community? No! Their names are proud legacies to those who follow after them. Some may meet the widow and her children with a scornful look—nay with smiles and proffered hand, but ere her footsteps have ceased to sound to their ear they with draw their support. But such are few. LEROI.

¶ About again—that ponderous six-shooter of our Copperhead neighbors-judging from the manner in which they popped at things generally, last week. A MISREPRESENTATION.—The editors of the Copperhead organ, with their usual audacity, last week asserted that the President offered, in his Amnesty Proclamation, "par-"don only to those below the rank of Colonel." Now, the President says no such thing! But he does say, that "the persons excepted from the benefits of the foregoing provisions,22 are, among others, "all who are or shall have been military or naval officers of said so-called Confederate Government above the rank of Colonel in the army, or Lieutenant in the navy." Certainly, there is some difference between the expression 'above the rank of Colonel" and that of "below the rank of Colonel." But, the editors of the Copperhead organ are so habituated to perverting and misrepresenting the language of others, that we are inclined to believe the above to be about as near the ded and infamous people exist, than those to approach.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TERS is one of the greatest strengthening pre-parations extant. It is especially adapted to those who are afflicted with the Fever and Ague, or any other disease arising from a disor, ered condition of the digestive organs. For the Fever and Ague there is perhaps no medicine in the world equal to it. as it enters, purifies and replen-ishes the blood, which is so important to bring about a heavy action in diseases of this nature. The Bitters are now among the most popular, and at the same time, valuable specifies in the medical world. In recommending it to the public, we are fully concious of doing them a great service, knowing, as we do their many excellent qualities, and sure and speedy action in all cases where the disease is caused by irregularity of the digestive organs. A trial will suffice for the most skeptical. See advertisement. For sale by Draggists and dealers generally everywhere.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to Hoof-land's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impres-sion that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemsker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of re-gaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. Philad'a., June, 23, 1861. J. Ngwron Brown PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the nam of Bitters.put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste discussed by Anice of Contract Properties.

guised by Anisc or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influ-ence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor.at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you. ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOPLAND'S erman Bitters" will cure nine tenths of eases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost. We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters: PAILADELPHIA, August 23rd, 1862.

Messrs . Jones & Evans .- Well, gentlemen, your Hooffand's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R B. Ayres. Through the expo sure attendant upon my duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility. heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer 'State of Maine,' from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again. 1 could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital. Mr. Frederick Steinborn, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death recoded, and I am now thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the cer-Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken place of vague fears -to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life. Very truly yours, We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade,
