RAFTING AND THE WEATHER, -In our last issue we noticed the fact that snow had fallen to the depth of about six inches, when we went to press. It did not cease snowing until it had reached nearly a foot in depth-a great portion of which, however, passed off so gradually as to cause but little rise in the streams. But during the field county." will be exposed to Public past two days, the streams have reached a moderate running stage the Borough of Clearfield, on the Secand quite a number of rafts have | one Monday in June, A. D. 1864 : passed this place-some of which, we understand, rubbed on the bars. Some rain has fallen during the last sixteen hours, and this (Wed-299 nesday) morning there is a good flood in the river at this place, with $99 a fair prospect of continuing for 165 40 several days.

HORRIBLE CATASTROHE .--- TO-162 wards the close of last week a raft was discovered on fire while pass- 410 96 John Brady, ing down the river in the vicinity 210 of Northumberland. Some persons from shore reached the raft as soon as possible, when they found three men on board, one of them burned to a crisp, and the others to asensibility. Being thus far gone, 44 they could give no account of themsolves, their names, nor anything 360 concerning the disaster. It is supposed that the straw and other inhummable materials lying loosely about in the cabin took fire while 162 116 they were asleep, or, what is more 215 78 amentable, intoxicated. The two 330 153 living men were not expected to 296 125 Jacob Foutz, Jr. recover, at latest accounts. -- Union 328 153 County Star, March 22, 1864.

Gen. Grant has established his 3565 161 headquarters ten miles nearer the front than Gen. Meade has ever done. That looks like work. Gov. Curtin, in a letter to the subsistence committee of Pittsburg, expresses his sincere thanks for the relief that has been extended to our soldiers on passing through that city. 4286 1000 Gold was selling in Richmond ast week at the rate of thirty paper dollars for one in gold or silver, which is about three thousand per cent. So the rebel Government Ac has little to gain by repudiating, or the people little to lose.
