THE WAR NEWS.

An expidition of Union forces sent against Mount Elba and Longview, Ark., returned to Pine Bluff, on the Arkansas River, on the 31st ult. Mount Elba and Longview are 25 and 50 mile south from Pine Bluff. on the Washita River, in South-Eastern Arkansas. At Longview they destroyed the pontoon bridges, burned a train of 35 wagons loaded with camp and garrison equipments, ammunition, quartermasters' stores, &c., and captured 320 prisoners. On the 30th they engaged Gen. Docking's force of 2,200 men, fron Monticello, routed him, and pursued him ten miles, with a rebel loss of over 100 killed and wounded. Our men captured a large quantity of small arms, two stands of colors, many wagons, and over 300 horses and mules. Our loss will not exceed 15 in killed, wounded and missing. Several hundred contrabands were brought in.

By way of Cairo we have New-Orleans news to the 29th ult. The election for delegates to the Lousiana State Convention resulted in favor of the Free State party by a large majority. The Rebel ram Tennessee was struck by a squall April 1, while lying near Grant's Pass, causing it to keel over and sink. But two feet of her smoke-stack now remains visible. Her armament will prove a heavy loss to the Rebels. It consisted of six 100-pounder rifled Parrotts, and nearly as many small pieces. All is well with our fleet.

It is reported that the Sixth Illinois Cavalry, Col. Marsh, about 600 strong, had a fight near Somerville, Tenn., on the 30th alt., with about 1,500 Rebel cavalry, supposed to be part of Gen. McCullough's command. Our forces, after fighting three or four hours and finding themselves largely Caney and Copperhead candidate. Mayor outnumbered, fell back, leaving seventy or "Straws show which way the winds blow." Scraps of conversation in and about the Commissioner's office, and among its attaches, indicate, pretty plainly, the intention to levy a tax sufficient, not only to pay the interest and a part of the principal of the debt for bounties, the coming year, but to pay a very large part, if not the whole of the principal. Now, we were in favor of the Commissioners offering a bounty, and thus filling up the quota of our county, and we are in favor of laying a moderate tax, to pay the interest and a portion of the principal, each year-thus securing .the gradual and eventual extinguishment of the whole debt. But we are opposed to levying a very heavy tax, expressly for the purpose of enabling certain parties to complain of the Government, and point to the "onerous taxes" as a reason why the people should withhold from it their support. We are opposed to any such scheme to make capital for the Presidential election. Of course the National Government is not responsible for the local tax levied for the purpose of filling the quotas and exempting certain localities from the draft. It is purely the act of the local authorities, and the people themselves. But this fact will be very carefully ignored by the politicians, and the sum-total will be charged upon the National Administration. Hence the desire to swell the amount as large as possible, that they may excite dissatisfaction and murmuring among the people. There is no necessity whatever for a heavy bounty tax. It is only necessary to lay an amount sufficient to insure the final payment of the whole debt. This is all that the bondholders require to make their investment safe and profitable. Any other course will be justly liable to the suspicion that it is for partisan purposes.

Buckingham, the Union candidate, has been elected Governor of Connecticut by 642 majority. The Senate stands 18 U nion to 3 Democrats, and the House 150 Union to 12 Democrats. A glorious victory. At the election, on Monday the 4th, in Leavenworth, Kansas, the Radical Union Mayor was elected by about 600 majority. Mayor Anthony issued a proclamation closing the polls at noon on account of riotous proceedings. The polls were seized by a mob in the interest of McDowel, and the Anthony and many of his friends were eighty killed and wounded in the hands of knocked down and brutally beaten. Armed Wonderfully Exercised.

The editors of the Clearfield Republican seem to be in a very 'bad way' about an item which we published on March 18th, to which they recur a second time, in fish-woman style, and ask for an explanation As their memory appears to be somewhat rusty it may be well enough to refresh it a attend to the calling of sales, throughout the count little by briefly stating what we published on a former occasion. In our issue of August 28, 1861, we printed the following item :

"To CORRESPONDENTS .- The following communications were crowded out this week : The "affidavits of Wm. F. Johnston,' and 'Lines by J.' etc They will, however, appear next week.

On September 4th, 1861, we published Mr. Johnston's "affidavits" as promised, and, to our surprise, the "affidavits" also appeared in the Republican of the same date, and headed "For the Raftsman's Journal." and before they could have been copied from our paper-prefaced by some remarks of doubts as to what we said in our item "to correspondents." We replied to their doubts on September 11th, and in conclusion said :

"One other thing. Wm. F. Johnston addressed his communication to the 'Rafisman's Journal. It was our property. We did not give a copy to any one. Hew, then, does it come that Mr. Johnston's statement is published in the Republican before we printed it ? Have they not made use of that which did not belong to them? Did they obtain the copy fair and honestly? We leave the public to answer these questions for themselves."

In our item of the 16th of March last, we had reference to the above; and, as the editors of the Republican did not at THE TIME explain how they came in possession of a "communication" that was written to us, we fairly inferred that they had obtained it "clandestinely." We hope our neighbors' curiosity is gratified, and suppose they will (not) "lie like a thief," (that's their phrase,) to get out of their unenviable position, at this late day.

THE division among the Democrats by the deflection of the Germans to General Fremont does not promise to be as great as it at one time did. The Cincinnati Volksfreund, which a few weeks since caused such claring for General Fremont, soon after returned to its alliance and supported the regular party nominees at the Charter Election. "It was a duty," it said, "to rally again under the Democratic banner and present a solid front to the enemy." This example and counsel are worthy of imitation by Unionists. While it shows how furtile it is to rely on divisions among their opponents, it points out the only path of safety and duty.
