Baftsman's Journal.

APRIL 13, 1864.

Hon. J. K. Moorehead, will accept our thanks for public documents.

THE ROADS. - The roads, in this region, are unusually bad this spring, in consequence of the snow and rain that fell after the frost was out of the ground.

BROKE LOOSE. -We understand that, on Friday last, some fifteen or eighteen rafts broke loose below Buttermilk Falls, and went adrift. This is quite a heavy loss to the owners.

"SUBPOENA SUR DIVORCE. '-The Commissioners to take testimony in the case of Marks vs. Marks, has extended the time to April 28th. In the case, Elder vs. Elder, the time has been extended to April 29th.

our new advertisements will be found the first quarterly statement of the National Bank of Curwensville. The finances of the institution are in a prospering condition. judging from the statement.

Districts liable to Draft should apply immediately to A. M. Hills to have their quotas filled-or so | 225 near at least as will place them safely beyond the draft, or else they will have their share of the taxes to pay, without receiving any benefit of the County bounty.

SECOND PENN'A. CAVALRY. -In another part of our paper will be found an advertisement for recruits to the 2d Penn'a Cavalry. Sergt. Snyder, son of the late Lient. Thomas G. Snyder, will shortly be in Clearfield to give any information pertaining to enlistments.

THE FLOOD.-The waters were too high for safe running on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, but since then a great many rafts have passed down. The streams are still at a good flood for rafting, and, we presume, that most of the timber will be on its way to market within | 60 a few days.

THE APPORTIONMENT. - According to the bill reported to the Senare, the Clearfield districts for Senator and Representative, are as follows: For Senator, the counties of Clearfield, Cameron, Clarion, Fortest and Elk shall compose the 53d district, and elect one Senator; and for Representative, the counties of Clearfield and Elk are to elect-one member. In what shape the bill will pass remains to be seen.

Notice, -Townships desiring to have their quotas filled, and thus avoid a draft, will please make application to Z. C. McCullough in Clearfield, who has been appointed a regular recruiting officer for Clearfield county. Having the advantage of being paid by the National Government for his services, he is prepared to fill the quotas of townhips at $325 per man. Transportation furnished to recruits, by au-

THE PITTSBURG SAW WORKS. -The card of Messrs. Hubbards & Long. Manufacturers of all kinds of Saws, appears in our columns We would here remark 410 96 John Brady, that the Messrs. Hubbard are both skillful No - England Saw Makers 279 04 E. Blain, of long experience-one of them having been many years a member of the well known New-Fngland firm of "Gage, Hubbard & Co.," now Gage, Porter & Co.;) the other for the past ten years (until within six months) manager of Lipstreett & Co. The facilities of his firm are the most extensive west of the mountains, and we are assured that they warrant every article, bearing their brand, as being 215 73 equal to any manufactured in the | 330 153 Martin Foutz, mion. They desire and earnestly 296 125 solicit a share of the business of 328 153 George Musser, the Susquehanna valley, and are determined to merit the same if 426 price and quality can effect the ob-Give them a trial.

MARRIED. On the 7th inst., by the Rev. J. H Bratton, at the residence of the | 300 ride's father, in Brady township, Mr. Joseph Snyder, of Lycoming county, to Miss CATHARINE R. GOODLANDER.

DIED. OaThursday, March 31st, at the residence of his mother, one mile from Milesburg, Centre county, Pa. of consumption, B. K. SHOPE, of this borough, aged about 33 cars. The deceased was on a visto his mother, whither he had 3565 161 118 John Ficholson, one some two months previous to isdeath. Soon after reaching the garental roof, his health failed rapity, but he declined sending for his family until a few days before he died, when his brother came for them; but he had breathed his last ere they reached their destina- | 5766 1000 tion. He was a consistent member of the Lutheran church, a good neighbor, affectionate husband and kind father. He left a wife and two small children to mourn his death. Peace to his remains. A Wm. Howard Mitchell shot a oung courtezan named Maggie at the Continental Theatre 208 in Philadelphia, on the 2d April. She died almost instantly. Cause, lealousy. The murderer was ar-

Counterfeit $10 greenbacks.printed from genuine plates, but without stamps, are said to be in circulation in New York.

Late advices from Mattoon, Ill- 404 inois, state that the Copperhead 404 rioters have dispersed and that not a man can be found that will acknowledge himself one. So it will soon'be everywhere.

The Freemasons' Hall and the Winthrop Hotel, in Boston, were | 266 destroyed by fire on Wednesday the 6th. Loss on the Hall about $100,000, and on the hotel about $50,000. The masons lost many valuable relics.
