NEW GOODS.-J. P. Kratzer is just receiving a full supply of Spring Goods, to which we direct the attention of the public. His advertisement will appear next week.

AT HOME .- We learn that Sergt. Joseph H Barger, of the gallant s4th, has arrived home on furlough, having re-enlisted as a veteran volunteer. We wish him success in his future military career.

SEVERELY HURT -- We incidentally learn that a young man from Indiana county had one of his legs severely bruised, one day last week, while engaged in "snubbing" raft a short distance below this We did not learn his name. place.

Lewisburg, on Wednesday of last week. The one was a fine looking young man, a student of the Lew--burg college, who sunk immediately to rise no more. He was a stranger to those on the raft. The other was Reuben McGinty, a colonce after being thrown in. but sunk again before he could be rescued. The bodies were recovered 225 two days after the occurrence.

WHAT SHALL CLEARFIELD GIVE? The citizens of every county and $40 arge town in the Commonwealth are actively engaged in preparation for the great Fair to be held in Philadelphia for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission. What shall we give in Clearfield? We would 100 suggest, to our people that we 100 raise a subscription and purchase the two best rafts on the river, and -end them round to Philadelphia as the offering of Clearfield coun-They would realize a handsome sam, when sold under the aupices of the management of the Fair, and the offering would be not only appropriate, but a credit to our conniv. Who will take the inilintise ?

PROMOTED. - We learn that Capt. J. M. Smith, of company C 54th Penn'a Reserves, has been cominissioned a Major, and Lieut. D. deGaughey has been premoted to-Captain of company C vice Capt. smith. Our friends Smith and Mctanchey have been in active ervice almost three years, and participated in nearly every battle in which the army of the Potomac has been engaged. Gallant, brave, and faithful to the cause of their ountry, they richly merit the aditional honors that have fust been conferred apon them. The loyal people of Pennsylvania, and of the whole country, love to hear of meritorious promotions, and we thank Gov. Curtin, on behalf of the many friends of the subjects of our notice, for this manifestation of his desire to promote the best interests of the noble cause in which our -oldiers are engaged-the restoration of the authority of the Constitution over the rebellious States, and of the perpetuation of the Union and of our free institutions. DIED. On Tuesday morning, April 19th. at the residence of R. Mossop. in this place, of pneumonia, CHARLES G. REED, son of John and Diann Reed of Brady town- 279 04 E. 6 95 TERS is one of the greatest strengthening preparations extant. It is especially adapted to those who are afflicted with the Fever and Ague, or any other disease arising from a disordered condition of the digestive organs. For the Fever and Ague there is perhaps no medicine in the world equal to it, as it enters purifies and replen-ishes the blood, which is so important to bring about a heavy action in discases of this nature The Bitters are now among the most popular, and at the same time, valuable specifics in the medical world. In recommending it to the public, we are fully concious of doing them a great service, knowing, as we do their many excellent qualities. and sure and speedy action in all cases where the disease is caused by irregularity of the digestive organs. A trial will suffice for the most skeptical.
