The Committee appointed by Congress, last month, to investirate certain alleged malpractices in the New York Custom House, have closed up their business and returned to Washington. Many witnesses were examined, and much estimony, some of it said to be of a startling nature, was elicited, especially in regard to the operations of the blockade runners. In due time the Committee will report, and meanwhile not a few individuals, who have been in the habit of making proclamation of their loyalty on all possible public occasions, would do well to stand from under 5619 119 they do not wish to be hurt.

The Washington correspondent of the Warren Mail—Mr. Cownn says that at the late great meeting the Christian Commission in that city, one speaker from Libby prison, Richmond, enjoined it upon President Lincoln, who was in attendance, as the anxious wish of our brave boys confined in rebel hould be as firm as steel, not yielding an inch to the rebellion until its cause should be crushed forever, even though they perished. The writer adds:

The great audience were in 440 tears and the strong, care-worn, pale faced President of the nation who sat in front, bowed his head and wept like a woman. There isn't a man in all this great hearted nation who feels the soldier's hard ate with a keener and more enduing pain than President Lincoln."

condition of the digestive organs. For the Fever and Ague there is perhaps no medicine in the world equal to it, as it enters, purifies and replen-ishes the blood, which is so important to bring cal world. In recommending it to the public, we are fully concious of doing them a great service, knowing, as we do their many excellent qualities, and sure and speedy action in all cases where the disease is caused by irregularity of the digestive organs. A trial will suffice for the most skeptical.
