VENDUE.—Read the vendue notice that appears among our new advertisements to-day. Great bargains to be had.

NEW GOODS.—Boynton & Showers have jnst received a large stock of new and seasonable goods. Now is the time to buy.

RAFTING.—The rains during the past week have raised the streams to a good rafting stage, and quite a large number of rafts have passed this place, on their way to market.

WANTED—a boy, 16 or 17 years of age, to learn the printing business. One who can read and spell well, and of industrious and steady habits, can obtain a situation by applying soon, at the Journal office.

We learn that Rev. Gardner, A. C. Finney, H. B. Swoope, and John McGaughey, have gone east to aid in taking care of our wounded and sick soldiers. They merit the thanks of the community for any assistance they may render to our brave and disabled "boys."

THE WAR NEWS.—We devote a great portion of our space, this week, to a detailed and connected account of the great battle which has been fought between General Grant's army and the Rebel army under Lee. An account of the fighting up to Tuesday will be found on the first page.

MAN DROWNED.—We have been informed that a young man about 21 years of age, and whose name is supposed to be Jacob Weaver and a resident of Brady township, was accidentally drowned, on Sunday, May 15th, in attempting to jump on a raft at Big Tinker rock, below Karthaus. The pilot, Mr. Andrew Davis, who was running the raft, on seeing the young man fall into the water, called to a little boy and girl named Sankey, who were a short distance off, to hasten to his relief. On reaching the water's edge they caught the still floating man with a pike-pole and drew him ashore—by which time the children's mother also arrived and assisted them in taking the body up on the river bank. Although the man had not sunk, yet life had fled before he was got ashore. The little boy and girl merit much praise for the promptness with which they proceeded to the relief of the drowning man; indeed, they acted so heroically, that the men who were on the raft, on returning to the place, rewarded them quite liberally for their efforts to save a fellow man from a watery grave.

A Word about the Battle.

It should be borne in mind by the people that Gen. Grant's victory over the rebels has not been gained without the loss of a large number of brave men. The rebel leaders realizing the waning of their nefarious cause have hazarded much on the result of this battle. The heavy losses sustained by our noble army attest the fierceness with which the rebels entered the fight—well knowing that a victory in favor of the Union army would be the death-knell to their pseudo Confederacy. Yet, it must not be taken for granted that this will be the end of the contest. Nay, we believe, that other and desperate battles will yet have to be fought; but the ultimate triumph of our arms, and the re-establishing of the authority of the Federal Constitution over the rebellious States will be the final result. To this end, let the friends of the Constitution and the Union stand firm. Let them uphold and strengthen the hands of the National Government and encourage our brave men in the field, and victory will crown their efforts. Then the Constitution will be maintained, the Union saved, and the cause of Freedom more firmly established in the United States, and strengthened throughout all lands.

U. S. Sanitary Commission.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, May 19, 1864.—The United States Sanitary Commission sent this morning to Aquia Creek, a steamboat which had been previously chartered and loaded with seventy or eighty tuns of hospital stores; also a barge loaded with wagons and horses for transporting these supplies to Fredericksburg or elsewhere. With the steamboat and barge went sixty relief agents and nurses, all carefully trained for the work. By "feeding stations" at various points the Commission hope to meet the most urgent need.

NEW INVASION OF MISSOURI APPREHENDED.—Advices from Lexington, Missouri, and Kansas City, state that a very general alarm exists in that region, caused by reports of Quantrell's entrance into the State, at the head of several hundred men. A large number of straggling rebels have lately been picked up in Jackson and Cass counties, who represent that the rebels are coming in large force. The First Colorado cavalry left Kansas City recently on a scout, with orders to catch Quantrell if possible.

Silver has been discovered in Michigan, near Lake Superior. One tract which was bought of Government a few weeks since for two hundred dollars, has recently been sold for six thousand.

The world contains one thousand millions of inhabitants, who speak three thousand and sixty-four different languages, and are of one thousand different forms of religion.

DIED.

With blessings on thy head.
Shall love with weak embrace,
Thy Heavenward wing detain?
No!—angels, seek thy place
Amid Heaven's cherub train."
