HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, A pure and powerful Tonic, Corrective and Alterative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Cures, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all Complaints of either Sex, arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral or metallic matter, and is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

Persons afflicted with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack escape the scourge, and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its remedial powers in the early stages are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons afflicted with Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony Bilious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint can be prevented.

As a general Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produces effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Deceptitude arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of disease it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-energize and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

The immense increase in the sale of Hostetter's Bitters, both home and abroad, during the past year proves that the world, while it obeys the Scriptural injunction to "try all things," only "holds fast to that which is good." Spurious preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up, but their character is soon discovered, and they are "drag like worthless weeds away." On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it, on its introduction, is "put for a day, but all the time."

No family medicine has been so universally, and it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as Hostetter's Bitters.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere. Nov. 10, 1863, 1 yr.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess the records of the Insane asylum. And melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The Constitution once effected with Organic Weakness requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Hembold's Extract Bitchu invariably does. DOCTOR HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON, Philad'a, Pa.

Will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Finesse or Blood in the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Finesse or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Flattering at the End of the Stomach, Swelling of the Feet, Harried and Difficult Breathing, Fluctuating at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever, Constant Pain in the Head, Dimness of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Dizziness, Headache, and great Depression of Spirits.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D. Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge. Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

Do this, therefore, readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, as published by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shaw, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility.

The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the summer, has followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility.

Philad'a, June 23, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters put up in quart bottles, containing of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander seed, and will continue to cause, as long as they remain in the system, the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire, and will have a Liquid Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get one Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Two Ounces of Good Whisky, or Brandy, and the result will be a preparation that will far exceed in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquid Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of the Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor at a much less price than the inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS! AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations, incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call the attention of our countrymen to a remarkable and well-authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PARALYSIS, August 25th, 1862. Major, Joseph S. Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's Bitters has saved my life, and I have no more to say in this. It is vouchered for by the number of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and was, a member of the 10th New York Battery, of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Capt. R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my duties, I was attacked in November last, with inflammation of the lungs, and other serious disorders, and was removed from the White House, and sent to the city of New York, where I remained, until I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and my strength was fast passing away. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances. And, accordingly, the physicians who had been consulted, and several times, fully, to resume me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make a deposit of my limited funds as best suited me. A surgeon, however, visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinberg, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the recovery began, and I have since, I thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my comrades in the field, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months. Forgive me, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken place of vague fears. My friends will all owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dear to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above statements we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
