Zaftsman's Journal.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 1, 1864.

Clearfield County's Quota. We learn from a source that should be well informed on the subject, that the quotas of the following townships, on the 700,-000 draft, are full to wit: Clearfield, Curwensville, New Washington, Lumber-City, Brady, Bell, Bradford, Boggs, Huston, Knox, Woodward, Ferguson, Karthaus, Decatur, Morris, Jordan, Graham, Fox, Lawrence, Goshen, Guelich, and Bloom—providing, that all the credits claimed by Provost Marshall Campbell will be allowed.

Covington, Girard and Burnside are filled in part, and will doubtless be full this week. Beccarin, Chest, and Union in part, that no effort is making to fill-Pike in part, and

THE BOOK OF HONOR. - Under the charge of the ladies' committee for the newspaper to be published during the great Ce tral Fair. - Any person paying one dollar may inscribe in this volume the name of a soldier who has served in the War, or of any one who has been active in aiding the great cause of the Union. After the Fair, the Book of Honor will be deposited in the Philadelphia Library. Those living out of the City may remit names, (which may be accompanied with a brief account of services performed,) with the price of the insertion, to Mrs. Robert M. Hooper, Chairman of the Ladies' Committe for the News-paper, No. 1325 Walnut street.

The Bogus Proclamation.

We neglected to notice the fact, last week, that a bogus proclamation, purporting to be issued by the President for a draft of 400, 000 men had been published in various papers throughout the country, and that the New York World and Journal of Commerce printing offices had been closed for giving publicity to the forgery. Some of Copperheads, headed by that "dear friend" of the New York mob and constant sympathiser with Sourthern treason, are endeavoring to make political capital, for the approching Presidential election out of this seizure of these New York semi-secession papers. But the attempt will prove a failure, as the prevailing feeling among the loyal masses is that the Government has heretofore been too lenient, rather than too severe, in its dealings with notoriously disloyal papers like those mentioned.

The President-The People.

The Erie Gazette, in speaking of the increasing popularity of the President says Certain Copperhead prints, annoyed and irritated by the extraordinary manifestations of confidence in Mr. Lincoln's integrity and general character, have commenced interlarding editorials upon the subject with the epithet "Dishonest Old Abe." But this attempt to depreciate the President has been ferent branches of the Christian Church. At every General Convention of the several religious denominations held since the commencement of the war, resolutions have been unanimously adopted expressing trust in the President, eulogizing his acts and course, and commending him to the support and prayers of members of all the Churches, how feeble is the petty, miserable, carping whose loyalty is more than, suspected and whose every day acts evince no particular regard for the teachings of Christianity."

The Wounded Soldiers.

The Albany Evening Journal says: "Dr. A. O. Vanderpool returned home Saturday evening from Fredericksburg, where he has been employed as a volunteer surgeon during the past twelve days. He gives the most encouraging accounts of the condition of our wounded and the provision made for their comfort. The government has spared no pains in ministering to their sufferings. ndeed, in no previous instance after a great battle have they been so well taken care of.
Dr. Vanderpool also speaks in high terms of the efforts of the Sanitary Commission. When its agents and employees first arrived at Fredericksburg no arrangements had been made for receiving our wounded, because the authorities at Washington supposed they would be brought directly there. They namediately set to work buying horses, extemporizing ambulances and preparing hospitals. Such progress did they make, that in a few hours even the ambulances were on the way to the field of battle, and load after load of mutilated heroes began to come in. The Commission also established a coffee depot at Belle Plain, and another on the road between there and Fredericksburg. where the poor fellows could be refreshed on their way to the hospitals. The Christian Commission were also doing a noble work, in the way of furnishing nurses, &c., Dr. Vanderpool tells us that our wounded soldiers expressed unbounded confi-dence in Grant. The whole number of our wounded up to Wednesday night last will not, he tells us, exceed nineteen thousand. The killed, stragglers, &c., &c., will, of course swell this several thousand more.'

The Whole Question Stated. EDWARD EVERETT, in a letter on Dress Reform, thus succinctly states the whole question involved in recent discussions of the proposition to confine the purchase of articles of ladies' dress to goods of domestic manufacture: "I ought to add that a reform is needed on the part of both sexes, and in many things besides foreign luxuries. Extravagance in the general style of living, in building, furniture, equipage, entertainment, amusements, hotels, watering placesextravagance often as tasteless as it is otherwise reprehensible—is growing upon us, and consuming, worse than unproductively, the substance of the country. The waste at a fashionable private entertainment would apport three or four men in the ranks of he army for a twelve-month, and provide for the relief and comfort of a hundred Wounded soldiers in a hospital."

THE BRAVE BOYS -The Chicago Journal learns from a gentleman just arrived from Washington, that the boats going down the Potomac with the reinforcements for General Grant's army cheer every boat that has wounded, and that the wounded, on the decks of the boats, lying on their backs, and turning on their elbows, when able, return the cheers, waving their hands as far their strength will permit. All the wounded, our informant says, only pray that they may be able to return to renew the battle.

Should the Soldiers have a Right to Vote. Our own as well as the countries of the world, stand in awe and in admiration of the wonderful deeds and brilliant valor of the freemen who are now contending for the life of the Great Republic. Never before have the people of any land made such voluntary sacrifices for the preservation of their nationality. And yet let it be remembered, that the heroes who thus peril life and limb, who endure the fatigues of the march and the dangers of the fight, are the men whom the Democratic leaders insist should not be recognized as citizens nor endowed with any the franchises of Government. While Battle Incident.

In the fight between Butler and Beauregard on Friday last, the brigade of Colonel Howard were the heroes of the day, and duly received the thanks of Gen. Gilmore for their gallantry and bravery. The following anecdote of the brave old Colonel is worth George Fair, W. Husley, J. J. recording

A few days ago our men were much annoyed by a rebel sharpshooter concealed in the brushwood. After he had wounded several of our men, various attempts were made of the brushwood. On the 13th, a combined attack of the land and navy 900 forces was made on Fort Sumter. | 860 The guns on Forts Putnam, Chat- | 300 field, and other battery, open- 483 ed a terrific fire, which was maintained for some hours; 240 shells were thrown. Two monitors went up to within 50 yards of 5618 116 Sumter, and delivered at the Fort a tremendous fire from 15-inch guns. On the 14th the attack was renewed; 308 shells were fired from the land batteries at Cumfinings Point. The monitors also went up again to the same position they occupied the day previous. Every discharge from the monitors made a bole in Sumpter the size of a turret. The firing was contin- 5619 119 ued on the 15th and 16th. After the first day's attack, the Rebels directed their fire principally to the batteries on Cummings Point. We have sustained no damage whatever from their fire.

On the night of the 25th of May the Tioga Co. Bank of Penna, was robbed of $20,622 83 in United States bonds, greenbacks and retired currency of the bank. Payment of the bonds is stopped. Five thousand dollars of the amount 208 was in 5-20 bonds and over three thousand in gold. A reward of 413 three thousand dollars is offered 440 for the recovery of the property, and two thousand dollars for the detection of the burglars.
