CLEARFFELD, PA., JULY 13, 1864.

Read the letter of our correspondent W.R. B. which we publish on the first page of today's paper.

An important omission having occurred in the special election proclamation, heretofore, we make the correction this week.

THANKS.—Our thanks are due to Hon. G. W. Scofield for continued public favors. Also, to Hon, J. K. Moorhead, Hon, J. M. Broomall, and Hon. P. Johnson, for similar

Co. K SITH.—Below we give z full list of the killed and wounded in Company K. 84th Penn'a Volunteers, from May 4th to June 22. Killed, J. Gelnett, Alex. Read. WOUNDED, Capt. A. H. Nixon, Sergt. J. Mains, Sergt. J. H. Barger, Privates, James Hepburn, R. L. Lydic, Levi Derrick, Robert Dane, M. Reape, S. Snodey, J. Shankle, J. H. Lubold, S. Hare.

GRASS.—The hay crop will not be large in this county, this year, owing to the early and continue I drought. We learn that many of the old mendows will not much more than pay for the cutting and making but on new meadow ground the yield will be pretty good. Farmers should carfully save everything of the feed kind; as it may all be wanted before another crop can be harvested.

Tickets for the Amendments.

We have printed a lot of tickets "For the Amendments' to the Constitution, which are to be voted on at the election on Tuesday August 2d, 1864. We will send them out as opportunity offers, and hope that the friends of the good cause will see they are properly distributed and voted. Should any of our friends be in town within a week we request them to call and get the tickets for their respective districts.

RAIN-CROPS.-We had a very fine rain on Sunday evening, July 10th. A severe drought has prevailed in this country for some weeks, but the recent rain has had the effect to revive the drooping vegetation somewhat, and it is to be hoped that we may yet have good crops of potatoes, corn and buckwheat. The wheat and rye are too iar advanced to be benefited by rain at this time. The yield of these grains will be short, to the acre; but of good quality; so we have been informed.

DRAFT IN BRADY TOWNSHIP. - Below we give the names of the persons drafted in Brady township, (under the 700,000 call,) which took place last week:

Jeremiah Kriner. John P. Be George Kriner; John Heighes, John Mulhollen, John Kuntz. George Aurand, Abraham Fey,

R. H. Kirk,

B. C. Rishel. John Lankherd. David Beams. George Nolder. Jacob Schock, Wendell Rissinger, Aoseph Pentz.

ONE HUNDRED DAYS' MEN. -Governor Curtin has issued two Proclamations, for 12,000 uten each, for the one hundred days' service. The first $2,000 called for are intended for garrison duty in and around Washington city, as per the Presidents procamation; and the second 12,000 to serve in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Washington thus ended the fourth of July with us. and its vicinity, as circumstances may require. Pennsylvania's sons have on every occasion heretofore heartily responded to our patriotic Governor's calls, and little doubt exists that the whole number now asked for will at order be raised by the patriotic people of the State.

Another Draft.-Rumors are current that annother draft for 300,000 men will be ordered at an early day: In view of this fact we whould suggest to the citizens of Clearfield Borough, a dof the county, the propriety of giving this neatter their immediate attention, and make grrangements to fill up our quota at an early day. We would be dereliet in duty did we not call the attention of our patrons, and of the public at large, to this subject. 8d far as the Borough of Clearfield is corteerfed, there will be no great difficulty in filling up its quota. If we are correctly informed, it has a surplus credit of some 13 to 17 men on the last draft, which will be a creffit on the present onehence its deficiency cannot be more than from 4 to 7, which number, we presume, would not be very difficult to obtain. No doubt substitutes can be had at much lower rates now, than at any future day. What then is the duty and the interest of dur citizens? It is to get substitutes now! Then don't wait until the draft is upon us bilt go to work at once. Dality will only make it the more difficult to fill up our quota, for when the draft comes off there will be a demand for substitutes all over the country. A word to the wise is sufficient:

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting held by the officers of the 5th Regiment Iowa Vol. Infantry, of which Lieut. Col. Wm. B. Keeler was chairman, and Chaplain F. M. Evans Secretary, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted, viz: WHEREAS, It has been the lot of our brave fellow-soldiers and beloved companions in arms, Capt. HENRY BLANCK and Lieut, W. M. DUGAN, to fall by the cruel and relentless hand of war iif defence of the rights and honor of their country;

Resolved, That we, the officers of the 35th Regiment Iowa Vol. Infantry, esteemed them as brave and tried soldiers; active, vigilent and intelligent officers; zealous friends, and true patriots; amiable, kind and affectionate companions. Resolved, Therefore, that we deplore their death as not only a grievous affliction to their families and friends at home, but also to the regiment, and an inestimable loss to the country which they so dearly loved, and for which they so fearlessly sacrificed their lives. Resolved, that we tender to the families of the deceased our deep and hear-felt Sympathy for the affliction which they have sustained, and that we mourn with them as companions in their grief. Signed by 19 officers of the Regiment.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

Letter from Philipsburg, Pa.

Philipsburg, Pa., July 11th, 1864. DEAR JOURNAL :- According to the promse made in my letter of last week, I report the way we celebrated the birth-day of American Independence. The celebration was exclusively by the two Sunday Schools Sunday School, meets in the Union church in the forenoon, and, with but few if any exceptions, the same scholars composing it, meet at the Methodist church, in the afternoon, and is called the Methodist Sunday School. Each School has a library, and towards one another, but all passes off in union and harmony, and with such union and harmony we celebrated the fourth of day of July (instant), at 101 o'clock, A. M., July, 1864. The scholars met at the Methodist church at 9 o'clock, a. m., formed into a procession, and, preceded by a large National flag and martial music, marched down South Front Street to Presqueisle, crossed Presqueisle, and down North Front to Pine. up North Front to Presqueisle, up Presqueisle to Centre and out Centre to the ground, which was a beautiful grove on the North East side of the Tyrone "Pike." There scholars in the procession and of all ages and sizes, from the infant "Mewling puking in its mother's arms"

up to the lass and lad

Sighiry like furnace, with woful ballad Made to his mistress' evebrow.'

The teacher of each class carried a small National flag, which made the appearance of the procession, as it passed flong, of an army going to battle. It brought to my mind, very foreibly, the days of the crusaders. The history of the youthful warriors, came vividly to my recollection, and I wondered to myself, as the procession passed before me, whether we would ever have such an army of youths in this glorious land. I would venture to say, that if ever such a thought or attempt is made to organize the crusaders of the United States, they will leave far in the shade, the ancient crusaders. The large and beautiful flag at the head of the procession, seemed to flaunt the air of the bright and magnificent morning, with all the splendor of its former glory; the golden stars, on its azure field, glistened in the rays of the God of day; and the broad, bright stripes of red, and white floated serenely, purely, and friumphantly in the pure untainted breeze. The fife and drum pealed forth the notes of martial music that made the hearts beat high and warm, and all were gay and hap; y. ''

On arriving at the ground we found a table two hundred feet long, groaning under the weight of all the good things that could possibly be baked, cooked, roasted, fried and stewed for the sustaining of the inner marrand child. C. R. Foster, M. D. read the Declaration of Independence in a very clear and audible tone. Rev. W. O. Wright then delivered an able and eloquent address, after which the whole assembly partook of the Eakens. Thadeus sumptuous dinner! The dinner was a free Ellis. Wm. 'pitch in' -everybody and his wife and' Fegan, Wm S. children invited to partake of the stacks of Flake, James 'eatings' piled up mountains high. After Harshbarger J. M.Rev. Watts, David dinner the scholars were dismissed to enjoy themselves as they wished, and the older portion of the "fourth" enjoyed themselves as best they could. The assembly was called together at three o'clock, p. m. and the Rev. Switzer addressed the scholars, and the crowd generally, in a very neat, interesting and spicy speech. The procession then formed, and marched back to the Methodist church, over the same rout they did in the morning, except down and up North front street. They were then dismissed, and

The utmost good feeling prevailed and nothing occurred to mar the joy and happiness that seemed to be depicted upon everybody's countenance: Would to Heaven it were so throughout the length and breadth of our land. But to many the memory of this day-the widowed wives and fatherless children of those who fell at Gettysburg will again cause the tears to flow, and sorrows to open to their view. How many, who this fourth of July one year ago, were in the full bloom of youth, are now marked by the paliid creek, and the robes of mourning. But it is no reproach to those who now lament the death of the loved one: No, they mourn for him who yielded up his life in a good and glorious cause, and the day is not far distant, when they will deem it an honor, and receive the homage and respect of all true and loyal citizens, as they do now, of this restored great and mighty nation. True the ship of State is in a mighty storm. Her live-oak timbers are being tried to their utmost, but she will ride the storm in safety, sail into port under a spanking breeze, with every inch of canvass to the oure air of liberty, and the stars and stripes floating fore and aft, and from the mizzen

I learn that Samuel Creamer, Co. "E," received in one of the late battles in Virginia, at one of the hospitals in Washington. His wife was just starting to see him, when she received the sad news of his death. He was a noble and brave soldier. I have heard his comrades say, that he was always ready, feared no duty or position that was assigned him. Sergt, G. W. Daicy is getting along finely, and expects to be able to come home in a few days.

By some mistake your "typo" neglected to mention the mother of William Myers, ir., noticed in mine of last week. The sentence should read "Father and mother," &c. I mention this in justice to Mrs. Myers, for the sentence, as it appeared, excluded her, and it might be construed as derogatory to her, which would be very unjust. Yours, LEROI.

A young lady who has the misfortune to know little of music, and yet who is vain of her singing, was recently entertaining a party of friends with a somewhat difficult song, in a shrill voice, when an old bachelor, lodging in the same house, rushed out of his room to the head of the stairs, and shouted. What are you hurting that pig for? Turn him into the yard." "What pig?" asked the lady, so astonished that she stoped singing. The old bachelor descended the stairs, looked into the room, and said :- "I thought I heard a pig squealing in this room."

young lady thought him a wretch, and said so. Ex-Governor A. Reeder, died one day

THOMAS JOHNSON died June 29th, 1864, near Glen Hope, in Beccaria tp., Clearfield Co., Pa. He was born in Huntingdon Co., Pa., Nov. 15th, (as nearly as can be known) 1788. When the county was divided his birthplace fell into Blafr Co. On his next birthday, he would have been 76 years old. Though not professedly pious, yet he was a' of our town, and in order to understand the programme, it is necessary to say that though student of the Bible, and he had a great we have two Sunday Schools by name, yet reverence for the Sabbath. He was disposin scholars, but one. The Union or Upper ed to the labors of private life, and was not reverence for the Sabbath. He was disposostentatious in his acts of charity. He was jovial, social and free; while amiable, and pleasant in the social circle, he had the confidence and respect of those who knew him, and was greatly beloved by his children. He had a preference for the M. E. church, conduct their affairs entirely distinct from and was careful in giving good advice to his each other. There is no strife or antipathy children. He leaves a companion and seven children to mourn their loss, emulate his virtues, and think of his kindness. He was the father of nine children, two of whom knew the realities of eternity before the father. On his death bed he said he believed in the Bible, that he prayed, and that all he asked for was to be released from this troublesome world, and be at rest. This he repeated several times. He endured his last illness and severe suffering with much composure and resignation. No murmur escaped him. He knew of his departure. He told his family he would not live to see were about two hundred and twenty-five the wheat harvest out. Amid the full blown flowers of spring, he fell before the reaper, death. Of his faults I do not know, nor do I wish to speak. Let them be buried with him. Only his virtues would I celebrate, and make immortal. Funeral services by the writer. John V. Potts. THE HISTORY OF HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of Liver complaint, Dyspep sia, Nervous debility, and other diseases arising from a disordered stomach or liver, places it at once among the most astonishing discoveries that has taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which bitters are applicable are so universal that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. For sale by druggists and dealers everywhere.

DISSOLUTION OF PARDNORSHIP .-The partnership heretofore existing between Stacy W. Thompson, and Jas. E. Watson, in the Lumbering and Logging business, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued by Jns. E. Watson, who will settle up the firm business. STACYW THOMPSON. Marysville, June 21, JAS. E. WATSON.

U.S. 10-40 BONDS.

These Bonds are issued under the act of Congress of March 8th, 1864, which provides that all Section 4. That the several duties required to bonds issued under this act shall be exempt from taxation by or under any State or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these bonds are receiv ed in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other Bonds semi annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer, Registered Bonds are recorded on the books of the U.S. Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon bonds are payable to bearer, and are a ore convenient for Commercial Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin-jor in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are Exempt from Municipal or State Taxation, their value is increased from one to three per cent, per annum, according to the rate of tax levies is various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay OVER BIGHT PER CENT INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducement to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or seperate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this conrection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 3d day of March, 1854, was $758,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $45,-937.126, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864. has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of all persons, except Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of trust, under the government of the United States or of iff will doubtless raise the appointment of the trust. iff will doubtless raise the annual receipts from customs on the same amount of importations, to $150,000,000 per annua.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 29, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than THN MILLIONS A WEEK.

Subscriptions will be received by the First National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Second National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. Third National Bank of Philadelphia, Pa. AND BY ALL NATIONAL PANKS which are depositaries of Public money, and alt RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country, (acting as agents of the National Depository Banks,) will furnish further information on application and afford every facility to subscribers. May 11, 1864-24moss
