CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 20, 1864.

RETIRED.-Geo. B.Goodlander, Esq, has withdrawn from the Clearfield Republican. Mr. Moore is now sole proprietor and publisher.

SHINGLES BURNT .- We are informed that a Mr. Burket, residing near Frenchville, in this county lost about 2,000,000 of Shingles by fire, on Wednesday July 13th. Loss about $12,000.

REMEMBER, that every true friend of the soldier will cast his vote, on the First Tuesday, August 2d, in favor of the Amendment to the Constitution, giving our soldiers the privilege of voting while in the military service of their country.

We would inform our citizens that Mr. Wm. Lighton of Williamport is on a visit showed his true colors a little too soon for to this place, and engaged in turning and repairing Pianos. Persons wishing his ser- the good of the country, for we want no vices would do well to leave word at once at such men in authority. Freemen ! stand the "Mansion House," or at the Post Of- up for your right ! Do not allow the Govfice.

DICKINSON SEMINARY.-We are indebt-ed to Rev. Wm. Dill, A. M. of Dickinson Male and Female Seminary, at Williams-port, for a copy of the yearly catalogue of the institution. The Seminary is one of the best institutions of learning in the State, and seems to be in a very flourishing condition.

THE WEATHER. - The drought continues in this county, and will materially injure the corn and potato crops, unless we have refreshing rains soon. In the Western States it is also very dry, in many localities, and this fact has been seized upon to enhance the price of flour, but we presume the adance will be only temporary, as, from all accounts, the crops generally are pretty good.

SAD ACCIDENT. - We learn that the house in which Mr. J. Everson resided, in Bradford township, caught fire on Friday, July 15th, and was burnt to the ground. A small child of Mr. E. was burnt to death in the and I am happy to think that success is house-the body, however, was taken from crowning our efforts at home. the building before it was consumed. The fire occurred during a short absence of Mrs. Eyerson, Mr. E. was from home at the time.

THE LADY'S FRIEND .- A beautiful steel engraving, called "Harvest Time," opens the August number of the Ladies Friend. The steel Fashion Plate, a double one, is also as usual, of the first quality. The wood engravings are also excellent, especially "The Bridal Dress" etc. The literary contents are varied and excellent, and not heretofore surpassed. Price $2 a year. Sin-gle copies (post paid) 20 cents. Address, Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia. Pa.

COMMITTED SUICIDE. - We are informed that Samuel Edmiston of Girard township, formerly of Centre county, destroyed his life, by hanging himself in the following snaiks had a glorious time of it for the first manner. He went into the barn, tied a day or two, but there came a calm over the rope round his neck, threw it across a beam spirit of their dreams, and before the week quite as high as his head, passed the end down and put one leg over it, and then again took the rope up over the beam and disunion men in this locality, his doubts held on to the end with his hands. On hastening to the spot we soon ascertained that the dry kiln connected with the mill was on fire inside : and soon our whole population-men, women, and childrenwere at hand to render such assistance as they could. Water lines were formed and soon the buckets passed along quite freely, and the roof being torn off the kiln, the water was poured in at the top, in such quantities as to prevent the flames from spreading rapidly. After some time the ends were torn out of the kiln, and most of the boards drawn out without material damage -only about two thousand feet being burnt. | true to the Constitution, and loyal, law abi-Great praise is due to all for their untiring efforts in arresting the progress of the de-vouring element. The ladies are worthy of especial mention for their timely and efficient services in aiding in furnishing a supply of water. Had the fire not been checked in its progress and confined to the kiln, the planing mill could hardly have been saved, and would have been a serious loss to the owners ; as it is the loss is but small. and will only retard the operations of the a few days ago, I was enjoying a familliar mill for a few days.

We ways been the 'bone of contention?' have not got the city of Petersburg yet, but that is not saying we will not get it. We have drove the enemy inch by inch from the Rapidan and we all have confidence in Grant's ability to enter Richmond before he takes up winter quarters again.

When the news reached us the Union party was triumphant and had nominated Honest old Abe and Andy Johnson, for President and Vice President, it was hailed with joy, for it was a proof that our friends at home were willing and able to stand up for the right. It was more cheering to us than a victory in the field. Little Mac, his own interest, but not any too soon for ernment, under which you have prospered so long to be destroyed and our glorious old Flag torn down and trampled under foot by a gang of traitors and cut-throats. Now is the time, it ever, for this year's work will tell a great tale of the future fate of our country. Do your duty as Americans and we will never be the foot-stool of tyranny. Now is not the time for partizan feelings. Sell not your country for your own interests but throw your influence together and work as brothers for one great and noble cause. Crush out Rebellion and let us once more have peace and prosperity through-out the land that is now racked by the ravages of war. Let the world know that Americans are not wholly destitute of patriotism and honor, but are able to stand up for Liberty and right. Save our country from the fate that threatens it. Hush up the traitors at home, and we will hush up those in the field or die in the attempt. This summer's work in the field is going on well so far. We are meeting with success at every point,

The pickets are firing on the right of us, but there has not been a shot fired at or from our Brigade for the last twenty-four hours. The Johney's, and our boy's are becoming quite intimate as they come to see each other, half way, to chat over their future prospects, and to trade yankee sugar, coffee, &c. for tobacco. Sometimes they will be together talking, and at others they will be in their breastworks shooting at one another. We have not been engaged for some time, but we had one man killed a few day's ago by the rebel sharp shooters. Yours D. A. W.

I hope she will roll up an unprecedented majority for the sol-dier to enjoy that greatest of all rights that is known to the American citizen-the right of suffrage. The snaiks are making a beau-tiful howl about the amendment. When asked the question, are you going to vote for the amendment? Yes I'll vote for the soldier to have the right of suffrage, but I won't vote for a d-m nigger to be allowed that right. This is certainly the height of absurdity, and when a man makes such an expression as that. I would set him down as a recent emigrant from the Canibal Islands, and that his knowledge o. plain English was so limited, that he could not comprehend the sentence in our State Constitution. reading, "Every white freeman of the age of ticenty-one years." They are making great use of the word "soldier" as it occurs in the amendment to be voted for on the second of August next; using the argument that if the amendment is carried, it will allow the colored soldiers the right to vote. Poor dupes; can't they see that the State Constitution would have to be further amended, and read as the old constitution did (every freeman.) before the colored sol-of this Commonwealth, such electors may exerdid, (every freeman.) before the colored soldier can enjoy the right to vote. I have learned by a letter received from Lieut. Musser, Co. D, 53d Regt., P. V. V. that Henry Heeman, noticed in my last as propriation bills. having lost an arm, is dead. He was a very young man, enlisted a few months ago, and had been with the company only a few days, when he met with the sad accident which has resulted in his death. The pirate vessel Florida, some ten days since, captured and burned five merchant vessels off Cape May, and took a sixth and placed the Captain under bonds for the delivery of the vessel, and then sent the crews of the other vessels into port on the last one captured. Several iron-clads have gone in search of the Florida and we hope she will meet the fate of the Alabama.

Among the bills passed by Congress was five per cent. on all incomes over $600. It is to be assessed on the 1st of October for the year preceding, and is additional to the present income tax. It is estimated that this special tax will produce the $20,000 .-000 required by the soldiers' bounties.

August Belmont, the "Chairman of the National Democratic Committee," is a Jew, a Banker, and Agent of the Rothschilds of Europe. Here is another proof of the identity between the gold gamblers and our ene-mies abroad. The agent of the richest the National Committee of Copperheads!

At a meeting of the Copperheads of Hendricks county, Indiana, Gen. Geo. B. Mc-Clellan was formally repudiated by the passage of a sarcastic resolution, because of "his war sentiment and tirade against our natural and political brethern of the South, died on Wednesday last.

If any one ever doubted, that there were countenances. One snaik, of a sandy line, shouting, "glorious news, the rebels, 15,000 strong, have carried the outer fortifications of 'Lincoln's den,' hip hurrah" and away he sped. A Union man coming down behind him, says to a man on the opposite side of the street, "things are looking bad, Washington is in danger." The reply made him, was, "let them take it, the sooner the better, that will end the war." Other snaiks wearing extensive appendages of nankeen, met where snaiks "most do congregate" and talked jubilant over the news planned out what the rebels would do, and what a glorious campaign document the sacking of Washington would be. Such are a few, and very few of the expressions, and scenes among our snaiks, on the receipt of the news of the late rebel raid. And vet these very men will contend that they are ding citizens. If it is a test of loyalty, when a man glories in the downfall of the capitol of his country and rejoices that there is danger that an army of rebels may enter it and burn it; then these snaiks are true to the Constitution, and loyal, law-abiding eitizens, of the first mud hole.

How is it, that certain men snarl, hiss, wriggle, and foam when the term copperhead is used, even in conversation? Only chat with a friend, and during the conversation, the subject of war was mentioned. From that we got on to the copperhead party. I had not the most remote idea, that my friend was of that species of reptile; but at the mention of the term copperhead, I noticed a frown glide over his hitherto placid countenance, and soon he gave vent to his venom. Said he, "I am no copperhead, I am a democrat, and I am in favor of restoring the Union as it was." "Well sir," I replied, "who said you was a copone providing for a special income tax of perhead. I know you are a democrat; or that you belonged to that party, when such a party existed; but my dear sir do you not know, that four years ago, at Charleston, S. C., the once great democratic partee was rent in twain, and one wing, headed by Jeff. Davis, is to-day in rebellion against the Union; the other wing, called the war democracy, are in deadly opposition to the Jeff Davis party, and nobly battling for the unconditional restoration of the Union. But tell me why you get so excited, when I say that the copperhead party is of the Jeff. Davis persuasion? You say you banking house of despotism, is chairman of are loyal, and in favor of the restoration of the Union as it was. So am I, if we can do no better ; but if you call me a copperhead or speak of the snaiky tribe, it does not irritate me, and raise my 'dutch' as it seems to do yours." Said my friend. "you abolitionists call all men that were formerly known as democrats, copperhead." "Well, said I, "you may call me whatever suits contained "in his recent oration on that your fancy, but you are in error, when you say I call all democrats copperheads. I can point you out men in this town, who always Ex-GOVERNOR SIMMONS, of Rhode Island, supported, and voted the democratic ticket, and to-day they are true to their colors, and

THE HISTORY OF HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been perform-ed with it in cases of Liver complaint, Dyspep sia, Nervous debility, and other diseases arising from a disordered strength to the diseases arising from a disordered stomach or liver, places it at once among the most astonishing discoveries that has taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which bitters are applicable are so universal that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintauces and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st. by paying the accrued interest in coin-(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these Bonds are their value is increased from one to three per cent, per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay OVER EIGHT PER CENT INTEREST in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducement to lenders as the various descriptions of U. S. Bonds. In all other forms of indebted ness, the faith or ability of private parties or stock companies or seperate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the total Funded Debt of the United States on which interest is payable in gold, on the 5d day of March, 1864, was $768,965,000. The interest on this debt for the coming fiscal year will be $15,-937.125, while the customs revenue in gold for the current fiscal year, ending June 30th, 1864, has been so far at the rate of over $100,000,000 per annum.

It will be seen that even the present gold revenues of the Government are largely in excess of all persons, except Justices of the Peace, who | the wants of the Treasurer for the payment of der the government of the United States or of this State, or of any incorporated district, weth-er a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subor-er a commissioned officer or otherwise, a suborgold interest, while the recent increase of the tar-$150,000,000 per annum.

Instructions to the National Banks acting as loan agents were not issued from the United States Treasury until March 29, but in the first three weeks of April the subscriptions averaged more than TEN MILLIONS & WEEK.
