BULKLEY'S PATENT—LUMBER DRIED BY SUPERHEATED STEAM.

The undersigned respectfully informs the people of Clearfield and adjoining counties that he has the agency of the above patent—and will sell individual, county or township rights for its use. The lumber dried by this process is stronger, finishes better, is easier on tools, and requires less time in drying than any other process known. drying 1 inch lumber perfectly in 36 hours better than many months under the old system using the same amount of fuel per yard that a common kiln consumes. The certificate of a number of resident mechanics well known in this community is amply sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its utility. Persons desirous of purchasing rights will address JOHN L. CUTLER, Clearfield, Penn'a. June 24, 1863.

HOSLETTERS' CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS,

A pure and powerful Tonic, Corrective and Alternative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Cures, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Champs and Spasms, and all Complaints of the Stomach, arising from Bodily Weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Its Tonic and purgative contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and so far as the human system can be protected by a human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, Hostetter's Bitters may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehensions of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and ague patients, after being afflicted with quills for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic, and hence it cures wonders in cases of Dispepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by regular action of the digestive and secretory organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lovens of Spirits and Fits of Langour, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. Its tendency upon the system is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Billious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint is prevented.

As a general Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Debility of weakness, Premature Decay and Indigestion of the Stomach, it is a most powerful, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stimulants of the day.

The immense increase in the sale of Hostetter's Bitters, both at home and abroad, during the past year proves that the world, while it obeys the Scriptural injunction to "try all things, only hold fast to that which is good." Superior preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up, but their character is soon discovered, and they are "fungi like worthless weeds away." On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it on its introduction, is "not for a day, but for all time."

No family medicine has been so universally and, it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as Hostetter's Bitters.

Prepared by HOSLETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere. Nov. 10, 1863, 1 yr.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess the records of the insane asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

The Constitution once effected with Organic Weakness requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Hembold's Extract Buchu invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.
