CLEARFIELD, PA., JULY 27, 1864.

FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS! Remember. that next Tuesday, August 2d, is the day of FOUND-several small keys, on a ring, on Tuesday morning. The owner can have the same by calling at the Journal office.

Godey for August has been received. The fashions are fine, the engravings good, and the literary contents interesting.

CORRECTION.—The place of holding the elections in Bradford township is at Jacob Pearce's, instead of Wm. Hoover's as heretofore printed.

New Goods. - The citizens of Clearfield, and the public generally, are informed that Messrs, Boynton, Showers & Graham have just received a new supply of Dry-Goods, Notions, Groceries, etc. Give them a call.

CHANGE IN STAMP DUTIES.—Business men will not forget, that a change has been made in the excise law, and that from and after August 1st, the stamp schedule, heretofore published by us will not answer. We will publish the new schedule in our next.

RALLY! FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS! Rally to the polls on Tuesday next, and show our brave defenders that you are not ungrateful for the great sacrifice they are making.

RAIN AND THE CROPS. - A copious and refreshing rain prevailed in this section during Monday last, which has revived the drooping and parched vegetation. The corn has not suffered very materially from the drought, and with continued propitious weather will yield a good crop. Buckwheat and potatoes will also be good, should the season be favorable.

The Scientific American says that Peruwhich prevails on the James river in August September and October, and recommends that every person who has a friend in the army send him a dollar's worth of quinine, with instructions to put as much as will lie on the point of a pen-knife in his coffee every morning, and the probability is that he will escape chronic diarrhea, fever and ague and dillious fever.

Tickets for the Amendment.

We would say to our friends throughout the county, that we have sent a supply of tickets to the several election districts, by letter, within a few days past; which, we hope, will be duly received. To make sure of sufficient tickets being on hand, on election day, we took the precaution to send some to from three to five prominent and sumed, will be at the polls early, on Tuesday morning. Friends! be active; and poll your full vote, if possible—the soldiers expect this much from you.

A Picnic.—The picnic gotten up under the auspices of Miss Kate Sheller's school, and which came off on Saturday afternoon last, we understand was an entire success. At the appointed hour, the children of the school, and a number of young persons, wended their way to "Liberty Spring," where a table had been erected for the reception and spreading out of the good things, prepared for the occasion. An abundance of everything that would take the fancy of the children, as well as some substantials, were on hand; which the youngsters seemed to enjoy very much. After partaking of the sumptuous repast, the remainder of the day was spent in the various social amusements, and in the evening the whole party returned to town much delighted with their trip to the grove. Miss Shellet is worthy of much credit for the manner in which the whole affair was conducted.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

Letter from Philipsburg, Pa. Philipshuro, Pa., July 25th, 1864.
Dear Journal:—Searcely had the excitement of the late rebel raid passed, and our town restored to its statua-quo, when all of a sudden, everybody was on their forked end, running to and fro, as if the rebels surely were about to demand the surrender of the town, or levy a contribution, and thereby let us escape a regular plundering operation. All this came from the arrival of the Deputy Provost Marshal, with tickets for forty-two of our subject-to-draft popets came very unexpected, and took us all by surprise—the Deputy was a complete surprise party of one. The question prosounded was, who is drafted? All who were subject to military duty, were anxious to know if they had received an invitation, and if informed that they had, down went his excited phiz, to a point, far below that ever created by a fall in gold, to a "bear" of Wall street. But, if the reply was that | he had not, his excited features gave way to the most bright and joyful countenance, ever worn by a "bull," who had succeeded in running the precious metal up to 290 in the shade. The following is the list of those who are invited from the town and its vicinity: Wm. H. Jones, Harrison Ross, Jno. Morgan, James A. Ganoe, Mart. Rook, Juo. ightal, M. V. Mayer, Benj. Jones, G. dahn, Sam'l. Fleck, Jos. Ferguson, D. C. Amison, Wm. Ayers, J. Oscar Lorraine, Jno. Haberocker, Geo. Cunningham, Jno. Hudson, Wm. Ward, Mark Bateman, Sam-

But as I am not prepared to give any of the proceedings of the convention, at this time, I shall defer any details until my next-God sparing me, and I am lucky enough to find who the secretaries

The woods, up along the Moshannon creek, in the vicinity of Dunbar, and from that place across to the Tyrone "Pike," have been on fire for several days, doing great damage to the pine timber, and property generally. The Steam saw mill at Dunbar, came very near being a prey to the fiery element, and was only saved by knocking off a great portion of the roof. The rascal who would set fire to the woods at this dry season, should have a dose of tar and dry spruce twigs, and then a match applied to them.

I learn that Jos C. Brenner's new steam saw mill, down at Morrisdale was entirely burnt up on Wednesday night last. The mill had been in operation but a few weeks. The hands "shut down" about 12 o'clock rest, and in the morning they found the mill a heap of ashes. No one can tell how the fire originated, and the whole concern was consumed without any of them hearing or knowing of its burning.

The wife of one of the miners of Powelton, or Coal Hill as it is commonly called, concluded that her stay on terra cola had been long enough, took a dose of bed-bug my, either voluntarily or by draft, when he poison on Friday last, and made her exit for pays his taxes in the districts in which he that undiscovered country from whence none | resides-and I believe the soldiers pay their return. She insisted upon having her chil- taxes more cheerfully than many of those dren accompany her, and spread a piece of bread for each of them, with the poison and | that nothing but a black-hearted traitor, will gave it to them to cat, when a woman liv-ing with the family, told them to throw the bread away, that if they eat it with that 'stuff' on, it would kill them. They wisely concluded that if their maternal parent and bed-bugs desired to bring their career to a speedy termination, they did not, and took the woman's advice. The mother died the vian bark is the only antidote to the malaria same day, and had it not been for the timely presence of the hired woman, all of her children would have fell victims to the poison. I understand the mother done the deed intentionally, and that it was not by accident-that the bed-bug poison was used as is often the case.

I received a letter from a soldier, who heads his letter "Rifle pits, front of Petersburg, Va." a few days ago, and he asks me the question, "Are you voters at home going to give the defenders of your country, the mation of the public, that Messrs, Boynton | right of suffrage while in the army? I hope & Showers have associated with them Ed. | the Old Keystone will roll up a larger majority for the soldiers than the Empire State will be conducted in the name of Boynton, did-though she done well, we expect you

Next Tuesday, August 2d, is the day of chandizing, of a pleasing disposition, and of the election. Let no man who is a true Astrict business habits, and will be quite an merican and a friend of the soldier, stay addition to the already very accommodating and obliging firm. We wish them success in their new association.

Interest and a friend of the success from the polls. But go, and go early, deposit your ticket "For the Amendment."

Do not be humbugged or led to vote against the amendment, by any sympathizer with treason, that the amendment will, if carried, allow all soldiers the right to vote, and that by that means the colored soldier is on equality with the white. Remember the amendment does not mention the word soldier, as these hounds would have you believe. It says "The qualified electors." be a qualified elector or voter, a soldier must be a White Freeman of the full age of twenty-one years. Read the amendment carefully, and you will soon see that all such arguactive men in each district; who, it is pre- ment as that advanced by the snaiks is without foundation. They do not wish the soldier to have a vote, and they take any means to dodge it. That the colored soldier can vote is one of their dodges. One thing is certain, if it was the case, they are more worthy of a vote than any cop. LEROL

> Letter from Sherman's Army. CHATTAHOOCHE RIVER, July 13, 1864. DEAR JOURNAL :- General Sherman's army reached the northern bank of the Chattahooche river, on the 10th instant-the rear guard of Joe Johnston's army having crossed on that day. The Union soldiers picket one side of the river, while the 'rebs' picket the other. This has been a long and weary campaign. The 111th Pa. Vols. marched from Bridgeport, Ala., on May 3d, with 570 officers and men, all told; and lost in killed and wounded, 139. Among the wounded are Luke Millward of Janes-ville, and Ishmael M'Mullen of Utahville,

Clearfield county. The campaign in Georgia is a severe blow to the rebel cause. Rebel refugees from other States, together with many disloyal citizens of this State, are driven into a still smaller compass. A large amount of corn and other grain has been found which was intended for the rebel army, but in their hasty retreat were unable to take it along or | public sale destroy it. The growing crops of corn, wheat and rye are used as forage. The whole country through which the army has passed, is almost depopulated, as well as devastated. The ravages of the demon war are visible everywhere.

When the rebels were whipped at one place, they retreated to another. They had breastworks to fall back to, which were the blessings, of slavery that we hear northern traitors boast of, )-they need only eccuulation, to attend the great military ball py them and are ready to fight us. We do now going on down in "Dixie." This has been a disastrous campaign to Johnston's army; scores of deserters arrive within our lines daily; they are anxious to get to the rear, away from the explosions of hostile shell. I think from present indications the army will remain here a short time. The weather is very hot. With the aid of a glass I had a view of Atlanta from a tree top, the distance is about eight miles. The draft in Clearffeld, I understand, has The draft in Clearffeld, I understand, has v.dec'd., having been granted to the undersigned, taken place. It is strange indeed how infirm some persons become, as the time of to make immediate payment, and those having drawing approaches, who at almost any other time are in the enjoyment of the best of health. Intelligence has been received here of a man, (?) residing in Beccaria tp., no great distance from Utahville, who received a polite note, the contents of which Collins, R. J. Maloney, Jesse L. Of my copperhead friends, I have endeavored for which the highest price of 'nigger war,' and have done all I can to make the life of a cellion of said the judges, inspectors, and clerks, of each of said make the life of a soldier odious. My heart's desire is that the cause of our Southern brethren succeed, the traffic in human flesh and blood be continued, and slavery with all its horrors be made the corner-stone of the nation. To join the army and shoot my greyback friends I cannot; I am brave enough to let them shoot at my body, but I have no confidence in my legs, for should minnie balls and shell begin to drop around me, I fear they will run away with my careass; however, I will report; perchance I may be exempt." Our hero suddenly becomes lame, halt, deaf, gets the gout, and perhaps the itch; in fact, all the ills that human flesh is heir to, and sets out on his journey to Brockville. After limping about for a few days, and practicing before a mirror on contortions of his visage as if caused by intense pain, he limps into the Marshall's Office, writhing in all the agony of assumed pains imaginable. After a brief examination the surgeon contemptuously gives him a certificate of exemption : seeming to say, "take that you cowardly puke, you would disgrace the army." Mr. W. makes his exit-the fluttering under his vest ceases-he returns to the hills of Becon Wednesday night, as usual, retired to caria perfectly recovered and able to resume his peaceful vocation. I see by the Journal that there will be a special election on the first Tuesday of August next, to vote on the amendments to the Constitution, allowing the soldiers to vote in the field when in actual service. I am unable to discover how, a man loses his citizenship when he joins the Federal arwho never go to the army. I am certain vote against the amendments.

I receive the Journal regularly. It is eagerly sought after and read by the Clearfield and Elk county boys. GIBSON.

Letter from Petersburg, Va. The following private note was sent us, for publication by the person to whom it is addressed:

HEADQUARTERS Co. D, 53d Pa. V. V. Near Petersburg, Va., July 8,1864.

Mr. James Glenn: —Dear Sir: Ireceived your note this morning, requesting information concerning our late friend Joseph Rankins. He was killed in action in the memorable charge of the 2d corps, on the 12th day of May, near Spottsylvania Court House, Va. He was shot, with a minnie ball, through both thighs, and died the same evening he was wounded. His grave has been marked, so that his body can be procured at any time his friends or relatives may desire. I would have notified you sooner, but others from the same locality told me they would write, so I thought it not necessary for me to do so. Any further information that I may be able to furnish, I shall be happy at any time to give.

Very respectfully yours, JOHN H. ROOT, 1st Lt. com. Co. D, 53d P. V. V. For the Journal.

It is to be hoped that the loyal citizens of Philipsburg, and surrounding country, will beware of a certain hairy-faced satelite of Jeff. Davis & Co., who was drove away from Huntingdon some time ago for abusing soldiers, and who is now engaged in erecting "castles" for Rebel sympathizers, who will vote against a soldier's right to vote. Look out for him; he is easily known. A SOLDIER.
