From the Presbyterian. A NOBLE LETTER.

The following letter from the Hon. John Patton, formerly member of Congress from Pennsylvania, explains itself. Cuwensville. where Mr. Patton resides, is a town of about four hundred inhabitants. It has sent to the treasury of the Christian Com mission, within a year, over three thousand dollars.

CURWENSVILLE, PA., JULY 5, 1864. GEO. H. STUART, ESQ., Pres't Christian Com'n :

My Dear Sir-I received the Annual Repert of the Christian Commission for 1863. and in looking over it I find much to encouroge those who have been contributors to do more. I believe there is more done for the soldier's wants, temporal as well as spiritual. by the Christian Commission, than by any other agency now at work, in proportion to its means.

I was at Gettysburg early after the battle last year, and came away satisfied of the great good being done by the Commission, and I have felt it my duty since that time to make my contributions for the relief of our suffering soldiers through it, as the most direct and certain way to reach them. I do hope, in this hour of our nation's sorest trial. the Christian public will see the importance

Don't y in call that man a dog, if you cannot speak in respectful terms of a man who has fought three years in the cause of our Union, get out of my house, and if you don't go I'll apply a strategetic posterior propeller to you. Out went the scout without the proffered auxilliary, and the last seen of him, up to this "hour of goty are requested to meet in County ing to press," he was vigorously prosecuting a search for Detrick Exline. Black tongue is prevailing in our town to an unlimited extent, and has been for the last three or four weeks. It is brought on by the masticating process, that a "huckleberry" has to encounter, before it enters the fathomless receptacle, located in the epigastric region of the human family. It appears to me that this receptacle, commonly called the stomach, can never be filled with whortleberries, or huckleberries as they are generally termed. I have often seen whitehaired urchins, yet in the season of short clothes, stow a peck of huckleberries away, and, Oliver Twist like, they would ask for more. This is a great huckleberry year. Hundreds of bushels have been picked, but like the rebels they are as thick as ever. Some cute member of the crinoline pursuasion, has seized time by the forelock, and started a "Huckleberry Hotel" out in the midst of the "patch." It is conducted on the European plan, and self-sustaining principles. Customersmust bring their own rations. If they are liberal and leave pleny of "pickings," so that the proprietor and the employees can get a "good fill," they to any part of the patch, and a guide, with | conclusions." hand book, to tell them where the "high blue" ones are. But "ill fares" to the customer who does not make the commissariat of his huckleberry trip, more than enough for himself. LEROI.

MR. EDITOR :- I am informed that some of the "lager beer saloons" in our Borough continue the practice of selling intoxicating drinks in violation of law. It may be well to inform such, that the intended prosecumercy. I have no doubt but that thousands | urgent solicitation of their friends, and under a positive promise that it should cease who have passed away saved eternally for the future. It was also distinctly understood at the time, that for any subsequent violations of the law, prosecution would be instituted and carried to trial. So that there may be no surprise, I will now inform them what is a violation of the law, viz : 1. To furnish intoxicating drink by gift sale, or otherwise to a minors ; that is to say, to any persons unde: 21 years of age. 2. To furnish intoxicating drink, of any kind, in like manner, to habitual drunkards,

Remarkable Escape from the Rebels. erators of the United States army, who was captured by the rebels at Union City, Tenn., was taken to Mobile, where he arrived in a starving condition. From Mobile he was sent to Macon, Georgia, and there "nearly starved out" before he could make his escape. He writes :

The rebels put blood hounds on our track, but we fooled them by rubbing onions on our boots and clothes which killed the scent. After many hardships we succeeded in reaching this place after being thirty dayson the way, waiking 313 miles, mostly by night, going by river 260 miles more, making about 573 miles, through Georgia, Alabama and Florwalking 313 miles, mostly by night, going ida, to our lines-living on the Confederates. "Our Friends,"

The Atlanta, Ga, Register of a recent date says :

"Ex-President Pierce, Seymour, of Conneticut, Vallandigham, Reed, Wood and Richardson, and hundreds of others are as hostile to the war as to the Black Republicans. These men are doing us indirect service. They are not openly and avowedly our friends, nor could we reasonably ask this of them. If they did no more than resist the centralization of Mr. Lincoln, that far they are worthy of our respect and sympathy. If they hold up the banner of States Rights, that far they are advocating a sentiment entitled to our admiration. Such is the course they are pursuing, and such a course ought to have our cordial approbation. Step by step the same convictions and the same temper that have braced them in compact unity and fiery valor, to denounce ultra Federalism, and New England fanaticism, will bring them upon the right ground as it respects our independence. We confess our faith in their political principles. We confess our confidence that eventually these men

The Copperheads are all in confusion a-Gen. Butler. This comes of not agreeing 1864 GRAND OPENING OF 1864 upon their course before-hand ; for it does not much matter how false the cry may be, if it is raised simultaneously by the whole kennel, and roundly stuck to, it will have a powerful effect. As to Butler, we are told by certain Copper editors that the President whistled him down the wind, but that Lieuttion at the last term of our court against Gen. Grant would not stand it-that he set of sustaining you in your work of love and some of them, was only abandoned at the his foot down, he wanted Butler just where he was, and so the President backed out. Another set of Copper oracles affirm that Butler was "forced back upon Grant" by check, drilling, ticking and sheeting, shawls, the President, thereby implying that he was removed by the Lieut. General ; and they add that because of Butler's restoration, Baldy Smith became fractious and had to be moved. This blowing hot and cold in the same breath is more amusing than convincing. By all means let a distinct line of lying be marked out, so that we may have at least plausiblity as a substitute, for truth. These " sweet bells janged, out of tune and harsh," are ridiculous.-Tribune. -1-0.00 The official statement of the public debt, as appears by the records on July 26. shows that the debt outstanding bearing interest in coin is $803,887,842, a difference less than the amount stated on the 19th inst. of $731, Th 000; the interest being $52,623,281. amount of debt bearing interest in lawful money is $404,553,520, or nearly a million and a half more than in the previous statement, with an aggregate lawful money interest of $21,027,000.
