UNION County Convention.

The Union men of Clearfield coun-Clearfield, on Thursday the 18th day of August, at 2 o'clock, P. M., to nominate a County Ticket, and transact other business.

J. B. McENALLY, Chairman of Co. Committee.

We have had fine growing weather during the past week in this county, and corn and other crops are looking well. With favorable fall weather we will have good corn and potato crops.

COUNTY CONVENTION. -The true friends of the Union, should bear in mind, that Thursday the 18th day of August, has been designated as the time for meeting in County Convention to nominate a ticket. A general attendance is requested.

Notice. - By Divine Permission, the Rev. T. Van Scovoc will preach in the Baptist church, in this blace, on next Sabbath (August 14th) at 11 o'clock in the morning; and at Curwensville in the evening. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

A WILD CAT KILLED. -Barelay Hoyt, living in Taylor township, Cambria county, caught a catamount in a trap a few days ago. The animal had become famous for its ravages and destructiveness, and Mr. Hoyt set a trap near the place, and soon caught the "varmint." The animal was of a monstrous size, measuring five feet in length, and heavy in proportion.

We learn that Samuel Shope, a young man who was in our employ formerly, and who went to the army last spring, was wounded in the head in a skirmish near Petersburg on July 28th. He died the same day, and was buried by his comrades. He was in the three-months service previously, and has been with Gen. Sheridan in all his campaigns during the present summer. He was a brave and efficient soldier, and at all times ready to discharge the duties devolving on him. Let him rest in peace.

To our Patrons,-As the 10th volume of the Journal will close on the 25th of August, we would say to our patrons, and over, in arrears, that we will receive 1,50 in payment of their accounts up to the close of the volume. After the 25th of August we will charge all at the rate of $2 00 a of printing materials, and everything else wayse. If our friends will come up promption we use. If our friends will come up promption we will be able to get along without rais.

The drafted men, noticed in my last, left in Pike township, Clearfield county, Pa., at private sale. Also, one tract of unimproved land—numbered and described as follows, to wit: ing the price of our subscription-but otherwise we must do so. In fact, nearly every paper in the whole country has advanced in price, while we still adhere to the old rates. Our friends should remember this, and send the amount due us without further delay.

Col. W. R. Hartshorn.

Mr. Row :- The many friends of Col. W. Ross Hartshorn will be gratified to learn, that, immediately on his return to the army of the Potomac, he was mustered in as Colonel of the 190th Penn'a volunteers, (composed of the re-enlisted men of the Penn'a 1864. He is now senior Colonel, and acting Brigadier in command of the 3d Brigade 3d Division 5th Corps. Capt. J. Elliott Kratz-er and Lieut. John W. Hazlett, both well and favorably known in Clearfield county, are on his staff. May success attend the commander and staff of the gallant 3d Briging reputation. Yours, PACKER.

(Col. Hartshorn (late Major) of the 1st Rifles had charge of the old Bucktails ever since the battle of Gettysburg, at which time | the latest period of time) that they are cow-Col. Taylor was killed and Lieut. Col Niles so severely wounded that he had to leave the service. Immediately after the nine days' fight in the Wilderness, Gen. Meade promoted Major H. to the position of Colonel, with the request that Gov. Curtin issue a commission in accordance—which has been done. No doubt, higher honors await the gallant Colonel. - Ed Journal.

To Enrolled Men.

Below we give several matters of information, which will be of interest to all persons who are enrolled and liable to draft.

The Provest Mashal General directs that all men who maim themselves for the purpose of escaping the draft, be held by the respective Distret Provost Marhals, and their cases reported to him.

Men furnished under the call of July 18th, whether enlisted for one, two, or three years, as well as all excess or deficiency of three years men on calls heretofore made, will count as man for man. The equalization of the amount of militaty service rendered by the differnt States and parts of States will be effected hereafter. The President of the United States having issued a proclamation ordering a draft for 500,00 men, to take place within fifty days from date of order, it is desirable that in order to have a just assignment of quotas under this call, those of this Congressional District who are enrolled as liable to military duty, and who have good claims for exemtion, should present thmselves to the Board of Enrollment at Wateford and have their names stricken from the list. Many persons are probably enrolled who will be exempt for manifest germanen; disabillity, over age, &c, if they present their claims now and be erased from the enrollment, it will lessen the quots of the sub-District to duty of all interested to give this matter immediate attention. The quota assigned this Congressional District under the President's call for 500, 000 men, dated July 18, 1864, is 3,126. This quota will be divided pro rata among the different sub-districts, and the quota of each will be reduced by any excess they may how have over all calls heretofore made, or inunced as rapidly as posseble.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL. OFFICIAL VOTE OF CLEARFIELD CO. | BE WISE BY TIMES .- Do not trifle with your Letter from Philipsburg, Pa.

PHILIPSBURG, PA. Aug. 8th, 1864.

DEAR JOURNAL:—The day of redemption is past, and nobly did old Rush township, redeem herself on Tuesday last, b giving the First Amendment, then vote on, a majority of fifty-seven-being a gai of forty-two over Curtin's vote last fall The vote stood 98 for, and 41 against, the ty are requested to meet in County First Amendment; Second, 100 for, 40 against; Third, 97 for, 40 against. about ten minutes too late. Others sud denly had business that called them away from home, and they could not get back in time. They regretted it very much, bu business before pleasure, you know, is the old maxim. And those "fellow citizens" who arrived at the polls a little too late seemed to be very much chop-fallen, tha they were thus deprived of the right of suf frage. Any port in a storm. There wa not much electioneering done against the amendment, openly; but the faithful were all properly equipped behind the throne. No man that had any regard for himself and his posterity, could be so mean, low, and de graded, as to try to induce his neighbor, to vote against giving the soldier in the field an equal right with a qualified voter at home Yet there were some men mean enough to do so and not only that, but there was no a ticket "For the Amendments," to be had at two of the hotels of our town, though cart-loads of tickets reading "Against the Amendment," were strewn over their barrooms, thick as "autumnal leaves of vallumwords, and this last act of theirs caps the

Tell me that such men are Democrats. No! far from it! Talk of free speech, free press, and all the vocabulary of copperheads, but this one act takes them all down and proves to a perfect demonstration, what I have always asserted, that they are disloyal to any measure or action which genuine Union men especially to those who are one year and support. But with all their wire-pulling, "Castles," sub-Divisions, construing the Amendment to the ignorant, that if it carried, it would give the colored soldier a right to yote, the Old Keystone has nobly stood Three Farms For Sale year. on the morning of the 3d inst., to report at Bellefonte, They reached Martha Furnace Station, B. E. V. R. R., where they received a dispatch, that they might return home. I have not learned the exact cause of the dispatch, but think it is from some defect, or mistake in our township not having received a full credit for the men previously sent. They came home in high glee. All who were not certain of having some ill that human flesh is heir to, that would exempt them, had the requisite number of greenbacks, to commute them from the attendance at the military ball, they were suddenly invited to-except three of the lucky Reserves,) with commission dated June 6th, helders of tickets. These three noble, chivalric, and gallant fellows, having more foresight than is commonly given to man, con-cluded that they would report at a point nearer the North Pole, and be on hand to act, in case the Canadians made a raid. They will of course, not take advantage of the defect, and return to the bosoms of ade-composed, in part, of the true men of their families. Poor fellows! how indisthe old Reserve Corps of three years' fight creet they were, to thus skedaddle from their dear wives, fond little ones and happy homes, and all coming from the world-wide fact, (they having left behind them, that which will follow their posterity, down to ards, and unworthy the respect of an American citizen.

The expose of "our veritable William" published in your last issue, taken from the Hollidaysburg Register, created quite an excitement among the "faithful." The demand for the Journal on Thursday, the day it comes to this P. O., was without a precedent in the paper line. It was extensively borrowed, and most especially by the cops. Subscribers had hard work to keep track of their Journal, so numerous were its readers. There is a great deal of sickness, of that kind incident to this season of the year, prevailing in our town and vicinity. Though not of such an epidemic nature, nor so fatal, as the sickness of 1854—a period long to be remembered by the citizens that lived here at that time, as but few, if any, families escaped its dreadful visit. LEROI.

For some time past it has been known that large bands of well-armed and organized out-laws existed in Montgomery county, Illinois, who meditated mischief. Recently their movements have become so audacious and threatening as to demand the attention of the authorities. Last Saturday the Sheriff of the county, with a posse, started after the outlaws with the design of attacking and dispersing them. While in pursuit, his forces was suddenly fired upon from ambush by the enemy. One of the Sheriff's men was killed, one wounded and two missing. The man killed was shot with three bullets. At the time the train passed Litchfield, at six o'clock p. m., random fighting was still going on. The guerrillas number about 300, and have their camp near Van Burenburg, sixteen miles from the Terre Haute and Alton railroad, in a thick forest. They are the same persons who attempted to rob a paymaster on the road, a short time ago, by which they belong. It is the privilege adn throwing the train off the track. There is a high excitement in Montgomery and Bond counties over the fight of Saturday, and six hundred citizens had gathered to attack the guerilla camp.

The burning of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, making some three thousand people homeless, is one of the events for which the Chicago Convention was probably postponed. increased by its deficiency on such calls as A few such events will probably supply a the case may be. The quotas will be an party with sufficient principles to last them through the Presidential campaign.
