Baftsman's Journal.

CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 17, 1864.

NOTICE.—The person who took two cushions out of Dr. J. G. Hartswick's buggy, on Saturday of the Democratic meeting, is requested to return them without delay, or he will be sent after.

PROMOTED.—We announce, with pleasure, the following promotions in the 1st Pa. R. V. V., formerly the 'Old Bucktails., to wit: Major W. Ross Hartshorn to Colonel; Lieut, J. Elliott Kratzer to Captain; Sergt. Thomas J. Thompson to 1st Lieutenant; Sergt. John H. Norris to 2d Lieutenant; John W. Hazlett to 2d Lieutenant, and Lient. R. Fent Ward to Captain.

IMPORTANT FACT. - A gentleman who has repeatedly suffered from the bites of venomous reptiles, while wandering through the ruins of Palenque in Chiapas, says he was in the habit of enlarging the wound with a lancet, introducing some batter of antimony, applying a ligerature above the wound, and taking ten drops of ammonia in water every fifteen minutes. The lives of himself and servant were repeatedly saved in this way, while four native attendants, not using these precautions, perished,

OILING LEATHER. -The Scientific American says that oils should not be applied to dry leather, as they would invariably injure If you wish to oil a harness wet it over night, cover it with a blanket, and in the morning it will be dry and supple; then apply neat's foot oil in small quantities, and with so much elbow grease as will insure its disseminating itself throughout the leather. A soft, pliant harness is easy to handle, and lasts longer than a neglected one. Never use vegetable oils in leather, and among animal oils, neat's foot is the best.

A New Company.—We learn that Capt. J. H. Heasley, at Jefferson line, Clearfield county, bas permission from Governor Curtin to raise a volunteer company, for the one years' service, in liene of the draft. Here, then, is an opportunity afforded to avoid being drafted by volunteering. Capt. Heasley having heretofore been in the service one year, possesses the requisite experience for a good and efficient commander. Persons wishing to enlist in a new company should avail themselves of this opportunity, and call upon Capt. Heasley at once, as the time for the draft is approaching rapidly. Address as above.

Rev. A. R. Height, of Tyrone, will officiate. All Christians are cordially invited to participate in the solemnities of the day. The religious exercises connected with the occasion will begin on Friday evening previous. On Saturday morning at 10 o'clock the preparatory ser-vices will be held, and it is greatly desired that all the communicants, with as many others as possibly can, will attend this preliminary meeting.
