Union Mass Meeting. A Mass Meeting of the friends of Lincoln and Johnson will be held at the Court House in Clearfield, on Wednesday evening of Court week, the 28th September. Come one and all.

Speakers will be in attendance. J. B. M'ENALLY. Chairman of County Committee.

THE WAR NEWS.

Very little of importance has transpired in our armies during the last week. True, a report is in circulation that Mobile is in our possession, but this needs confirmation. may, however, soon he expected.

Hops. - N. L. Robins left at our office, last week, a branch of hops about 9 inches long, on which are 60 full grown hops. Hard to beat, that,

FILLING THEIR QUOTAS. - We learn that Burnside and Guelich townships have about filed their quotas. It would be well if the rest of the townships would follow their noble example.

NEEDS ATTENTION .- The wet weather demonstrates the necessity of some attention to the drainage of our streets. We commend the subject to the consideration of the Burgess and Council.

RETURNED .- The distinguished "Cops" -large and small-who were at Chicago, got home again last week. They look a little "down in the mouth" about something -we don't know exactly what. Things evidently didn't go off to please them.

Several days since, we had the pleasure of taking by the hand, James H. Galer, the Huse' in Philipsburg. Persons stopping in that place should give "Jim" a call as he has the reputation of keeping a good house.

GRAPES .- We tender our thanks to Norman L. Robins, of this place, for a large dish of Concord Grape -the finest we have seen this season. Persons desirous of having a delicious grape should procure the at Mr. Robins'.

CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE -- We have been requested to state that the Conerees, appointed to nominate a candidate for Congress in the 19th district, will meet at Ridgway on Wednesday, September 21st. that friends throughout the district will please bear this in mind.

E. R. -Your letter dated at Forrest City. Nebraska Territory, August 28th was reciveen from home nearly two weeks. Will be The order is as follows: leased to hear from you again.

CONDUCTOR TIPTON .- We had the pleaswe of riding over the mountain, last week, with Mr. Tipton, the conductor on the Tymanners, attentive to the passengers placed in his care, and punctual in the discharge of his arduous duties. We congratulate the Railroad company upon their good fortune in attaining so accommo lating and careful a gentleman as Mr. T. for the responsible postion of conductor on the Tyrone and Clearfeld branch road.

HAIL -Quite a heavy hail storm prevail- | Poor Richard's Reason for Buying United ed in this section on Saturday night last.

IMPROVEMENTS .- Our town has been improving rapidly this summer. Quite a number of new buildings are in progress of eraction. Our friend Mossop is just finishing a new Store-room-the largest in the county. Across the way, a large and commodious Photograph Gallery is just being completed. A new tower and spire has been added to the Catholie Church, which greatly improves, its appearance. The signs of prosperity are visible on every side. Clearfield has no cause to complain of "hard times."

THE "FRANKLIN REPOSITORY."-We are gratfied to see t at Messers. Stoner and Mc-Clure, have once more resumed the publication of this noble defender of the Union be remembered, was destroyed, in the burning of Chambersburg, by the rebels. The Repository has heretofore been a warm supporter of the present National and State Administrations, and the strong and persistent advecate of every measure calculated to crush out the present wicked rebellion, and, Refore Petersburg an advanced position was the number before us gives promise that it taken by several regiments, which they hold has lost none of its devotion to the great in- to invest it; for I never had much, and -having surprised the rebels. Sherman terests of the Union, by being destroyed by appears to be resting his army. Good news rebel vandals. May success and prosperity attend the editors of the Repository in its future publication, and while they continue to expose the machinations of rebels and old Union.

A Candid Confession.

The following paragraph, taken from the Ohio Crisis, Sam Medary's paper, published a few days before the nomination of Mc Clellan at Chicago, would indicate that the great war-horse of the Ohio Democracy can hardly be induced to rally heartily to the support of little Mac :

'It is well known that General McClellan has not one spark of pretensions to the Presidency, except what he has made out of this civil office in his life, and was unknown to the public when Governor Dennison brought him forward as a military man Yet, in three years as a mere soldier, he rises to the which is for peace-a position requiring a statesman of enlarged views and a statesman's experience. If we are to plunge into interminable wars, each section or portion following its military leader, as in Mexico or proposed with some more show of consistency; but, as it is, it would be the utter annihilation of all constitutional politics and wiping out of Democratic organization. And for what? That a few men who have up, too,) do not pay as much as Governgot his ear may get foreign missions and accommodating landlord of the "Conrad home position at the expense of the peace of the country, and the lives of their constituents. This is paying too dear for such whistles, and for one we protest against it in behalf of our bleeding, ruined, and distracted country. If peace will not preserve order and preserve civil society, war will not, and we are a lost people, anyhow.

States Securities. The other day we heard a rich neighbor say he had rather have Railroad stocks than the U. S. stocks, for they paid higher interests. Just then Poor Richard came up, and said that he had just bought some of Uncle Sam's three years notes, paying seven and three-tenths per cent, interest. My rich friend exclaimed, "You! I thought you had no money to buy with." "Yes, said Richard, "I had a little laid up for you know it is well to have something laid up against a wet day, and I have kept a little of my earnings by me." Now Poor Richard is known to all the country round to be a very prudent and industrious, and withal, wise man; for Richard never learned anything he didn't know how to make use of, cause. The Repository establishment it will and his wisdom and prudence had become a proverb. So, when he took out his savings and bought the notes, more than one was surprised, and it was no wonder rich Mr. Smith asked why. So Poor Richard, in a very quiet, humble way-for he never assumed anything-replied, "I suppose, Mr. Smith, you know a great deal better than I do what to do with money and how what I got I had to work hard for. But I have looked round a good deal upon my neighbors, and seen what they did with their money, and I will tell you some things I saw and what I thought of it. One very rebel sympathisers to destroy our glorious rich man was always dealing in money, and he made a great deal, but he was never satisfied without high interest. So he lent all of his money to some people who he thought were very rich, at a very high rate; and he often told how much he got, till one day the people he lent to went to smash. He got back about ten cents on a dollar of his money. I know another old gentleman who had some bank stock, and he went to the bank to get ten per cent. dividend. The President and everybody said it was the best stock in the country-paid ten per cent. war, under Mr. Lincoln. He never held a But what did the old man do but sell his stock the next day! Why? why? said everybody. Because, it pays too much dicidend. And in six months the bank went demands of the Presidency, to head a party to smash. Now, that I know to be a fact. Well, Mr. Smith you say Railroad stocks are best, because they pay high dividends? Can you tell how long they will pay them? I like Railroads. I helped to build one, South America, then McClellan might be and I go in for useful things. But I tell you what I know about them. One-third of the Railroads don't pay any dividend, and two thirds (and some of them cracked ment stocks. Now that brings me to the Government securities, and I will tell you why I prefer them. I take it you will admit, Mr. Smith, that in the long run of investment which is best should have these qualities: First, it should be perfectly secure; secondly, that the income should be uniform and permanent-not up one year and down the next; thirdly, that it should be marketable, so when your wet day comes, and you want your money, you can get it by order of General McClellan, because back. And I think these notes or bonds

I tell you, I General McClellan was fully justified by have found out a great many things very useful for me to know. I found, by looking at the crops, the factories, and the shipping, &c., that we (I don't mean the Rebel States) are making a thousand millions of dollars a year more than we spend. So you see that (since the increase of debt isn't half that) we are growing rich instead of poorer, as John Bull and the croakers would have us think. Then the debt will be paid, anyhow, no matter how long the war is. Besides, did you ever hear of a Government that broke before the people did? Look into your big histories, Mr. Smith, and you will find the people break before the Governments. Well, then, I call that stock perfeetly secure.

"Secondly, you want the income uniform and permanent. Well, I want you to take up a list of banks, railroads, mines, insurance companies-anything you chooseand tell me (honor bright now!) how many have paid a uniform income for ten or twenty years. Not one in a hundred, Mr. Smith, and you know it.

"Now here is the Government will pay you without varying a tittle. Now I like something that gives me my income every

"Thirdly, you want something that is marketable any day in the year. Now, if you ask any bank President, he will tell you that Government stocks are the only kind of property that is always saleable, because they will sell anywhere in the world.

"Now, Mr. Smith, this is why I put my little savings in Government stocks. I confess, too, that I wanted to help that dear old country, which is my home and my

"I confess," said Mr. Smith, "I hadn't thought of all this. There is a good deal of sense in what you say, and I will go so far as to put two or three thousand dollars in United States stocks. It can do no harm."

We left Mr. Smith going towards the bank, and Poor Richard returning home, with that calm and placid air which indicated the serenity of his disposition and the country and his fellow man
