Union Mass Meeting.

A Mass Meeting of the friends of Lincoln and Johnson will be held at the Court House in Clearfield, on Wednesday evening of Court week, the 28th September. Come one and all.

Speakers will be in attendance. J. B. McNALLY, Chairman of County Committee.

Editor came to hand too late for publication this week. Will appear next week.

MR. CENNA'S SPEECH.—On our outside, this week, will be found Hon. John Cenna's speech, delivered at the Union ratification meeting in Independence Square, Philadelphia, on September 10th. Read it by all means, as it has the ring of the good old Democratic metal.

OUR OUTSIDE.—On the first page will be found several interesting articles—"A Picture" and "Shall we assume the Rebel War debt? And on the fourth page Mr. Gilmore's reply to Mr. Benjamin. Don't forget to read them, as they contain much sound logic and information.

THE LADY'S FRIEND for August is before us, and "Peep" a beautiful steel engraving, opens this number. The fashions are rich and elegant, and the reading matter interesting. Price $2.50 a year. Single numbers 25 cents. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Phila.

INCREASE OF SALARY.—According to notice, by the State Superintendent of Common Schools, the School directors of several of the districts in Clearfield county, meet in the Court House in this Borough, and by a vote of 16 to 6 raised our County Superintendent's salary to $1,000. We think that the School directors throughout the county have been rather slack in duty, when they imposed the responsibility of raising said salary on 22 out of 180 directors.

A GEM PICTURE FOR ALL.—We are in receipt of one of NELLIE WILLIAMS' new Gem Pictures of herself, set on Photograph card to suit any album, and said to be a perfect likeness of Nelly, a little girl who from her love of ambition commenced the publication of a little weekly newspaper in the Village of Penfield, Monroe County, N.Y., called the "Penfield Extra" before she was seven years of age, which has been prolific and self-sustaining from the commencement to the present time. Nellie is now in her fifteenth year and stands four feet eight inches in her boots, she has since eleven years of age, supported and educated her motherless sisters and assisted in supporting an invalid father from the swails of her little paper. A resolution was also proposed and adopted instructing the county committees of the District to take action, determining the number of Conferees to which each county will hereafter be entitled.

THE DIFFERENCE.—In a recent letter to the Press, "Occasional" contrasts the acceptance of President Lincoln and that of Gen. McClellan in the following forcible manner: "Believing that the views here expressed are those of the Convention and the people you represent, I accept the nomination." These words are contained in the last paragraph of the letter of acceptance of Major General George B. McClellan. "Are they true? That is the question. When we reflect that the man who writes these words was educated at West Point, and claims to be on that account, one of 'the chivalry,' and especially a soldier and a gentleman, we may well wonder at an assertion like his. He 'believes' that the views he expresses are those of the Convention that nominated him, and as he does not reject the platform, it is a fair presumption that he approves the resolution of that Convention which demands that 'immediate efforts be made for the cessation of hostilities.' In other words, that he sanctions the monstrous idea of an armistice between the Federal Government and the rebel traitors. But how are these two positions to be reconciled? The Convention practically declares in favor of an armistice. General McClellan declares in favor of continued war for the preservation of the Union; and in view of the fact that the one position defeats and rebukes and destroys the other, he coolly tells us that he believes his opinions expressed in his letter of acceptance are those of the Convention that nominated him! We remember nothing in the tergiversations of party politicians so discredit as this. General McClellan certainly could not have meant to say that the Convention declared in favor of an armistice, and yet approved his letter. Can he believe as he says? If he so, then the Convention is a fraud, or General McClellan himself has violated the truth. Now mark the difference between McClellan and Lincoln. When the resolutions of the Baltimore Convention were presented to Abraham Lincoln, he said, in a simple sentence, 'The nomination is gratefully accepted, as the resolutions of the Convention called the platform, are heartily approved.' No qualifications here; no false and dishonest front, but an earnest and emphatic endorsement of the work of the man who had put him before the people for election. He heartily approves the Baltimore platform, because in that platform there is not a word nor a sentence that has not been inspired by earnest attachment to the Government, by gratitude for our brave men in the army, by a desire to conclude peace on the basis of the restoration of the Union, by hatred to slavery as the cause of the war, by a determination to maintain the national faith inviolate and to redeem the public debt, and by utter ignoring of all sects or parties until the war is happily concluded and the Republic vindicated. But would you see that General McClellan fears it, and while writing a letter which he desires the people to understand as in opposition to it, he yet coolly says in his letter of acceptance that he believes the views he expresses in that letter are the views of the Convention itself! I think no man, in or out of public life, and no soldier, in or out of the army, has ever deliberately placed himself in a more inextricable dilemma.

CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE. At a meeting of the Union Conferees of the 19th Congressional District, in Ridgway on Thursday evening, the 15th inst., Benj. Harshorn, of Clearfield, was appointed President, and J. B. Gara of Erie, Sec'y. The list of Conferees being called for, the following gentlemen reported their names: Erie county—J. B. Gara, Anos Gould, S. E. Woodruff, W. W. Eaton, and S. B. Benson. Warren county—Harrison Allen and David McKelvy. McKean county—G. M. Smith, W. W. Brown and Dr. J. Darling. Elk county—Charles McVean, Henry Souther and W. W. Wilbur. Jefferson county—S. W. Temple, and Dr. A. M. Clark. (These gentlemen appeared in place of the regular appointed Conferees, by request of the Convention.) Cameron county—L. T. Moore and F. B. Hackett. Clearfield county—Benjamin Harshorn, Daniel Livingston and Wm. Woodward. On motion, J. B. Gara and Harrison Allen were appointed a committee on resolutions.

On motion of Henry Souther Esq'r, of Elk county, the Convention proceeded to nominate candidates for Congress. S. E. Woodruff Esq'r, of Erie county, named the Hon. G. W. Scofield, who being the only candidate proposed, was on motion of Mr. Souther nominated by acclamation.

S. B. Benson and Dr. J. Darling were then appointed a committee to inform Mr. Scofield of his nomination, and escort him to the Convention—he happened to be in the place. Mr. Scofield was immediately introduced, and after expressing thanks for the honor conferred, made some clear and forcible remarks in illustration of the importance of the present election campaign.

The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were adopted: Resolved, That in nominating, unanimously as we do, the Hon. G. W. Scofield as the Union candidate for Congress in the 19th District, we take pleasure in bearing testimony to his worth as a man and his ability and efficiency as a legislator, and cordially recommend him to the support of the loyal voters of the District. A resolution was also proposed and adopted instructing the county committees of the District to take action, determining the number of Conferees to which each county will hereafter be entitled.

It was then moved and seconded that the proceedings of the Convention be published in the various Union newspapers of the District, after which the Convention adjourned. Signed by the officers,

Very little of general importance has transpired in our armies during the past week. Some rebel cavalry succeeded in driving off a lot of cattle from near City point, on the James river, beside which nothing of an exciting nature has occurred. Certain, a Mexican commander is reported as being advanced upon, and driven the rebels out of Brownsville, Texas—hoisted the American flag—and offered his services, and that of his army, to the United States. There is said to have been much rejoicing among the Mexicans, and people of Brownsville, on seeing the Stars and Stripes once more unfurled in that city.

On Thursday, September the 15th, at the residence of Daniel Baily, by Rev. W. T. Richey, Mr. ALEXANDER SOLE of Bradford township, to Miss JOSEPHINE D. GROVE, of Pike township. With the above we received a liberal share of the wedding cake, for which kind remembrance we tender our sincere thanks to the happy couple—hoping that they may be blessed with love, peace and plenty to the end of life's journey.

A number of years have elapsed since the introduction of BITTERS to the public. The prejudice existing in the minds of many persons against what are designated patent medicines at first greatly retarded its sale, but as its virtues and merits became known, the barrier of prejudice was overthrown, and the demand increased so rapidly that in a few years scarcely a village existed in the United States in which the afflicted had not experienced the benefits arising from the use of the "Bitters," and at the present day there are to be found IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD vouchers for the great merits of the article. No greater cure for Dyspepsia can be found. Sold by Druggists and Dealers every where.
