RALLY! FREEMEN, RALLY!!

TURN OUT FRIENDS to the grand Union Rally at Curwensville, on Monday evening next, October 10th, at 6 o'clock. Speakers will be in attendance to address the people. S. J. ROW, Chairman Union Co. Com.

INFORMATION WANTED.—We find the name of Wm. Shippey on our subscription list, without his post office address. Will he, or some friend of his, be kind enough to forward us the name of his post office?

NEW GOODS.—Wm. F. Irwin has just opened a full and complete stock of new Dry Goods, ect., which he is offering to the public at reasonable prices. He has also just opened a large stock of shoes, the best we have seen this many a day, and there is no excuse now for people to go barefooted. Call at Irwin's and examine his stock, if you desire to purchase good merchandise of any kind. He has it for sale.

H. B. SWOOPÉ, Esq.—This gentleman left home on Monday morning, to address mass meetings in various parts of the State. This (Wednesday) evening he speaks at Franklin, and to-morrow at Oil City. Mr. Swoopé is one of the best speakers in Pennsylvania, and will no doubt, accomplish much good for the Union cause in the several localities where he is called upon to address the people.

Mr. Wade's Speech. On our outside, to-day, we publish the speech of Hon. B. F. Wade, delivered at Mendville, Pa., as reported for the Clearfield Leader. It is one of the most sarcastic criticisms on the Chicago Platform, that we have read. It is worthy a careful perusal by our readers.

Wonder if our Copperhead neighbor will publish this speech of Mr. Wade, as he published the Wade-Davis manifesto? Our neighbor should also give this "manifesto" to his readers "without the solicitation of a single Republican," by all means. Consistency is a jewel, you know, neighbor; so out with it, and don't gag at the dose, even if it should be a bitter pill.

GREAT UNION MASS MEETING. THE UNION MEN IN EARNEST. GREAT ENTHUSIASM.

The Union meeting on Wednesday evening (the 28th) at Clearfield, surpassed all expectation. A short time before the organization of the meeting, a large delegation—containing upward of sixty wagons—came in from Curwensville, and passed along the streets of our Borough. In the procession were several excellent martial bands, flags, banners and transparencies, bearing appropriate mottoes. This was one of the largest delegations that ever came into our town, and made a grand and imposing appearance. Our up river friends deserve great credit for the interest they manifested in turning out such a goodly number of their people. Quite a number of ladies were also in the procession. Thanks to them for their presence, and encouragement. The following named persons officiated as Marshals on the occasion, to wit: John M. Quilkin, M. A. Frank, El. Burchfield, John Mitchell, Fred Irwin, A. P. Moore, and M. B. Spackman. Much credit is due to these officers for the manner in which they performed their duties.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of Hon. JOHN P. HOYT, as President; John Dale, Sr., Fred K. Zeigler, Sanson Langle, Jacob Hoover and Geo. B. Smith, and 25 others as Vice Presidents; Samuel Kirk and 5 others as Secretaries. [The list of officers having been mislaid, we are unable to give all the names, and hence have only inserted the above.]

The meeting was successively addressed by the Hon. John Patton, Mr. Woodworth of Massachusetts, H. B. Swoopé and J. B. McEnally, Esq's.

Gen. Patton spoke of the bright prospects of success in other parts of the State. He never spoke better. Every word counted. His speech was brief, lively and received with the highest satisfaction.

Mr. Woodworth was then introduced. He had been in the army the last three years and knew the cruel spirit of the rebellion. He had seen enough to cause him to feel deeply and speak earnestly. He knew the rebel hope now was in the peace Democracy of the North. Re-elect Lincoln and the rebellion is certain to be crushed, and the Union preserved. He set forth in clear and earnest language the true nature of the contest, and the humiliating position of the party that supports McClellan and the Chicago platform. His speech was received with deep attention—interrupted frequently with applause.

H. B. Swoopé, Esq., followed in a speech of over an hour in length—rich, racy and eloquent. He showed up the "Peace Democracy," its speakers, platform and candidates, to the great disgust of some of the copperhead tribe, but to the satisfaction and delight of every body else.

J. B. McEnally Esq., was the next speaker. His speech, though brief, was one of the best we have ever heard him deliver, and it was received with unalloyed favor by the immense audience—a hearty response being given to the great truths which he presented. He was enthusiastically cheered.

The ladies too had done their part. They adorned the platform with wreaths of evergreens, and honored us with their presence—showing the most beautiful and fragrant bouquets on the officers and speakers, until they were almost covered with flowers.

The vast concourse of people, the good order, the excellent martial music, the happy and earnest appeals of the speakers, and enthusiasm of the people, all united to make it one of the largest and most successful political meetings ever held in Clearfield County.

A MAMMOTH ENTERPRISE.

By our advertising columns it will be seen that the two well known establishments, Thayer & Noyes' Circus and Van Amburgh & Co.'s Menagerie have effected an arrangement by which they will both travel together the present season, and exhibit in one mammoth tent for a single price of admission, forming a combination of attractions which cannot fail to draw out immense throngs of visitors wherever they may go. The Menagerie is said to include an unusually fine collection of living beasts and birds from all parts of the world, many of which have been imported within the last year, while all are in the best condition. Among other rare zoological features, this collection can boast of the largest lion in the country, a white Polar bear fresh from the Arctic ocean, a superb ostrich, a South American hippopotamus, the monster elephant "Hannibal," the largest quadruped on exhibition either in Europe or America. The Circus performances which are given at each exhibition, without extra charge, will consist of every variety of dashing horsemanship and extraordinary athletic feats, introducing one of the largest and most talented troupes ever brought together in this country. A stud of horses, ponies and mules unrivalled for extent, beauty and thorough training, completes the list of attractions included in this truly colossal combination, which is to exhibit here on Friday, October 7th. Those who enjoy a hearty laugh will have their cases attended to by Dr. J. L. Thayer, the inimitable humorist, who will enliven the scenes of the circus by his quaint drolleries, and also introduce his wonderful comic mules. Mons. Davis, a pupil of the great Van Amburgh, will manipulate the lions and tigers.

Our proximity to the earthworks of the enemy, requires almost constant watching, lest, in a thoughtless moment, we receive a rebel pill, in the shape of a minnie ball. Lately we have been constructing a new line of breastworks, at a point nearer Petersburg than that we previously occupied. We were hidden during our operations by a thick wood, this being partly cleared away, revealed to the astonished gaze of the Rebels, a strong defence closer than they imagined. Company K, which is composed mostly of the bone and sinew from Clearfield county, we assure you is not among the least valiant of the brave and hardy soldiers of the old 84th. We have not filled the tall monarchs of our native forest; nor cracked our rifle at the bounding deer, in vain. From our early habits we can now boast of development of strength, and precision of aim, which are excellent auxiliaries in prosecuting the well-aimed task of uprooting treason from the soil of our beloved Country. It will be needless to dwell graphically on our late luttles, skirmishes and hair-breadth escapes of life; nor of the way the old 2d Corps lately drubbed the stubborn Rebs, as the war correspondents have already posted you fully on this subject. Let it suffice, to assure our friends and former neighbors, that the work goes bravely on. We are pinching the "Johnnies" by confining them to their present ratholes. Soon we will have them in fair position.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

Letter from Philipsburg, Pa. PHILPSBURG, PA., OCT. 3, 1864.

DEAR JOURNAL.—The time is drawing near when the Union men of Pennsylvania will be called on to engage the enemy at the ballot box. One week from to-morrow, is the day set apart by law for the general election of this State. There has been no election, since the State was organized, as important to the voters of Pennsylvania, as this one. Matters of the most vital importance are at issue. As this election goes, so goes the Presidential election in November. Let no Union man stay at home, but go to the polls, and go early, see that every voter in your district is out, and that every qualified Union voter gets his vote. To ensure success, every one must be active, vigilant, and stirring. We have an active and wily enemy to oppose, an enemy that will leave no stone unturned. They will know their cause is "weak in the knees," and needs a powerful embossment to work a cure. They are on the alert, and have been for weeks; nothing has been left undone; they are out and dried. I hope the Union men have been no less active, and are as thoroughly prepared for the onset. But we must not stop until the day of battle is past. Do not rest or lay aside your exertions until the last moment of TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11th, and you will have the proud satisfaction of seeing your labors crowned with success, and a glorious victory for the Union cause, the result. Our brave and gallant soldiers in the field, expect us to work with a will never before heard of; they are up and doing, and send us greeting: "If you do your duty at home the day is ours."

I received letters last week from two soldiers in the Army of the Potomac. They are sanguine of success, as will be seen from the following extracts. "Well, Mac will lose the army vote, and if you folks at home do as well as we will, Old Abe will be the people's choice once more. I was at one time one of the strongest of the Union men; but I was in it, but 'birds of a feather will flock together,' so I can not go Woodward, or any other man, that does not want me to vote, for I am now as good a citizen, as if I was playing coward at home." Rather a bad show, that. All the soldiers are for McClellan, from the ring of that extract; but here is another. "The draft, I suppose, will bring some of the boys. They must be all copperheads that they all wait for the draft, when they can come for one year. I do not think they would have to stay six months. The rebels are coming in on our lines every day, and I think that the next fight, that is here, the Georgia troops will desert, they seem very much disappointed that they lost Atlanta. I think the copperheads will soon hang their heads. Little Mac will come out of the little end of the horn, for he will not get one vote in ten in this army. It is known by every soldier in the army, that the Democrats opposed the amendment, allowing the soldiers a right to vote, and it did not only kill Little Mac, but the whole Democratic party. How is Rush on the war question? (meaning Rush township.) I hear that some are running off. It will be a fine thing for the country if the traitors would all run off. If they had all gone long ago from the North, the war would have been over long since. I do not know how you feel on the election for Old Abe, but I think you are no McClellan man. I can not see how any good and true Union man, can vote for any other man than Old Abe, this election. It will be the means of killing the rebels, and the copperheads, who are a curse to the country. Another bad thing for the Democrats, Little Mac and the copperheads. And yet the backers of young Mr. McClellan, are circulating the story, that all the soldiers will vote for McClellan. The election in November will tell them a far different tale, and show them that these two soldiers, from whose letters I have taken the above extracts, have not prophesied wrongly.

Up then and at them, Union men. Come from your farms, your log jobs, your timber camps, your saw-mills, your workshops, your stores, and in short from all and every place. Walk up, ride up, climb up, crawl up, creep up, run up, jump up, any way at all; but be sure you are up. Be sure that every Union vote is up. If any one remains at home, and you are doubtful of his coming, send for him at 2-40 speed, and bring him up. Go to the work as if your life was at stake, for really the life of our country is at stake, and such a glorious, grand, and magnificent victory for the Union, as never before achieved in the loyal Old Keystone, will be ours. LEROI.

Letter from Petersburg, Va. CAMP 84TH PA. VOL'S. NEAR PETERSBURG, VA., SEPT. 19, 1864. S. J. ROW, Esq.—DEAR SIR: You will find forwarded by this mail, a communication expressive of the feelings of this company on the present condition of our country. By publishing it, you will confer a favor on the members of the company, who desire their opinions to be known. It is a company paper, and is a fair exponent of our sentiments on this unhappy Rebellion. Hope you will be able to make headway against the tide of disloyalty now beating against you, and be the instrument in changing the feverish disloyal temper of the people of our county to a healthy patriotism. I am sir, yours respectfully, J. H. R. 2d Serg't. Co. K, 84th Pa. Vol.

SALT.—A good article, and very cheap at the store of WM. F. IRWIN, Clearfield.

A number of years have elapsed since the introduction of BOSTETER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS to the public. The prejudice existing in the minds of many persons against what are designated patent medicines at first greatly retarded its sale; but, as its virtues and merits became known, this barrier of prejudice was overthrown, and the demand increased so rapidly that in a few years scarcely a village existed in the United States in which the afflicted had not experienced the benefits arising from the use of the "Bitters," and at the present day there are to be found IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD vouchers for the great merits of the article. No greater cure for Dyspepsia can be found. See advertisement. For sale by Druggists and dealers everywhere.

CAUTION.—The public are hereby cautioned against purchasing or inter-meddling with a pair of Grey horses, in the hands of Alexander Graham, as the same belong to me. Sept. 7th, 1864. ALLEN CUPLER
