Colonel Dunham, Commanding a rebel regiment under Early, wrote a letter some time since from Winchester, Va., to a friend of his in Brooklyn, L. I., in the course of which he said.

There can be no peace until Black Republicans and Abolitionists are silenced and reduced to an equality, or at least a level, with the niggers they claim as their equals. Let your Chicago Convention nominate Mr. Davis for the Presidency, and I know a majority of the delegates would vote for him if they dared-and on this election you can and this. The next best thing you can do is to nominate and elect McClellan."

The fellow who wrote this was a well known New York Democrat, who, in imitafron of Mansfield Lovell and G. W. Smith. also Gothamites, left New York to join the allence Republicans and Abolitionists, just taking the last extreme, recognition. as the Democratic party in Pennsylvania wanted to do when Hughes issued his ading of 1,800,000 citizens of the free States and BIGLER'S. CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

Letter from Petersburg, Va. WELDON R. R. VA., Oct. 3d, 1864.

FRIEND ROW: - I want to say a few words to the people of Clearfield County, through our columns: particularly to those who labor for the restoration of the Union, through an honorable termination of the War. The soldiers heartily thank their friends at home for the privilege, extended to them, of voting-they think, and with justice too, that they are just as capable of judging between good and evil, while in the service of their country, as they were when at home. If they are not to be intrusted with the security of the Nation, who are?

Now, what I want to say to the Unionloving people of Clearfield County, is, that every soldier must be assessed and he must have a receipt for tax paid, before he can le-gally vote. Who should attend to this? I think it is the Assessor's business to assess the soldier, and the Collector's business to seen for a number of years. It measured | collect the tax, if not from the soldier, from

Would this be doing too much for the country? Unless you attend to this, you will lose votes by thousands. Where the assessor and collector are "peace" men, this duty NOTICE.—The members of the Union, will rest upon other men, whose duty does County Committee are respectfully request- not require them to make any inquiry aed to meet in Clearfield Borough, on Satur- | bout these things, but they should see that all their friends in the United States service are prepared for the coming election. On the next Presidential election depends the restoration of the Union; the safety of the Nation. Did not the people of the free States enjoy all the privileges granted by the Constitution, before the war? You will enjoy the same after the war ends, and by supporting the present Administration you will extend those privilegs through the entire South, and thousands of the downtrodden and oppressed will rise to bless you.

It the North will show to the world, at bling was in November, whereas the time | the election in November, that they are defor their reassembling is Friday, October termined to establish the authority of the Constitution and laws over every foot of teritory in the so-called "Confederacy" the Rebellion will not last a year longer; but if the McClellan party is successful, the war may continue three or four years longer. I think the re-election of Abraham Lincoln is almost a fixed fact, and the more quiet the opposition party is, the shorter will be the 11th, some scoundrels broke into the shop war.
