FAILED TO REPORT.

We learn that more than one half of the drafted men from this county have failed to report. This is not as it should be. All well disposed persons should submit to the laws of our country, under any and all circumstances. Many, no doubt, are laboring under the mistaken idea that another draft will be made to fill up the deficiency. But we feel assured that no farther draft will be made for this county, until the men already drafted are disposed of.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—We learn from the NOVEMBER number of this NEW MAGAZINE OF FASHION AND LITERATURE, that it has already attained a large circulation. The aim of its publisher is to rival the three dollar magazines in the quality of their engravings and contents. We have scarcely left ourselves room to speak of the NOVEMBER number, but we may briefly state that there is a beautiful and touching steel engraving, called "THE EMPTY CRADLE"—a very handsome DOUBLE COLORED FASHION PLATE—a quantity of other engravings, some of them very pretty, and all very useful to the ladies—a piece of music, and the usual assortment of interesting stories, poetry, &c. Price $2.50. Address Deacon and Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

BACKED OUT!

It was announced in the last Clearfield Republican, as well as in handbills, that a public discussion of political topics was to come off on Oct. 31st, at Luthersburg, between S. B. Benson, Esq., of Erie County, and Dr. Thomas Jefferson Boyer, of Clearfield County. "This" remarks the Republican, "is the true system—the Democracy would profit by it." But, it would appear, the illustrious Doctor "could not see it" in that light, and hence, instead of "coming to time," backed out, the excuse being that he was drafted and had to report at Waterford on the 1st. This, we are inclined to think, is the "true system" and will "profit the Democracy" more than public discussion, especially in Brady, and we have no doubt that for once the Copperhead leaders have found the "draft" a good thing.

A Shooting Affair.

On Monday afternoon, our town was thrown into quite an excitement on hearing the firing of revolvers. Several persons named Lounsberry, as we have heard the story related, followed Joseph Miller around town, with the intention of shooting him. At about 4 o'clock three of the Lounsberry's made at Miller, who was standing in the Mansion House door at the time, but Miller kept them at bay by kicking two of them, and then retreating into the bar-room and locking the door. One of the Lounsberry's then made an attempt to hoist a window, when Miller fired his revolver at him, but the ball missed. Lounsberry then ran to the other window when Miller fired the second shot—the ball cutting Lounsberry's pants on the left hip. It is alleged by some that the latter also fired once. This ended the affair; and after indulging in some hard swearing and loud talking the outsiders dispersed—Miller remaining in the house during the evening. This affair grew out of the melancholy tragedy which occurred near this place on Sunday—an account of which will be found in another column.

RALLY ROUND THE FLAG, BOYS.

Rally round the flag, boys, Give it to the breeze; That's the banner we love, On the land and seas. Brave hearts are under it, Let the traitors brag; Gallant lads fire away! And fight for the flag. Rally round the flag, boys, Give it to the breeze! That's the banner we love, On the land and seas. Let the colors fly, boys, Guard them day and night, For victory is liberty, And God will bless the right. THEIR flag is but a rag, OURS is the true one. UP with the Stars and Stripes! Down with the new one! Let our colors fly, boys, Guard them day and night, For victory is liberty, And God will bless the right.

"LIBERTY" is the word, boys, UNION BE OUR STRENGTH! ABRAHAM shall bring us, VICTORY at length; ANDY JOHNSON aid him; GRANT will clear the way, Copper's at a discount— McCLELLAN doesn't pay— Rally round the flag, boys, On its folds we see, Blazoned "ABE AND ANDY, TRUE TO LIBERTY!"

"If Swoope does Sam. Row's praisings, as well as lying of course nobody ought to complain."—Dan Moore. Then, why do you make so much fuss about it, neighbor? Did the shoe pinch your toes a little? But, who does your praisings? We know who does your "lying." Is there anything "personal" about that?

Friend of the Union! Look out for frauds and traitors.

DREADFUL TRAGEDY IN CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

A UNITED STATES OFFICER KILLED BY A DESERTER!

On last Friday evening, Col. Cyrus Butler and Lieut. David Van Vliet, officers in the service of the U. S. Government, came to Clearfield to arrest deserters. On Saturday night, 29th October, having reason to believe that the notorious J. O. Lounsberry would be at his house, about three miles north of Clearfield borough, Butler and Van Vliet, went thither. Just as day was breaking, on Sunday morning, Lounsberry came out of the house, and proceeded to the barn, probably for the purpose of feeding his stock. The light was, as yet, too indistinct, to admit of his recognition to a certainty; but on his return to the house, all doubts on this score were removed, and the officers at once rapidly approached the house in the hope of preventing his entrance. This they would have succeeded in had it not been for a second door on the rear side of the house, into which Lounsberry rushed, closely pursued by the officers, who called upon him to stop. This demand was, as a matter of course, unheeded, and Lounsberry ran up stairs, followed by Butler and Van Vliet. The stairway was too narrow to admit of more than one ascending, except by following each other. Butler went up ahead, Van Vliet following close after. Col. Butler had proceeded nearly to the top of the stairs, when Lounsberry fired at him with a rifle, from inside of the door, the ball taking effect in the left side of the abdomen of Butler, who at once fired upon Lounsberry with a navy revolver, with what effect was not known. Lounsberry then rushed out and struck Butler across the head with such force that he broke the gun-stock, and then grappled Lieut. Van Vliet. In this encounter, the latter dropped his revolver, but struck Lounsberry a blow with his fist, knocking him down the stairway. Lounsberry, however, recovered before Van Vliet could get to him, and running out of the back door made good his escape. It is believed that Lounsberry was wounded by one of the shots fired by Col. Butler, as blood was found on the line of his tracks.

Col. Butler was brought to this place, on Sunday, when Drs. Wood, Hartswick, Wilson and Spaekman examined and dressed his wounds. But all was vain; for on Monday morning, at about 2 o'clock, he died. Thus Lounsberry has added to his other violations of law, the horrible crime of MURDER for Col. Butler was an officer of the Government, trying to discharge his duty, and that only. He and Lieut. Van Vliet came here, at the request of Provost Marshal Campbell, to arrest deserters.

We have endeavored to give the facts of this tragical affair as nearly as we have been able to ascertain them; and we regard the affair as the natural result of the teachings of the Copperhead leaders, who refused to extend the aid of either men or money to the Government, and talked of "a free fight or a free hallor!" The blood of Col. Butler rests heavily upon their shoulders, and it remains to be seen how far they will, in the future, be sustained in this county by the honest and law-abiding people.

On Monday morning an Inquisition was summoned by Esquire Shugart, which, after eliciting the facts from witnesses called, filed a verdict, setting forth that "the said Cyrus Butler a regularly appointed Provost Marshal by the Government authorities, in the discharge of his duties, was shot in the belly about three inches above and to the left of the navel," which caused his death.

N. B. It is rumored here, through what source is best known to those who furnish the information, that Lounsberry received a flesh wound on the lower part of the arm.

A Fair Election or a Free Fight. We have still further developments in connection with the election frauds on the soldiers, connected at Albany under the supervision of the minions of Gov. Seymour, and attempted to be put into force in the army to cheat the soldiers while in the exercise of the elective franchise. For three or four months past, the Democratic leaders have been hoistering in their vehement declarations that they would either have "a fair election or a free fight." That cry was raised to cover the transactions which have just been discovered, so that while the poor dupes of the Democratic leaders at home were searching in drunken merriment about "a fair election or a free fight," these leaders were concealing the most stupendous frauds to cheat the soldiers. We consider that the whole game is worthy of the cause of George B. McClellan, and we have not the least doubt that the scheme was resorted to with his full knowledge and approval. He has cheated the soldiers and the Government equally as shamefully as the New York politicians had prepared to defend them. He and his party are ready to-day for any dirty work to rescue their friends in the South from the impending ruin which overshadows their career.—Telegraph.

JEFF DAVIS, in his Columbia speech, says he has "tried every possible means of settlement honorable to ourselves, based on a recognition of our independence." This is about as cool a bit of impudence as has yet appeared. The preliminary step in the negotiation was to be a dissolution of the Union, and a recognition of the independence of the Confederacy. That little matter being settled, JEFF, thinks that terms of peace might be agreed upon; but it seems that Mr. Lincoln was so unreasonable as to refuse to take even that preliminary step.

To the Polls! Friends of the Union.

A number of years have elapsed since the introduction of ROBERTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS to the public. The prejudice existing in the minds of many persons against what are commonly called patent medicines at first greatly retarded its sale; but, as its virtues and merits became known, this barrier of prejudice was overthrown, and the demand increased so rapidly that in a few years scarcely a village existed in the United States in which the afflicted had not experienced the benefits arising from the use of the "Bitters," and at the present day there are to be found IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD vouchers for the great merits of the article. No greater cure for Dyspepsia can be found. See advertisement. For sale by Druggists and dealers everywhere.

FOR SALE AT REASONABLE PRICES A MERRILL AND BIGLER'S Clearfield, Pa.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes, payable in three years from August 10, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three tenths per cent. per annum—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, and subscriptions may be for fifty dollars or some multiple of fifty dollars.

The notes will be transmitted to the owners free of transportation charges as soon after the receipt of the original certificates of deposit as they can be prepared.

As the notes draw interest from August 15th, persons making deposits subsequent to that date may pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit.

Parties depositing twenty-five thousand dollars and upwards for these notes at any one time will be allowed a commission of one-quarter of one per cent. which will be paid by the Treasury Department upon a receipt for the amount, certified to by the officer with whom the deposit was made. No deductions for commissions must be made from the deposits.

Special advantages of this Loan. It is a National Savings Bank, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the most security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in U. S. Notes, considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either government securities or in notes or bonds payable in government paper.

It is equally convenient as a temporary or permanent investment. The notes can always be sold for within a fraction of their face and accumulated interest, and are the best security with banks as collaterals for discount.

Convertible into Six per cent. 5-20 Gold Bonds.—In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than NINE PER CENT. PREMIUM, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate is not less than ten per cent. per annum.

Its exemption from State and Municipal Taxation.—But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special Act of Congress exempts all bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies or separate communities, only is pledged for payment, while the whole prerty of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States.

While the government offers a most liberal terms for its Loans, it believes that the very strongest appeal will be to the loyalty and patriotism of the people.

Duplicate certificates will be issued for all deposits. The party depositing must endorse upon the original certificate the denomination of notes required, and whether they are to be issued in blank or payable to order. When so endorsed it must be left with the office receiving the deposit, to be forwarded to the Treasury Department.

Subscriptions will be received by the Treasurer of the United States at Washington; the several Assistant Treasurers and Designated Depositories, and by the First National Bank of Altoona, and by all National Banks which are depositories of public money, and ALL RESPECTABLE BANKS AND BANKERS throughout the country will give further information and afford every facility to subscribers. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, by an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the several supplements thereto, it is provided, that the electors of the several counties of the Commonwealth, qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, shall also vote for the same members shall have been voted for at the preceding election. On the First Tuesday next after the First Monday of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and forty, and on the same day in every fourth year thereafter, for the purpose of electing Electors of President and Vice President of the United States

Therefore, I, EDWARD PERKS, High Sheriff of Clearfield county, in pursuance of the duty enjoined on me by the Act above referred to, and the supplements thereto, issue this my proclamation, giving Notice to the electors of the county of Clearfield, qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, to meet at their several election districts on TUESDAY, the 8th day of NOVEMBER next, and there, between the hours of eight o'clock in the morning, and seven o'clock in the evening of said day, to vote for Twenty-seven Electors of a President and Vice President of the United States. And that the several Judges, Inspectors and Clerks who shall have attended at the preceding General Election are required to attend and perform the aforesaid duties, and be subject to alike penalties for neglect of duty or misconduct as they shall be liable at said General Election.

The electors of the county of Clearfield will take notice that the said election of Electors of President and Vice President will be held at the following places, viz:

- At the house of Samuel M. Smith for Beccaria township.
