GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for December, is before us, and fully sustains its heretofore enviable reputation. See advertisement in another column.

To-morrow is the day appointed by the President as a general thanksgiving to Almighty God, for his favors to us as a Nation. We hope our citizens will observe it.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, for December, has been received, and is truly a splendid number. This work has been increasing in popularity, monthly, and destined to rank high in the estimation of the public. Price $2.20. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut St., Philadelphia.

THE ARMY VOTE.—Below we give the vote in Companies E and B of the 149th regiment, from this county, as furnished us by one of the officers:

Company E, Lincoln 17, McClellan 2. Company B, Lincoln 16, McClellan 1. This is the vote of the men, in those companies, from this county alone.

The Decline in Gold. Since the result of the election has been known, Gold has continued to decline, notwithstanding all the efforts of the Bulls to keep it up. It was quoted at 2.49 1/2 on the day before the election. On Monday the closing quotation was 2.17 1/2. The general impression is that it will go lower, and the gamblers are terribly excited in consequence.

Death of John M'Pherson, Esq. The community will be pained to learn the demise of John M'Pherson, Esq. He died on Sunday night about twelve o'clock, aged 56 years, 3 months, and 29 days. His disease was cancer in the neck, and its fatal termination was not unexpected. He bore his long protracted illness with calm resignation, and as it approached the end his mind was tranquil and serene.

His loss will be deeply felt and sincerely mourned. He was in every sense of the word, a true man. He enjoyed the esteem and confidence of the entire community. In a business life of more than thirty years, no man ever had occasion to lay aught to his charge that could mar his stainless reputation. He was repeatedly called upon by his fellow citizens to occupy positions of trust and responsibility. He was Treasurer of the County, during two terms. In every place, under all circumstances, and at all times, he bore himself in such a manner as commanded universal confidence and respect. Few who knew him, but will drop a tear to his memory.

Death of Two Noble Soldiers. We have been pained to hear of the death of the brothers Ephraim, and Eli Patton Liddick, who were in the army from this county. Ephraim died of dysentery, at Bonanza Hundred, on the 9th instant, in the twenty-first year of his age. He was a member of Company A, 206th P. V. He died in one of the New-York hospitals, during the past week, aged sixteen years. He belonged to Company F, 107th Penn'a Regiment. They leave a widowed mother, who resides near Curwensville, to mourn their untimely loss.

There is something peculiarly sad in the death of these brothers, so far separated from each other, and yet dying almost at the same time. The lives of both were bright with promise. Ephraim will be remembered by many of our citizens, for his noble speech delivered on the last Fourth of July, and which was published in our columns at the time. He possessed more than usual talent, and early in the history of this terrible war, gallantly took his life in his hand, and laid it an offering on the altar of his country's liberty. Sad indeed, is the widowed mother's bereavement. Sincere and earnest should be the sympathy of those in defence of whose liberties these noble boys have yielded up their fresh young lives. May they rest in peace, may their memories be ever green, and may the mother's heart receive the rich consolation of His grace, who can alone temper the wind to the shorn lamb.

The Promotion of Gen. Sheridan. WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, NOV. 14, 1864. Ordered by the President:—GENERAL ORDERS No. 282.—I. That the resignation of George B. McClellan, as Major General in the United States Army, dated November 8th, and received by the Adjutant General on the 10th inst., be accepted as of the 5th of November.

That for the personal gallantry, military skill, and just confidence in the courage and patriotism of his troops displayed by Philip H. Sheridan, on the 19th day of October, at Cedar Run, whereby, under the blessing of Providence, his routed army was reorganized, a great national disaster averted, and a brilliant victory achieved over the rebels for the third time, in pitched battle within thirty days, Philip H. Sheridan is appointed Major General in the United States Army, to rank as such from the 8th of November, 1864.

By order of the President of the United States, E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

One hundred and seventy-five professional bounty-jumpers have been arrested in Luzerne and sent to the front in troops.

The Shenandoah Valley. WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—On Monday Nov. 14th another victory was gained by General Torbert's cavalry near Newton, but after several hours maneuvering and skirmishing, witnessed by General Sheridan and most of his general officers, the rebel cavalry fell back to and through Newton in confusion. During the time of the engagement General Early was advancing with his infantry, and had reached Middletown, when he met his retreating cavalry and halted. A reconnaissance was made on Monday by our forces as far as Cedar creek. It was ascertained that Early had crossed the creek during the night, and was in occupation of Fisher's Hill, from which he must have begun his retreat to Lynchburg, if a former dispatch is correct. During the present campaign in the Shenandoah Valley, the 1st Cavalry Division, commanded by Gen. Merritt, has captured 14 battle-flags, 29 pieces of artillery, 18 caissons, 100 wagons and ambulances, and 2,000 prisoners of war, including 122 commissioned officers. Since the 1st of May last the command has captured 3,000 prisoners of war.

Sharp Game of the Rebels Detected. The rebels have lately been playing a sharp game in front of our line on the Appomattox. At this point there is a small creek in front of our line, across which they have built a dam, which has threatened to force back our picket line to a dangerous extent. To counteract this project, General Egan had devised works which he superintended personally. On visiting a part of the line on Sunday night, a rebel sharpshooter succeeded after several attempts in wounding him, the ball entering the right fore-arm, passing diagonally down several inches, and out at the wrist. The wound is a very painful one, but not dangerous. He goes home on a leave of twenty days, and it is hoped he will be able to return to his command by the time his furlough expires. Another sharp fight occurred between the pickets last night about ten o'clock, which lasted about an hour, without any noticeable result.

MARRIED. At Tyone, Nov. 16th 1864, by Samuel Jones, Esq., Mr. WALTER B. MORGAN, to Miss OLIVIA REECE, all of Clearfield Co. P.A.

At her residence in Philadelphia, Centre county, on the 15th day of November 1864, Mrs. M. CARLISLE, wife of Samuel Carlisle Esq., and daughter of the late Dr. Henry Lorraine of this place, in her 31st year.

It is seldom our immediate community has been more startled than by the news of the death of Mrs. M. Carlisle—a death so sudden, so unexpected. In the very bloom of her young womanhood—just after fairly entering upon life as a wife and mother, she has been snatched away. The painful news brought tears to many eyes here, where she was born and reared, and where dwelt all the friends and companions of her youth. Few women indeed, were more esteemed than Mrs. Carlisle. Hers was a noble, nature. Kind, cheerful, affectionate, always ready to sympathize with the afflicted, she was endeared to all who knew her. A devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church during most of her life, death, though he come suddenly, found her ready. She has left a young husband and child, and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. Truly and she whose hearts are dry as summer dust; Burn to the socket.

CAUTION.—All persons are hereby cautioned against purchasing or meddling with a certain yoke of red and white oxen, now in possession of John P.
