

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV. 30, 1864.

Tyone and Clearfield Railroad. Train leaves Tyone at 8.55 a. m. Arrives at Philadelphia at 11.00 a. m.

CORRECTION.—We have been requested to state, that in the Commissioners' Notice to Collectors, as heretofore published, an omission occurred. The corrected notice will be found under our head of "New Advertisements," to-day.

A DESERTER CAUGHT.—We clip the following from the Elk County Advertiser: "Deputy Marshall, A. H. Head, left on the Eastern train to-day for Harrisburg, having in charge one Harry Fisher, arrested as a deserter from the regular service."

IMPORTANT CHANGE.—We learn that Provost Marshall Campbell is about to remove his headquarters to Ridgway, Elk county. It is expected that the Board of Enrollment will be fully established there about the 15th of December.

GOOD ADVICE.—A large number of packages intended for the army arrived at Washington postoffice with the wrappers destroyed, or the address so mutilated that they cannot be forwarded, and are therefore necessarily sent to the Dead Letter Office.

OUR STREET CROSSINGS.—It is a burning disgrace to our town that in crossing the street pedestrians are compelled to wade ankle deep in mud. It is next to impossible for ladies to get across at all.

THE OIL WELL.—The oil-well is progressing favorably. It is now down about thirty feet. They bore night and day, and average about six feet in twenty-four hours.

HOW TO PREVENT WET FEET.—A writer in the Mechanics' Magazine, who says he has had three pair of boots last him six years, and thinks he will not require any more for six years to come, tells how he treats them.

Letter from Phillipsburg, Pa. PHILIPSBURG, PA., Nov. 28th, 1864. DEAR JOURNAL.—We have had a taste of winter during the past week, but for the last few days the weather has been moderate, and the circulating population are moving to and fro as usual.

CANDY AS A DESSERT.—Pure sugar and candies, says Hall's Journal of Health, do not injure the teeth, except indirectly by their injudicious use, in exciting acidity of stomach, or dyspepsia, as will any other kind of food, or drink, or beverage.

Do unto others, as you would that others should do unto you.

Our Railroad. If our citizens do not take some interest in the extension of the Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad, they may wake up some fine morning and find themselves left in the lurch, by the proposed extension west from Osceola.

The proposed change of the route of the Pennsylvania Railroad, so as to avoid the Summit Tunnel, is also worthy of our immediate attention. If Tyrone is made the point at which this change of route will be commenced, the road will probably run through the Southern part of this county.

THANKSGIVING. In accordance with the Presidential and gubernatorial proclamations, Thursday last was generally observed in this community as a day of thanksgiving.

Service was held here, in the Presbyterian church. The congregation was large and attentive. The ceremonies, conducted by the Rev. W. E. Ljams, were singularly appropriate and impressive.

In Curwensville services were held in the Methodist church, and were conducted by the Rev. L. M. Gardner. The sermon was from the last verse of the XXXIII chapter of Deuteronomy.

It is spoken of as one of Mr. Gardner's best efforts. The congregation went home delighted. He is, indeed, one of the most eloquent preachers in the East Baltimore Conference.
