PERSONAL.—The individual who borrowed our umbrella, several weeks since, will please return it soon, or we will send Constable Shugart after the person, as well as the umbrella.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER.—It is with regret that we announce the death of Corporal Joseph Bush, of the 2d Penn'a Cavalry. He died in hospital of chronic diarrhœ, on the 28th of November. He was a brave and efficient officer and soldier, and his companions in arms deeply lament his death. May he rest in peace.

THE WEATHER.—During the past week we were favored with tolerable fair winter weather. On Wednesday evening last, the snow had reached a depth of six or eight inches, and sledding was tolerable good. But on Sunday and Monday of this week, the air moderated very much, which, with some rain, caused the greater portion of the snow to disappear. On Tuesday, however, the atmosphere got colder, and this morning (Wednesday) some snow fell.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—We have concluded not to issue a Journal next week, for various reasons. We have broken some of the fixtures about our press, which will require several days to make the necessary repairs, and as we are still short of hands are unable to do so and put out a paper. Besides, we have several rollers to make, and a number of other things to put in order in the office. We hope our readers will receive this explanation as a sufficient apology for the non-appearance of the Journal next week.

DESERTERS ARRESTED.—We learn that seven others, besides those arrested in Knox township, have been apprehended in Clearfield and Centre counties by the 16th Veteran Reserves, since their arrival at Philipsburg, to wit: Wm. Heman, bounty jumper; Daniel Moore, deserter from 110th Pa. Vol.; Simon P. Wetzel, deserter from draft; Robert A. Keefer, deserter from 112th Pa. Vol.; Geo. B. Albright, deserter from 5th Pa. Res.; John M'Coy, deserter from draft; and J. J. Icklin, deserter from 16th Veteran Reserve Corps.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK—for January, 1865—is before us. It is the best number that has been issued, and may truly be called a "Premium number—unrivalled and unapproachable." Two magnificent Steel Plates, a superior colored Fashion-plate, and fourteen other large engravings, grace its pages—besides crochet patterns, latest styles of bonnets, collars, caps, capes etc., making in all about 80 engravings. It also gives us pleasure to state that the slight advance in price has not prevented persons from subscribing for 'Godey'; and the reason is obvious: because it is really the Ladies favorite, and under no circumstances will they do without it. See advertisement in another column of to-day's Journal.

THE LADY'S FRIEND.—The January number of the Lady's Friend is already on our table, and fully bears out the high reputation of this new monthly, which is now entering upon the second year of its existence. The leading steel engraving, "Hush! it is Asleep," is a beautiful picture, and will doubtless go right to the hearts of the ladies. The Fashion Plate—a double one, as usual—is very handsome indeed, admirably engraved on steel, and richly colored. Then there is a colored design of a Work Table Companion, a very useful lady, as she seems, in red and yellow and blue; and numerous other engravings of the Fashions, Work Table Department, and many other things both useful and ornamental. Price $2.50; 2 copies $4.00; 9 copies $16.00; 21 copies $35.00 Specimen numbers will be sent to those desirous of making up clubs for 15cts. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia. Now is the time to send on subscriptions for 1865.

A FIGHT IN KNOX TOWNSHIP.

Eighteen Deserters Arrested and one Killed

About two weeks since the 16th Regiment of the Veteran Reserve corps arrived at Philipsburg, which has been made a military post on account of its being the terminus of the Rail-road. The object in sending these troops into this section of the State was to arrest deserters and drafted men who failed to report.

Accordingly on Tuesday evening the 13th, Major Goebel sent a detachment of fifty or sixty men, under command of Capt. Southworth, to Knox township in this county, to arrest a gang of deserters, who, he had learned, would be at Tom Adams' house on that evening. Part of this force was in sleds, and the remainder mounted. A little after midnight they arrived at the place designated, and at once surrounded the house. The cavalry being properly posted, the infantry at once advanced to the door, when some one within cried out, "The soldiers are here!" Capt. Southworth at once rushed into the house with his men and arrested all the inmates—nineteen of whom proved to be deserters and drafted men. Tom Adams a notorious deserter and leader of the gang, was on the second floor at the time. On going to a window he saw the soldiers outside, and at once fired with a musket at them, (killing a young man named Read, from Claremont, New Hamshire, a buckshot having struck him in the head,) and then endeavored to make his escape by jumping from the window to the ground. A volley from those posted outside, however, brought him suddenly to a "halt"—several balls having pierced his body. He lived but a few minutes after he was shot—thus having forfeited his life in a most iniquitous cause. The foregoing are the facts, as near as we have been able to obtain them.

Among those arrested are Stephen A. Durbin of the 55th Pa. Vol., Daniel Timolin of the 82d, Wm. Brown of the 55th, and Daniel Brant of the 184th, all deserters: and Dr. J. J. Krise and George Nagle, deserters from the draft. The names of the others who were arrested in Knox township, we have failed to procure.

This affair, which must be regarded as the legitimate offspring of the spirit of lawlessness which has been engendered in this county by the bad advice and inflamatory harrangues of designing demagogues, who could just as readily have directed their followers in the right as in the wrong way, ought to, if it does not, satisfy the misguided men in our midst that the Government has the power to enforce the laws, and that its iron grasp will be laid upon all who attempt to resist its authority. We hope for the credit of the county at large, but more particularly for the sake of the law-abiding portion of our citizens, that we may not again be called upon to record such a lamentable event. Should any other troubles of the above character arise, those who bring them upon themselves, will do so with a full knowledge of the fearful consequences they must inevitably incur, and the fault will rest entirely with themselves.
