MORE DESERTERS ARRESTED.—We learn that several more deserters have been arrested in various sections of the county within the past week, and that the total number of arrests now exceed one hundred and fifty.

AT HOME.—Lieut. Robert A. Mitchell, of Company E 149th Pa. Vol., is now in this place, on a visit to his friends. Lieut. M. looks exceedingly well. Soldiering seems to agree with him. He says that Capt. Row, Lieut. Liddle, and all the "boys" are well and hearty.

BUCKTAILS WANTED.—Company E 149th Pa. Vol., having received orders to wear their distinctive badge, (a buck-tail,) would request their friends in Clearfield county to furnish the requisite number, if possible. If left at the Journal office, they will be forwarded at an early day.

SNOW AND TIMBER.—During the past ten days we have had excellent sledding, and much timber has been hauled to the streams. On Monday night and Tuesday some rain fell and caused much of the snow to melt. The prospect for a usual supply of square timber is, however, rather dull.

CARELESS WRITING.—We note from the recent report of the Postmaster General, an extraordinary amount of carelessness on the part of the letter writing community. Three million five hundred and eight thousand were received of dead letters during the last year; many of which contained money, deeds, checks, jewelry and other valuables. Some of them were misdirected, others not directed at all, others unstamped and others only partially directed. Thousands of these were returned to the writers, but the great majority were destroyed. These facts should teach the public to be more careful in their correspondence; for the amount of suspense and suffering occasioned by these lost letters is incalculable; and officials are censured where the fault rests with the authors.

CORRECT THE ENROLLMENT.—By reference to our new advertising columns, the reader will find a notice of Capt. Campbell, informing the citizens of Clearfield county of the meeting of the Enrollment Board in Clearfield Borough, on the 26th, 27th and 28th days of January, 1865, for the purpose of correcting the Enrollment Lists. As much dissatisfaction has existed heretofore in several of the sub-districts in this county, we hope that an effort will be made to have the proper corrections made, when the Board assembles in this place. The suggestion of Capt. Campbell, that committees be appointed to attend to this matter, is a good one. Then go to work at once. Ascertain who is likely to be exempted on account of alienage, over age, under age, or for physical disability and for previous service in the army, and those who have left the districts—setting forth the facts in each individual case, properly certified to for presentation to the Board. The responsibility of having the lists corrected, now rests with each man enrolled, and we trust that it will be promptly attended to.

Significant Facts.
It is one of the curious circumstances of the war, not to be lost sight of that through an agent the people of Savannah, so lately one of the rebel strongholds, are now soliciting aid, as to food especially, in the city of New York. Perhaps this is no more suggestive, however, than the fact that they do not ask in vain. These facts are pregnant with significant—the prelude to the grand fact that will succeed the early collapse of the rebellion. Is it not true that the North should make suitable preparations in view of it? There are other Savannahs, and Sherman is moving. Even for Charleston there is in the North enough, and there exists the Christian spirit, under the old flag, to give all that may be required.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE JOURNAL.

PHILIPSBURG, January 5, 1865.

S. J. Row, Esq.:—Sir: The following sums have been paid over to the Sanitary and Christian Commissions at Philadelphia: $26.00, balance of money collected by the Soldiers Aid Society; $27.30, money collected by the Lincoln party, for a Union Jubilee; but afterwards voted to the Sanitary and Christian Commissions. A Soldiers Hospital is now being fitted up in this place, and the money is to be appropriated for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers of the Veteran Reserve corps. Please publish. Yours Truly, J. E. W.

PENNVILLE, JANUARY 6th, 1865.

MR. ROW:—Sir: By giving the following a place in your columns, you will confer a favor on one of your subscribers:

Our Soldiers and the Ladies.

On the morning of Wednesday the 4th instant, a number of sleds and sleighs were seen winding their way from Pennville to Curwensville, filled to overflowing with gentlemen and ladies, with happy hearts and smiling faces, interspersed with sundry baskets and boxes well stored with creature comforts—such as would be prized by weary and hungry soldiers. In good time the cavalcade safely drew up at the Susquehanna House. After some preliminary arrangements, the ladies, 20 or 30 in number, formed in double line, headed by Abraham Spencer, accompanied by a goodly number of gentlemen from Penn township and other places, started for the soldiers' rendezvous. On arriving at the headquarters, they were most cordially received by Capt. Kerr, and other soldiers; and in the most kindly manner shown throughout their very comfortable stay in the house lately occupied by Wm. Irwin, Esq. The ladies took great interest in examining, in every particular, the equipments, lodging apartments and cooking conveniences—the gallant soldiers taking special pains to gratify every wish of female curiosity.

After being fully satisfied of seeing and being seen, the assembled visitors were invited to the spacious piazza in front of the mansion, while the soldiers were formed in double line on the lawn, when all parties were gratified by listening to an introductory address from Hon. John Patton, in which he informed Capt. K. and his brave comrades, that although he was sorry to say that there were many disloyal people in Clearfield county, yet he could vouch for the loyalty of those present—many of whom had fathers, sons, brothers and husbands in the army of their country; some of whom have sealed their devotion to their country's cause with their blood.

After Mr. Patton closed, Mr. John Russell was introduced, and entertained the audience by reading a very interesting address, in which he heartily lamented the necessity for the present display of military force in our midst, but freely endorsed the wisdom and necessity of the measure—trusting that no relaxing of the present means should be tolerated until every rebel and rebel sympathizer, both north and south, shall hide his deformed and traitorous head.

When Mr. Russell closed, Capt. Kerr called on the soldiers to give three cheers for the ladies of Penn, which were given with a will. After which the company separated, mutually well pleased with the interview.

A CITIZEN OF PENN.

THE NEW YORK BOUNTY.—The Common Council of New York have withdrawn the liberal offer of one $1,000 bounty, and substituted the old offer of three hundred dollars, and fifty dollars "pocket money." The number of men to be raised to fill the quota of the city is three thousand five hundred.

RAILROAD AND STEAMBOAT ACCIDENTS.

There were more people killed and wounded by railroad accidents last year than in any preceding year since 1854. One hundred and forty accidents occurred; four hundred and four lives were lost, and one thousand eight hundred and forty-six persons were wounded. The transportation of troops does not account for this increase; for the railroads transported quite as many soldiers in 1863, and yet the number of accidents and the number of killed and wounded were nearly double those of that year. The steamboat accidents in 1864 were less frequent and fatal. They did not exceed the average for the last ten years; but were more numerous than in 1863.

MARRIED.

On December 23rd, by D. S. Moore, Esq., Mr. JESSE SPENCER formerly of Penn township, to Miss AMANDA LOCKEY, of Centre county, Pa.
On the 5th instant, by J. R. Caldwell, Esq., Mr. FRAMPTON M. CRACKEN to Miss MARY JANE FERGUSON, both of Ferguson township.

DIED.

On Nov. 21st, 1864, in Carver Hospital, Washington, D. C., of typhoid fever, DAVID L. STORP, of Battery B, 1st Pa. Light Artillery, aged 18 years, 8 months and 1 day. The deceased was a son of Andrew and Sarah A. Shoff, of Beccaria township. He was in the service but a short time, ere he was attacked by the disease which terminated his earthly existence. His remains were brought home and interred in the family burying ground, where they now repose in peace.

STRAY COW.—Came trespassing on the premises of the subscriber in Rogers township, about the first day of July last, a dark brown cow, white face, and about 10 years old. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take her away, or she will be disposed of according to law. EDM. ALBERT.
