PUT IN A SUBSTITUTE. - We find the following brief announcement in the Harrisburg Telegraph of January 6th, 1861:

"Senator Wallace put in a substitute this morning by a special order from Provost Marshal Dodge.

The Harrisburg Telegraph has recently put on a new dress, and now presents an exceedingly near appearance. Persons desiring to obtain full legislative reports should take the Telegraph by all means. It also gives the latest telegraphic news from all parts of the country.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER. -We learn that James A. Mead, of Company K 84th Penn'a Volunteers, died at City Point recently. He was one of the original members of ompany K, and served his country valiantly for more than three years-having participated in nearly all the great lattles which the Army of the Potomac has fought. Peace to his remains.

SPEECH OF MR. SCOFIELD. - We to-day. en our outside, publish the speech of Hon. GLENNI W. SCOFIELD, on the Constitutions al amendment to abolish slavery in the United States. It is an able and comprehensive decument, and should be generally read. We hope, therefore, that our readers will give it a careful perusal, and then place it in the hands of their Democratic neigh-

THE LUMBER BUSINESS. -We are not prepared to state what quantity of timber and logs are being taken out of our forests this season; but we have little doubt it will be sufficiently large to supply the demand in the eastern mark is, although the number of rafts of square timber will not be near so large as last year. We have no exact data to set forth, but we understand that considerable stocks of timber and sawed humber are still on hand in Philadelphia, Baltimore, and other places along the Susquehanna. If this be the case, our operators should be careful not to overstock the market with either logs or square timbusiness which has, for the past two or and deserving class of our citizens.

How the Rebels Treat Our Prisoners! EDITOR JOURNAL .- I had the pleasure, a few days since, of conversing with an old friend, who had been a prisoner for a few month's in Dixie. He confirms all previous statements of Rebel barbavity. He is a shrewd, intelligent fellow and a man that I an put the utmost reliance in. He says that the starvation of our poor soldiers is reduced to a regular system. He was confined for some length of time in a camp near Andersonville, alongside of a forest A prisoner's ration was one pint of corn meal per diem, with water but no fuel. They were not even allowed to buy it from the citizens; or rather, the citizens were not permitted to sell it to the prisoners. Occasionally they would smuggle a little into camp; when a bundle of sticks, not more than a foot and a half long by eight to ten In her stock of Millinery Goods will be found inches in diameter, would readily sell for one dollar in Green-backs, and this when they (the prisoners) could see the towering forest almost within their grasp. This pitiful allowance of one pint of corn meal would not have beer sufficient to sustain life if great numbers had not been ill, and the well received what the sick did not eat. The sick! God preserve them. How any ever recover, is more than I can guess. He said that he saw those sick with diarrhea, lie in their own filth from three to five days before death would end their sufferings. Notwithstaning the short rations, one day this miserable portion was reduced one half and remained so for two weeks. The men were almost insane with hunger, ready to do most anything, when a rebel Officer-Gop save the mark! Officer, indeed!unde them a speech in this wise: "We treat our soldiers well, but your government has forsaken you. For the sake of the negro Lincoln has left you to your fate. We have only about a hundred negro prisoners and forty thousand white. Lincoln says if we do not release the hundred, the forty thousand may die. If any of you wish to he revenged upon such a government join us and we will treat you to the best the land can afford. We will give you fifty dollars in gold or eleven hundred in Confederate notes, two months furlough and board you for the time, free of expense, at the best hotel in Augusta, where there are plenty women and pretty ones too. Who will accept the offer?" This speech explains their crueltv. It is to force our soldiers into their depleted ranks, and if they do not fill them they at least reduce ours. Their end is drawing BON JOUR. nigh, then cae victis.

The Union force at Beverly. West Virginia, was suddenly attacked on Wednesday morning last, by a superior rebel force, and two hundred of them captured. The rebels then retreated.

CORRECT YOUR ENROLLMENT. OFFICE OF PROPOST MARSHALL,

Ridgway, Elk co., Pa., January 9, 1835. In accordance with Circular No. 152 of A. A. Pro. Mar. Gens Office, Western Division of Penna the Commissioners and Surgeon of the Board of Enrollment of the 19th District of Penna. will hold a session at the Court House, in the Borough of Clearfield for the purpose of correcting the En climent Lists of Clearfield Co., on January the 26th, 27th, and 28th

Citizens throughout the County are earnestly salled upon to aid the officers in the discharge of heir duties, by giving all information bearing upon this important subject.
It must be distinctly understood by the people hat their only surety of a fair proportion of the urdens of the draft lies in the proper correction Every name improperly left upon the lists, swells disproportionately the quota. It is the du-ty therefore of each good citizen to bring before no Board every man, who, by reason of ever age, permanent phisical disability, or two years service, shall be entitled to have his name stricken from the lists; and also to furnish to the Board satisfactory evidence in cases of death, removal, Ac. As, also, the greater number of competent men on these lists, the less likelihood there is of any particular one of them being drawn from the wheel. Each citizen owes it to himself to see that the name of every man in his Township who is properly liable to draft, shall be on the lists I would respectfully recommend to the different sub districts the propriety of appointing Committion, and bring the parties concerned, or the evi dence of their death or removal, before the Board An opportunity is now offered to all sub districts of correcting completely their Enrollment Lists. It must be done, and should be distinctly understood that should another draft be subsequently ordered, no notice whatever will be taken of complaints of Committees that their enrollment Lists are erroneous; nor will any suspension of draft,
