THE TRIBUNE FOR 1865.

PROSPECTUS. The Military and Naval successes of 1864, with the auspicious result of our Presidential contest. the Loyal Millions of our countrymen. It is now felt, even by those who have been distrustful and faint-hearted, that the Union is to emerge triumphant from the deadly strife whereinto she was so wickedly precipitated by her assailants, and that Slavery her relentless foe, is to encounter the fate of Haman. The perils of foreign intervention and of Western insurrection are safely passed; Abraham Lincoln no longer assailable as the choice of a minority, holds the helm of State for four years longer; the Rebellion, palpably weak-ened by its defeats and losses during the year now closing-with its credit so reduced that its purse-bearer officially declares that its Treasury Notes can only be exchanged for coin at the rate of twenty-five for one, while its bonds command but six cents on the dollar-but awaits the blow which shall soon strike the sword from its parrieidal hand and remit its master-spirits to the justice, or it may be to the clemency, of a sorely wronged and justly incensed but forbearing and magnanimous People. Such are the auspices which justify our year soon to open will see the Stars and Stripes float unchallenged from every battlement in the Republic, and the perfect law of Liberty for All immovably imbedded in the Constitution of our Union.

The New York Tribune, founded in 1841, will enter upon its twenty-fourth year with quickened hopes and enlarged means of usefulness. Its principles need no re-statement: its aims are the liffusion of Intelligence and the inculcation of a spirit of Freedom and Humanity. When this truth shall have generally been recognized and established as the basis of our institutions and poli ty, that injustice to the poorest, the weakest, the ost despised, is a fearful mistake—that no community or State can afford to wrong even its humblest member-then will our land bask once more in the calm sunshine of peace and prosperity.

The Tribune has for the last year been publish ed without profit to its proprietors, solely because of the depreciation of our Currency below the the specie standard, compelling us to buy paper and other materials at a cost considerable above the full amount received from our subscribers On our Weekly edition, the net loss has amounted to many thousands of dollars; while our large receipts from Advertising have been wholly absorbed by the extraordinary expenses for Corres pondence. Telegraphing, &c . devolved upon us by the War. As we do not suppose our patrons desire that we should work at our own cost, and prefer not to be patronized by any who may de sire it, we have somewhat advanced for the en-suing year the prices of our Semi-Weekly and Weekly, as we had already done with those of our Daily editions. This increase is purely nom-inal: there never before was a time when the farmers of our country could buy The Tribune for so little of their own products or labor as they can by the following TERMS:

DAILY TRIBUNE. Mail subs's, 1 copy, 1 year—312 numbers, $10 00 SEMI-WEEKLY BRIENE. Mail subs'rs, 1 copy, 1 year-104 numbers, 2 copies, do 5 copies, or over, to one address,

WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Mail subs'rs, single copy. I year, 52 numbers 2 50 do Clubs of five, to one address, 10 00 Persons remitting $20 for 10 copies. to one address, will receive one copy extra, gratis. Persons remitting $40 for 20 copies, to one address, will receive one copy Semi-Weekly gratis Persons remitting $80 for 40 copies, to one address, will receive one copy Daily, gratis Drafts on New York payable to the order of the 'Tribune." being safer, are preferable to any other mode of remittance. But where drafts can not be conveniently procured. United States. or National Bank bills are the next best, and may be sent by mail; but in case of loss, The Tribune will not be responsible unless furnished with a full description of the bills, including the name of the bank, denomination and number, and the time and place of the mailing of the letter with the inclosures, Address.
