LOST—a large brass key, on Tuesday evening. The finder will be liberally rewarded, on leaving it at this office.

FILL YOUR QUOTA.—We have been requested to state, that M. A. Frank, Esq., will attend to filling the quotas of several townships, if application is made soon.

ERRATA.—Several typographical errors occurred in the receipts and expenditures, last week—the corrections have been made. An omission also occurred in the notice of the sale of lands of Hurd's heirs, which has been supplied.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK.—By reference to our advertising columns the reader will find the certificate, authorizing the "First National Bank of Clearfield." We will also state, for the benefit of the public, that the Bank is now open and doing business in the office heretofore occupied by J. B. McEanally, Esq.

THE WEATHER AND ROADS.—Several days, last week, the sun shone quite warm in this region, and the snow melted sufficient to make the roads quite slushy; but since then we have had hard freezing, and now the roads are again in the best of condition for sedding and hauling.

UNPRECEDENTED BLACKGUARDISM.—For some time the citizens living near the centre of our Borough, have been annoyed by a species of blackguardism, that should be speedily and promptly abated. Some large boys, who begin to think themselves men, are in the habit of congregating together, and pretending to fight—during which they curse and swear and howl in a manner that could, perhaps, only be excelled by the fiends in the infernal regions.

It is mentioned in diplomatic circles that Maximilian's Mexican envoy was received at St. Petersburg, but got only a polite note recognizing his appearance, and that no Russian envoy is to be sent at present to Mexico. There is reason to believe this action of the Russian Government was upon the advice of its Minister here.

Nevada walked into the U. S. Senate and hung up her hat—or rather her hats—February 1st. We congratulate that lusty young State on the brightening skies of our Republic at the hour of her welcome advent, and confidently predict that she will be one of the firmest pillars of our glorious Union.

WHOLESALE DEPORTION.—It was stated on the floor of the Ohio Senate lately, by Senator GUNCKEL, who obtained the information from the Adjutant General of the State, that on the day previous there had been received at Camp Chase 469 recruits, and of that number 130 had deserted during the forenoon.

We learn from the Pittsburg Gazette, that the population of that city has nearly quadrupled in 24 years. In 1840 polled a vote of 6,538; in 1864, 20,978. Surely, the Smoky City is a place of some note; as is attested by the number of most excellent Daily papers published there.

The decision of the Supreme Court of Michigan, declaring the law allowing soldiers in the field to vote to be unconstitutional, will give the Democrats one member of Congress, eight members of the State Legislature and a large number of county officers in the State.

The Union prisoners in Georgia have been transferred to Salisbury, North Carolina, to prevent their release by Sherman. Their treatment by the rebels is more inhuman than ever before. The number of deaths is fearful, and on the increase, averaging fifty daily.

Dr. J. S. Jeffries, a government detective, doing duty from post headquarters at Cincinnati, was betrayed by a rebel deserter last week into the hands of the guerrillas in Bourbon county, Ky., who first murdered and then robbed him.

The joint resolution of the Penn'a Legislature, ratifying the amendment to the constitution passed by Congress, was passed by the Senate on the 3d instant by a vote of 14 yeas & 8 nays; in the House by a strict party vote.

Tribute of Respect. The following preamble and resolutions were adopted by Co. B, 149th Regt., Pa. Vol., Jan. 23d, 1865, on learning that their late commander, Capt. William Holden, was dead:

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from us, and this world, Capt. William Holden, of the 149th Regt., Pa. Vol., That while bowing with submission to that inscrutable Providence which, shielding him amid many dangers and hardships for more than two years of active life in the field, has called him home to die, we can but feel in his death a great loss to us, as well as to his country and friends.

Resolved, That his life, with us, has been uniformly kind, courteous and gentlemanly—always eschewing the vices of the army, and discountenancing them among us, so as to merit our highest commendations, and invite our imitation.

Resolved, That as an officer we must always remember him as modest and conscientious—laboring for the welfare of his men, true to his country, and amid much infirmity of body never shrinking from any post of duty, however dangerous or arduous, and reluctantly retiring when failing health absolutely commanded him from the field.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere sympathies to his parents and friends, who are called to mourn the loss of worthy a son and brother; and ask them to accept a copy of these resolutions, from his late command, as a token of their respect for him and them.

Sergeant JOHN L. REX, Chairman. Lieut. ALBERT B. COLE, Secretary.

At a meeting of the officers of the 149th Regt., Penn'a Vols., held the same date, it was unanimously Resolved, That we sincerely unite in this humble tribute of respect to our late companion in arms, and also tender our sympathies to his friend.

Lt. Col. JOHN IRVIN, Chairman. Adj't Jno. F. IRWIN, Secretary.

Important to Substitute Brokers. The Ohio Legislature has just passed a law, which is quite severe on Substitute Brokers. The following are the material features of the bill.

Sec. 1. Makes it unlawful for any person or persons to engage in the business of procuring credits for counties, townships, &c.

Sec. 2. That the legally constituted authorities or any voluntary association of citizens in any county, township, city, ward or sub-district, may employ one or more agents to procure substitutes, volunteers or credits to fill quotas, paying such agent or agents, a reasonable compensation therefore; but in no case shall such compensation be retained or paid in whole or in part, out of any bounty stipulated to be paid to such volunteers or substitutes.

Sec. 3. For violation of the provisions of the act a fine of $1,000 for each offence, or be imprisoned in the county jail and fed on bread and water only for thirty days.

It is said, now that Wilmington is closed to the rebel trade that attention will be wholly directed to Mexico, through which ports, it is claimed, sufficient cotton can be sent abroad to pay regularly the interest on the rebel bonds and keep a handsome balance on hand besides. The rebels already have the money in London to meet the March and September payments.

The crew of the rebel steamer Florida, which was captured in the harbor of Bahia by the United States Steamer Wachusett, have been liberated by order of the Government. They number about thirty. They were taken from Fort Warren in a tug and placed on board the British steamer Canada, which sailed from Boston on February 1st for Halifax.

The quota of Indiana, under the call for 300,000 men, is 22,382. That number at $600 each would amount to thirteen and one-half millions of dollars. A bill authorizing cities and counties to borrow money and issue bonds to pay bounties to raise recruits to fill their quotas, has passed the Senate of Indiana, and will probably pass the House.

It is mentioned in diplomatic circles that Maximilian's Mexican envoy was received at St. Petersburg, but got only a polite note recognizing his appearance, and that no Russian envoy is to be sent at present to Mexico. There is reason to believe this action of the Russian Government was upon the advice of its Minister here.
