Total increase in the valuation in the county on the assessment of 1862, $136,000

In accordance with the Act of Assembly regulating Trienial Assessments, and constituting a board of revision, the Commissioners of Clearfield county, herewith publish the above statement, showing the aggregate value and assessments made by each assessor in the county for 1865, upon property taxable by law, and herewith give notice that the 2d day of March, A. D. 1865, at the Commissioners office, in Clearfield, is fixed by them for finally determining whether any of the said valuations of assessors have been made below a just rate; and all parties interested will take notice, that appeal may be made between this time and that day, but that after said day none will be allowed.

SNOW.—From twelve to fifteen inches of snow has fallen in this county, within the last ten days, and, in consequence of the high winds, many of the roads are entirely blocked up with drifted snow.

OIL EXCITEMENT.—On Monday last our town was suddenly thrown into a high state of oil "fever" (the mercury having been thirty degrees below zero that morning) by the announcement that the "real ile" had been "struck" on the farm of James Bailey, in Lawrence township. The story of the discovery is as follows: Mr. Bailey has for some time past observed a greasy substance on the water flowing from a spring—that the water had an unpleasant taste, but never thought that it might be oil until within a short time, when he gathered some of the "liquid," and upon investigation it was pronounced "coal oil." Several of our citizens who are very "feverish" on account of "oil on the brain," were induced to visit the "flowing well" on Monday, and procure some of the "oleagenous fluid." We understand that they all vouch for the presence of "oil." That it is a very fair "surface indication" of pure oil, no one will deny after examining the specimens—yet, the "fever" is somewhat abating.

COLD.—On Monday morning last the mercury indicated 30 degrees below zero, in this place—being the coldest of the season.

THE COUNTY VALUATION.—We this week publish the valuation of all taxable property in Clearfield county, as returned by the Assessors of the several townships to the Commissioners—together with a comparative statement, showing the increase and decrease since the returns of 1862.

THANKS.—We publish the following communication with pleasure:

The soldiers of Co. A, 16th Regt., V. R. C., most cordially return their heartfelt thanks to the friends, in and around Clearfield, for their kindness in supplying us with many delicacies, of which we are deprived by being absent from our dear homes. We came amongst you as strangers, and you took us in; if sick you would visit us, and if naked clothe us—in fact, we find you would do all you can to make us comfortable; for which we are not only grateful, but return a soldier's blessing, which is all we can bestow. How long we may stay with you, no one of us can tell; but we hope that, so long as we do remain, we may have the friendship of all, and may the future, like the past, be pleasant to both civilian and soldier; so that, when we leave you for our homes, or duty elsewhere, we can look back with pleasure to the days we passed in Clearfield.

SOLDIER.

NEW REBEL FLAG.—The new flag, adopted by the Senate on Saturday, is as follows; The width is two-thirds of its length, with the Union now used as a battle flag, to be in width three fifth of the flag, and so proportioned as to leave the length of the field on the side of the Union twice the width. Below it is to have the ground red, and broad blue salters thereon, bordered with white and emblazoned with mullets or fine painted stars, corresponding in number to that of the Confederate States, the field to be white except the outer half from the Union, which shall be a red bar extending the width of the flag.

LIEUT. GOVERNOR JACOBS, of Kentucky, a few days since, took ground in favor of the ratification of the constitutional amendment by that State. He said: "Kentucky is bound to become a free State through the choice of her own people, and delay in settling the question can only complicate the process by which she will reach that destiny.

A NUMBER unpaid Federal soldiers have been behaving in very riotous manner at Portland, Indiana. The men were so unruly that some troops had to be sent from Louisville, Ky., to quell the disturbance.
