To the Commisioners of Clearfield County: Gentlemen:—At your request, the undersigned proceded to Ridgeway to make an examination of the Rolls, and, if possible, o arrive at the quota of men required from this county on the present call. We take great pleasure in saying, Col. Campbell offered us every facility in his possession to make the examination.

We found on the carollment as it stood on the 31st December 1864, 2488 names. There have been since then, 688 names stricken from that Roll; and others still will be, say about 300. This would leave our names on the Roll about 1500. We were unable to ascertain the exact number, as the board had not completed their list of

DIED: On February-12th, in Bradford township, of heart disease, MATTHEW FORCEE, aged 58 years, 6 months and 25 days. The deceased was one of the pioneers of Clearfield county. He was born near Wilmington, State of Deleware. He came with his parents, to this county when a child-settled near the county seat of Clearfield, but removed from thence to Bradford township, where he grew into manhood. He being the only son, his father gave him the management of his farm. Although very poor in his early days, yet, in the process of time, by his industry and perseverance beamassed sufficient means to enable himself to live comfortably, and aid his less fortunate neighbors. He was kind and benevolent. Ray, Lanerson will preach in the Latheran Col. For the consolation of his bereaved family and relations, and especially for those who were not with him in his last moments, the writer would say, having visited him during his afflictions, that he found him, not as a worldling trusting in his earthly treasure or looking into the future with fearful forebodings, but peaceful and happy and confiding in that Savior in whom he had been taught to believe by Christian parents, for, when yet a child, his pious mother led him to Christ, where he sought and found that peace with God, which surpasseth all understanding.
