GOING IT ALONE ON SLAVERY .- South Carolina seems determined to come to an issue with Davis upon the slavery question. The Charleston Mercury, in opposition to the Richmond press, maintains that slavery was the cause of the war, as it was the encroachments made upon this institution which provoked the rebellion. After losing thirty thousand of its best people, South Carolina will not suffer slavery to bartered away by Davis or the Rebel Congress. It says grandly—"We want no Confederate the publisher. Government without our institutions." "talk of emancipation is to disband our (the Rebel) armies." This looks as if South Carolina meant to set up a confederacy of her own, leaving the other Rebel States out in the cold. Sherman's presence in the

State may modify this intention. He will probably be in Charleston in time to take part in the discusssion. THE PRESIDENT ON REBEL RELIGION .-Two ladies from Tennessee called upon the President, importuning the release of their husbands held as prisoners of war at Johnson's Island. When the President ordered the release of the prisoners, he said to one of the ladies who laid great stress upon her husband being a religious man: "You say that your husband is a religious man. Tell him when you meet him that I say that I am not | ment. much of a judge of religion, but that in my opinion, the religion that sets men to rebel and fight against their Government because, as they think, that Government does not sufficiently help some men to eat their bread in the sweat of other men's faces, is not the sort of religion upon which people can get to heaven.

A most important discovery, far more so than that of the alleged source of the Nile. has just been made in South America. It is that the great river Amazon is found to be navigable from one end to the other; that in fact, a new route has been opened between the Atlantic and the Pacific. The Morona, a Peruvian steamer, which was sent to explore the Amazon, arrived at Mayro, about three hundred miles from Lima. The Morona navigated more than 2,000 miles of the Amazon proper, and 600 of the Yeavali and the Hacoitea rivers, which until then had only seen Indian canoes. The country is of course inhabited only by savages, but it is of wonderful fertility.

THAT'S RIGHT.—Brigadier General Tillson, Provost Marshal General of East Tennesse, has issued a general order announcing that hereafter no person will be allowed to take the Amnesty Oath at his office, unless it shall clearly appear that their sympathies and influence are actively enlisted in the restoration of authority of the National Government. It will not do that they are willing merely to submit. They must go fur-ther than that. Their repentence must be such as needs not to be repented of, but anxious to identify themselves with those who are striving to "restore peace and establish the national authority.

PHILOSOPHIC DISCERNMENT.-Freddy had him there, as the story will show. Freddy is a little one of seven years' growth, the son of a minister, who, with his wife, had just arrived at a new field of labor. Hearing his mother say to his father that she had been deceived by his saying that the parsonage was a three-story building, when it was only a two, he said: "Ma." "Well, Freddy." 'Pa is right," 'How so Freddy?" 'The kitchen is one." 'Yes." 'The upper floor is two." "And the story Pa told is three."

HAD HIM.-A Boston hackman recently drove a couple of Englishmen to see Bunker Hill Monument. Having satisfied their curiosity so far as the Monument was concerned. they returned to the hack, where they found the driver sitting quietly upon his seat.

"I say driver," says one of the Englishmen, "this is the place where we Englishmen gave you Yankees a dam'd thrashing about eighty years since. "-"WeIl," says the driver, "don't know as I ever heard tell about that; but who owns the land now?

In a poem by Hoffman, the German poet who was expelled from the Prussian dominions, and the admission of his works prohibited, the following huge word appears: Steuerverweigerungverfassungsmassigberech tight, meaning a man who is exempt by the constitution from the payment of taxes. We ourselves have heard of a gentleman, a member of the Marrionettenschauspielhausengesellschaft, who was said to be an excellent performer on the Constantinopolitanischedudelsackpfeife.

TRUTH WILL PREVAIL. -At the session of a United States Military Commission in Cincinnati on the 3d instant, Amos Green, of Illinois, testified that he visited Windsor, Canada West, and there initiated Mr. Vallandingham into the Order of American Knights, putting him through all the degrees except that of the Supreme Council, in a single day. Mr. Green was at the time Grand Commander of the State of Il-

How Long Pat wore his Shirt. - An officer inspecting his company one morning spied one private whose shirt was sadly be-grimmed. "Patrick O'Flynn," called out the officer. "Here your honor," promptly responded Pat with his hand on his cap.— "How long do you wear a shirt?" thun-dered the officer. "Twenty eight inches," was the rejoinder.

A CERTAIN Scotch friend of ours, who is not a member of the temperance society be. ing asked by a dealer to purchase some fine old Jamaica rum, drily answered: "To tell you the truth, sir, I canna say I'm very fond of rum: for if I tak mair then sax tumblers it's very apt to give a body the headache?'

POLITENESS. - A bright little boy, on hearing one of the Southern proclamations read, said, recently," Jeff Davis is so wonderfully polite, that when we catch him, I think we had better ask him whether he would prefer to be hung on a sour or sweet apple tree.

A lady whose girls were all misshapen con-sulted the celebrated anatomist and lecturer, Dr. Hebbard, on a prevention. "Loose dresses and plenty of air, just like the boys," was the excellent reply of this gentleman.

VERY NATURAL. - Speaking of the imaginative nature of woman, a certain writer says: The only time a woman does not exaggerate is when she's talking of her own age. Brick Pomeroy says-"In this section the whiskey is so weak since the war tax struck it that it is run in candlemoulds, frozen and sold by the stick!"
