EXCHANGED. -- We learn that among the recently exchanged prisoners are Maj. W. Ross Hartshorn, Capt. J. Elliott Kratzer, and Lieut. John W. Haslett, and that they will return to their homes in this county within a few days. This is truly gratifying news to their relatives and many friends.

Died. -It is with emotions of deep sorrow that we announce the death of Joseph Williams, formerly of K, old Bucktails. He was among the prisoners captured on the Weldon railroad on the 19th of August last. He died at Salisbury, N. C., a victim of rebel barbarity and starvation. Peace to his remains.

NEW BANK. -- By reference to our adver-National Bank is about to be opened in this place, under the title of "The County National Bank of Clearfield"—of which James T. Leonard is President, and Wm. V. tising columns it will be soon that another Wright, Cashier. This bank, we believe, is to supercelle the "Clearfield County Bank," now doing business under the State

AT HOME. - We had the pleasure of meeting James Ross and George M Donald, on Tuesday last, as they were on their way merly belonged to company K. Old Bucktails, and were taken prisoners in August last, on the Weldon railroad. Ever since their capture they have been confined at a short time since. Both look pretty well at this time, and expect soon again to return to the front.

DEATH OF A. A. BRADIN, ESQ.-It is with regret that we announce the death of A. A. Bradin, Esq., of Philipsburg. Mr. Bradin was for some years confined to his roomhaving been afflicted, to such an extent, by rheumatism, as to be almost entirely helpless. At the time of his death he was an acting Justice of the Peace, which position enabled him to earn a livelihood for himself. He was a man of no ordinary ability-was a ready writer, as his letters over the signature of "Leroi," which appeared in the Journal within the last year, attest. He was a man of good disposition, kind and accomodating. His many friends will deeply mourn his death.

CLEARFIELD CO. BOUNTY LAW

SENATE CHAMBER, HARRISBURG, March 6th, 1865. EDITOR JOURNAL :- Annexed please find copy of Bill for bounties in our county. It originated in the Senate-has passed both Houses, and is now a law. A general bounty law has also passed the Senate, allowing munincipal authorities to pay $500 bounty, and giving bounty to drafted men, and to those putting in substitutes. This last named bill will probably become a law.

Respectfully, WM. A. WALLACE. Respectfully,

An Acr relative to the payment of boun-ties by the county of Clearfield: SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Com-monicealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the au-thority of the same; That the commissioners of Clearfield county shall be, and they who has been drafted since August twentyor has put in a substitute since that date, or shall hereafter be drafted therefrom and the service, or shall put an exceptathe substitute into the service in his room, the sum of three hundred dollars; and all the provisions of the several acts of Assemof taxes for that purpose, shall be and they are hereby extended to and declared to apby to the purpose aforesaid, in the county aforesaid; and the said three hundred dollars shall be paid at such time, and in such proportions, as the said Commissioners may diprovided that the whole shall be paid the citizen may have been drafted.

out of twenty-nice members of Capt. J. Elliott Kratzer's company, captured on the Weldon railroad on August 19th, 1864, sixteen have died in the rebel prisonpens at Salisbury, N.C. More than one-half of our brave men, then taken prisoners by the rebels, have been sterved to death! Think of it! Is it not horrible to contemplate the fate of these noble and devoted patriots? Yet such is the end of thousands of our gallant soldiers. May God speed the day when final victory will perch upon our glorious The above races unless paid for before January banner-when the deluded people of the South will see the error of their course and return to their allegiance to the Union, and when the authors of these horrible crimes and the leaders in this cruel and unjustible rebellion shall receive their just deserts.

> THE WEATHER AND RAFFING. - During the past ten days the air and sun have been quite warm in this region, and the snow has rapidly disappeared. The melting of snow, and some little rain, caused the streams to rise considerably on Saturday last, and on Sunday the ice broke up in some of them. The Sasquehanna is now free of ice, from a point several miles 1 75 above this place to east of the mountains, 1 50 but it has not, as yet, run out from the upper part of the river. If the weather continues favorable, our lumbermen will commence "rafting in" within a few days.

We learn that the ice gorged very much, below this place, on Sunday. In many places it was shoved more than thirty feet out on the shore, and as the ice gave way below and the water receded, much of timber lying on the banks was carried into the stream, and went adrift. This is to be regretted, as most of the timber made this season has cost our lumbermen a more than usual price, on account of the high rate of labor, provisions and teed.

THE LADY'S FRIEND. - Another beautiful teel engraving opens the MARCH number of this favorite periodical, just received. The engraving has no title other than the wo simple lines-

Deserting-Voting.

The Amendatary Eurollment bill now be fore Congress provides that every person Salisbury, N.C., until they were exchanged | who, having been enlisted or drafted to serve in the National forces in the present struggle. has hitherto deserted and shall not within fixty days present himself for duty, or who shall hereafter enlist or be drafted and shall in like manner desert, shall thereupon cease o be a citizen of the United States and to be entitled as a citizen to vote. This provision Dr. Dwight Townsend (Dem.) of New York moved on Monday to Strike out and was backed therein by Messrs, Chandler of this City and J. C. Affen of Illinois. The motion was beaten and the bill passed. Yeas, 0; nays, 39.

It seems to us plain that the man who de erts when legally summoned or voluntarily enlisted to defend his country ought in simple decency to refrain from further attempts o govern her. How any one can vote that he ought to remain an elector after such recreancy, we do not understand; and how a party as crafty as the Democratic has been can so plainly betray its consciousness that the deserters nearly all belong to its fold, as the Democratic party did by its opposition to this disfranchisement of deserters, we may see after further explanation. At present the proposition that he who skedaddles from his country when called on to fight for her should stay away when the time comes for oting-nay, should be compelled to do so when his own sense of decency does not constrain him to absence from the polls-seems quite as clear as that two and two make four.—N. Rebel Torpedo Boat Captured.

CHATTANOOGA, March 22.—The Gazette has lengthy details of the capture of a rebel general and fourteen men at Chapman's landing, below Kingston, on the Tennessee, by seven loyal Tennesseeans. The yawl was armed with torpedoes and infernal machines for destroying government property. The party were regularly uniformed, and acting under orders of the rebel Navy Department. The yawl was built at Richmond, and brought to Bristol on the cars, and placed are hereby authorized, to pay each citizen on the Holston river, thence, with muffled oars to the place of its capture. Their infifth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty- structions were not to destroy or disturbanyfour, and is now in the service therefrom, thing till they got below Kingston, when they were to destroy the Government transports. They hoped, also, to destroy warehouses, rolling mills, eet, on the banks of the river at that place. The whole enterprise was in charge of a scientific officer. The rebels were chagrined at being outwitby of this Commonwealth, authorizing the ted by half their number of citizens, after bounties, and the assessment and collection Knoxville, Kingston, and other points on of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forcarmed against disease. and. o far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, Impure water and oth-er external causes, Hostetter's Bitters may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts intested with Fever and Agne, it has been found infallible as a preventive and irresistible as a remedy and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of on attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avai scorge, and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance-are cured by a very brief course of this marvel-ous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after be-ing plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly satured with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable Tonic and hence it works wonders in cases of Dispepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion a gentie and painless apperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipa-tion superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and scoretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Billious Colic is immediately as-suaged by a single dose of the stimulent, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a General Tonic, Hostetter's Bitters produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from Old Age. it exercises the electric influence. In the conva-lescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-ce-

Last, but not least, it is the only safe Stimulent, being manufactured from sound and innocusus materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachies of the day. The immense increase in the sale of Hostetter's Bitters, both at home and abroad, during the past year proves that the world, while it obeys the Scriptural injunction to "try all things." only "Holds fast to that which is good." Spurious preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up. but their character is soon discovered, and they are "flung like worthless weeds away." On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it on its introduction, is "not for a day, but for all time."

No family medicine has been so universally and, it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as Hos-
