ELECTED. -On Thursday of last week, the intelligence reached this place that Captain like to "the just and the unjust," and that pardoned, on the condition that they return we were among the "elect.' We received the notice with cheerfulness, as every good citizen should. Whether we will comply with nal term of collistment, and in addition pends upon circumstances. Should the several contingencies fail, and we be obliged to don a suit of "Uncle Sam's" blue, we will adopt the expedient of Artemus Ward, and resign-ourself to our fate.

RELEASED. - A large number of the citiizens who were arrested in this county, have been released on taking the oath of allegiance, and giving their parole to report when required. Their discharge was effected through the efforts of H.B. Swoope, Esq., who has been at Harrisburg and Washington for the last two weeks for that purpose. The following are among the number discharged; Peter Keller, Israel Huffnagle, Henry Shugart, George Shugart, John Kuhnly, C. Shugart. D.S. Huffnagle, Henry Zilliox, Jr., George Korb, George J. Weaver, Jacob Keller, Andrew Miller, Samuel Miles, Jerry Wagoner, Isaac Dunlap, W. A. Dunlap, J. R. Dunlap, Ross Dunlap, John Mays, Johnathan Bowman, David Rolls, J. Blake Walters, Jacob Hubler, John D. Miller. A number of others were discharged in the same way, whose names we do not know.

A SOLDIERS' FUNERAL.—On yesterday (Tuesday) the funeral of JAMES A. MEAD, of Company K 84th Penn'a Volunteers, whose death we announced on the 18th of January, took place. His body was embrother-in-law, and was taken to the Court room, where it remained until Tuesday, when the funeral took place. The services were conducted by Rev. L. M. Gardner, who preached an appropriate sermon, from the words "Death shall be swallowed up in vic- Beyers, Thomas tory." James A. Mead was a brave und gallant soldier, and much beloved by his fellow-soldiers, who deemed him worthy of imitation. He was affable and kind, and always ready and willing to perform any duty, no matter how arduous or dangerous. He was a member of the Methodist Church. May his gallant services ever be remembered tal appreciated by a patriotic people.

THE RIVER AND RAFTING .- Since our last issue, the ice has run out of the upper part of the river, and we presume out of all the lesser streams, and "rafting in" was commenced. Very little progresswas made, however, in putting the timber into the the streams, on account of the cold weather. On Saturday morning last the mercury stood at zero, and on Saturday night about one inch of snow fell, since which the air has been quite cold. But the work of "rafting in" is again progressing with a fair prospect of continuing until completed. The river is too high this (Wednesday) morning for safe running, and still rising.

GUELICH TOWNSHIP. - This township has filled her quota on the last call-having mustered in eleven men, which, in addition to three of a credit over her last quota, makes fourteen men on the present call. Owing to the fact that the certificates did not all reach the office of the Provost Marshal, at Ridgway, until the day after the draft was made, a few men were drafted in that township, but they have been ordered not to report. "Little Guelich" is always right, especially when voting, or volunteering to fill the ranks of our armies, is the order of the day. Guelich is the second sub-district, in the county, that has entirely filled its quota, on the present call, before the draft.
