THE WAR NEWS. SHERMAN.

Late Rebel News from North Carolina.

NEW YORK, March 24-9 P. M.-Major General Dix: The following extracts from Richmond papers were received this evening at 8 30 p. m. from General Grant: CITY POINT, March 23.—Hon. E. M. Stan-ton, Secretary of War:—Richmond papers are received. The following is from the Dispatch:—From North Carolina—It is understood in official circles that no fighting 3 00 has occurred in North Carolina since Sunday, has occurred in North Carolina since Sunday, and from all we can learn, it appears that Sherman has attempted no advance since his check on that day. General Hardee's his check on that day. General Hardee's victory on the 16th was very important one, 1 50 and as regards the enemy, a most bloody 2 00 affair. General Johnsston telegraphs that 1 50 in that battle the Confederate loss was 450, 50 while that of the enemy was 3,300. The fight took place at Avengboro, on the Cape Fear river half way between Raleigh and to be brought in. U. S. GRANT, Lt. Gen. 1 50 5 00 Fayetteville, General Johnston's defeat of the enemy last Sunday, the 19th instant, oc-16 curred at Bentonville, near Neuse river. By 8 00 these facts we are informed that Sherman is pushing towards Raleigh in two columns, one moving due north for Fayetteville, the other north west for Newbern. General Hardee fought the former; Gen. Johnston 2 50 the latter." U. S. GRANT, Lieut. Gen. The Raleigh (N. C.) Progress give the following account of the battle, without vouching for the absolute truth of the statement: It seems that the fight commenced about 4 50 noon on Wednesday, the 15th instant, and 8 00 continued briskly until night. Considerable skirmishing was carried on all night, and on Thursday morning the battle commenced furiously and raged all day. General Hardee, with about half a corps, was intrenched be-tween Black creek and Cape Fear river, at ro great distance from the confluence of these two streams, but at a point higher up than that at which the enemy crossed the former stream. Here he was attacked by two corps of Sherman's veterans, and our works were charged three several times, and each charge was repulsed with immense Official from Sherman.

WASHINGTON, March 27 .- A special messenger, who left Goldsboro, N. C., on the 22d, arrived here to-day, and reports the occupation of that place, on the day be.ore, by General Schofield's forces. He also brings highly important information that Sherman formed a junction with Schofield and Terry, at a place called Cox's Bridge, provement within the past three days. If on the Neuse River, a few miles west of the 16th, and defeated him handsomely. He LIEUT. THOMAS J. THOMPSON.-This left all his dead in General Davis' hands, and retreated to Bentonville, where on Sun-day last, the 19th, one division of the Fourtured on the Weldon railroad in August last, teenth Corps was attacked by Joe Johnson, paid us a visit on Monday last. He looks and for a while hurried back, but on being well, considering his long confinement in reinforced by the rest of the division, drove rebel prisons, and will join his command as the enemy back, and during Sunday night he abandoned Bentonville and fell back asoon as his exchange is effected. We wish cross the Neuse river to Smithfield, thus allowing the column of the army to make a complete junction with General Schofield, JEFFERSON COUNTY .- On Thursday the some ten miles west of Goldsboro. The event which followed this victory caused great demuth were engaged in adjusting a pile of rejoicing in both armies. It was the mere temporary success in the first of the fight square timber, near Richardsville, to save which the rebels are boasting over, as such from being carried away by the water, it a great victory. Sherman's loss will not exgave way, threw the men into the water, ceed one thousand. The army is in excellent condition. Detailed accounts, dated Goldsboro, Mar. 24, have been received, of the occupation of atterward. Mr Lindemuth, was doing well that place by Gen. Schofield's forces, on the at last advices. . . . On the 20th, three 23d. His forces moved out to Cox's Bridge, on the Neuse river, six miles beyond Goldsboro, when Gen. Terry's forces were discovered laying a pontoon to cross the river, having marched all the way from Wilmington. In a few minutes afterwards, Sherman's trains of the 20th corps, were discovered the opinion that not near so much timber, moving on the road to Bentonville, to Cox's as formerly, would be run this season; yet, Bridge, and the junction of the right wing we deemed the quantity fully sufficient to of Sherman's army and Terry and Schosupply the demand, and anticipated rather field's forces was permanently made. Gen-eral Sherman had told Schofield that he low prices. The late flood, however, puts a would be at Goldsboro on the 22d, and he different aspect on the lumber trade. Much kepthis word. Some of his staff were there. During that day, after his repulse at Bentonville, Joe Johnson fell back to Smithen islands, and along the shores of the va- field, to cover Raleigh. The desertions about 1,600. Two battle flags have also been brought in. The enemy also lost heav-ity in killed outside of our lines.

The whole line was immediately reocu-pied, and the guns retaken uninjured, I regret to add that General M'Laughlin was captured in Fort Steadman. Our loss was otherwise not heavy. Great praise is due to Hartrauft for the gallantry diplayed in handling his division which behaved with great skill in this, its first engagement.

JOHN G. PARKE, Major General.

Later reports from Gen. Grant which are subjoined, show that the operations of our forces this morning were brilliantly successful. The rebel prisoners already secured, ed at 800, but many prove less.

CITY POINT, March 25, 8 P. M.-Hon. E. M. Stanton: The number of prisoners re-ported by the Provost Marshal, is 2,200 taken by the Ninth corps, and 500 by the Sec-I am not yet able to give the results of the day accurately, but the number of the prisoners captured proves larger than at first reported. The slaughter of the enemy at the point where they entered our lines, and in front of it, was probably not less than 3,000. Our loss is estimated at 800, but may prove less. Gen. Humphreys attacked on the left with great promptness, capturing 100 men, and causing the enemy to return troops to that part of his line rapidly. U. S. GRANT, Lieut. General.

The latest.

After the engagement between the enemy and Ninth corps, this morning, orders were given for the Sixth corps to make an attack on the left of the line, in front of Fort Fisher. The third division, General Seymore commanding, was selected as the assaulting column, and shortly after noon the line of battle was formed and the order to advance given. In a short time our men had possession of the entire rifle pits of the enemy, nearly all of the occupants being made prisoners. Our loss in the affair was very small. Over 800 prisoners were brought in as the result of the engagement.

Still another fight took place near Hatcher's Run, in which the Second corps were engaged. The attack was made about dark and over 400 prisoners fell into our hands on this ground, making in all to-day about 2,875, among whom were near 100 commis-sioned officers, the highest rank being a colonel.

This does not include the rebel wounded in the hospitals, which will be considerable. These men seemed, as they passed along perfectly satisfied with their position, no doubt anticipating a larger supply of rations than they have been getting for some time

Lieut. Nye, of the 14th Massachusetts battery was killed while fighting. He was ordered to surrender his guns, but refused and six bullets were found to have entered his body. He was a gallant officer, and

Col. Penticost, of the 100th Pa., was also killed while gallantly leading his men in the action. This regiment is composed

A RICH HAUL .- A letter from Beaufort, dated 19th, says the wharves along Cape hear river, from Wilmington to Fayetteville, are literally piled with captured cotton, tur-pentine, pitch and rosin, awaiting transportation to the sea coast. The value of this captured property is estimated at millions. Admiral Pearson informs the Navy Department that attempts have been made by rebel sympathizers to construct torpedoes in the vicinity of Panama for blowing up United States naval vessels in the harbor of that town, but their plans have been frustrated.

The Louisville Journal states that Gov. BRAMLETTE has furnished all his slaves with free papers.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1865. PROSPECTUS.

The Military and Naval successes of 1864, with the auspicious result of our Presidential contest. have lifted a heavy weight from the breasts of the Loyal Millions of our countrymen. It is now felt, even by those who have been distrustful and faint-hearted, that the Union is to emerge trium-phant from the deadly strift wherein to the way phant from the deadly strife whereinto she was so wickedly precipitated by her assailants, and that Slavery her relentless foe, is to encounter the fate of Haman. The perils of foreign interven-tion and of Western insurrection are safely pass-ed; Abraham Lincoln no longer assailable as the choice of a minority, holds the helm of State for four years longer; the Rebellion, palpably weak-ened by its defeats and losses during the year now closing-with its credit so reduced that its purse-bearer officially declares that its Treasury Notes can only be exchanged for coin at the rate of twenty-five for one, while its bonds command but six cents on the dollar—but awaits the blow which shall soon strike the sword from its parricidal hand and remit its master-spirits to the justice, or it may be to the elemency, of a sorely wronged end justly incensed but forbearing and magnanimous People. Such are the auspices which justify our year soon to open will see the Stars and Stripes float unchallenged from every battlement in the Republic, and the perfect law of Liberty for All immovably imbedded in the Gonstitution of our Union. The New York Tribune, founded in 1841, will enter upon its twenty-fourth year with quickened opes and enlarged means of usefulness. Its principles need no re-statement: its aims are the diffusion of Intelligence and the inculcation of a spirit of Freedom and Humanity. When this truth shall have generally been recognized and es-tablished as the basis of our institutions and polity, that injustice to the poorest, the weakest, the most despised, is a fearful mistake-that no com-munity or State can afford to wrong eves its humblest member-then will our land bask once more in the calm sunshine of peace and prosperity. The Tribune has for the last year been published without profit to its proprietors, solely because of the depreciation of our Currency below the the specie standard, compelling us to buy paper and other materials at a cost considerable above the full amount received from our subscribers On our Weekly edition, the net loss has amounted to many thousands of dollars; while our large receipts from Advertising have been wholly absorbed by the extraordinary expenses for Corres pondence, Telegraphing, de . devolved upon us by the War. As we do not suppose our patrons desire that we should work at our own cost, and prefer not to be patronized by any who may deire it, we have somewhat advanced for the en suing year the prices of our Semi-Weekly and Weekly, as we had already done with those of our Daily editions. This increase is purely nom-inal : there never before was a time when the farmers of our country could buy The Tribune or so little of their own products or labor as they can by the following TERMS :

Sudden Attack of Rebels on Fort Steadman

Temporary Success and Repulse.

WASHINGTON, March 25.-Major Gen. Dix: This morning at 41 o'clock the ene-my, by a strong and sudden assault, captured Fort Steadman; but after a vigorous contest the Fort was recaptured with 1,500 . STORY ' is the significant title of the hand- prisoners and two battle flags. All the guns were uninjured. General McLaughlin was taken prisoner by the rebels, who also assaulted Fort Haskill but were repulsed with great loss. The official report is subjoined. E. M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

A letter from Charleston says : "Ex-Governor Aiken is one of the largest slaveholders and wealthiest men in the South. Since the occupation of Charleston by our force, he has reported the names of all his slaves, seven hundred and fifty in number, to the commandant of the post, and given each family a farm in one of the most fertile and productive islands on the coast, placed them on it, and all are well started in life. Such a deed deserves to be recorded.

"You have no need to fight Lee," said an intelligent rebel deserter, a few days ago; "only play with him a few months longer and he will not have a man." The rate of desertion is over a hundred a day, and will dety any efforts to keep the army up even by FRONT STREET, ABOVE THE ACADEMY, the aid of negro recruits. The privates are getting tired of "fighting for rich men's niggers," and they erave a peace that will restore us to the blessings of the old Union.

BATTLE FLAGS.-Major COMPTON, of the Eighth New York Cavahy, reached Washington on Monday the 20th in charge of seventeen rebel battle-flags captured by Sheridan's men at the battle of Waynesborough. Each flag was borne by the captor thereof. The trophies were presented to the War Department, and the men, by request of Gen. Custar, have furloughs, all their back pay and medals of honor.

The Boston Trascript states that the high price obtained for the land in State street on Monday induced a bank officer to see how many silver dollars would cover a square foot. He found that sixty-five American silver dollars could be put upon the space. The land in question sold for $92.30 per square foot.

FAMINE PRICES .- A gentleman who arrived in Nashville on the 16th, direct from Lynchburg, Virginia, reports that at the time he left, flour was selling at $1,000 per barrel coffee at $65 per pound, and other commodities at proportionate prices. A charming place for a poor man with a large family.
